Sacramental Presence after Heidegger Conor Sweeney, 2015-01-19 Theology after Heidegger must take into account history and language as constitutive elements in the pursuit of meaning Quite often this prompts a hurried flight from metaphysics to an embrace of an absence at the center of Christian narrativity In this book Conor Sweeney explores the postmodern critique of presence in the context of sacramental theology engaging the thought of Louis Marie Chauvet and Lieven Boeve Chauvet is an influential postmodern theologian whose critique of the perceived onto theological constitution of presence in traditional sacramental theology has made big waves while Boeve is part of a more recent generation of theologians who even more wholeheartedly embrace postmodern consequences for theology Sweeney considers the extent to which postmodernism a la Heidegger upsets the hermeneutics of sacramentality asking whether this requires us to renounce the search for a presence that by definition transcends us Against both the fetishization of presence and absence Sweeney argues that metaphysics has a properly sacramental basis and that it is only through this reality that the dialectic of presence and absence can be transcended The case is made for the full but restless signification of the mother's smile as the paradigm for genuine sacramental presence Finding All Things in God Hans Gustafson, 2017-05-25 In Finding All Things in God Hans Gustafson proposes pansacramentalism as holding the potential to find the divine in all things and all things in the divine Such a proposition carries significant interreligious implications particularly in the practice of theology Presupposing theological practice as divorced from spirituality lived religious experience Gustafson presents pansacramentalism as a bridge between the two In so doing Gustafson offers a history of spirituality sketching the foundations of a classical approach to sacramentality through Aquinas as well as a contemporary approach to the same through Rahner and Chauvet Through three fascinating case studies this book presents particular instances of sacramentality in lived religious experience Gustafson offers an exciting method of doing theology one which is entirely compatible with the interdisciplinary field of interreligious studies The Routledge Handbook of Research Methods in Spirituality and Contemplative Studies Bernadette Flanagan, Kerri Clough, 2024-09-03 The Routledge Handbook of Research Methods in Spirituality and Contemplative Studies provides the first authoritative overview of methodology in this growing field Against the background of the pandemic and other global challenges spirituality is expanding as an agreed term with which to discuss the efforts people make to be fully present to deeper invisible dimensions of their personal identity and external reality but until now there have been few resources exploring the different methodological approaches researchers take This book explores the primary methodologies emerging First Person Second Person and Third Person and provides a systematisation of spirituality research in applied contexts for the first time Comprising 33 chapters by a team of international contributors the book is divided into seven parts Foundations Approaches to Contemplative Research Contemplative Research in Education Contemplative Research in Work and Leadership Contemplative Research in Science Health and Healing Contemplative Research in Social Sciences Contemplative Research and the Way Forward The Handbook provides readers practitioners and policymakers with methods and approaches which can facilitate a spiritual and contemplative stance in research activities It is an essential resource for researchers and students of Religion Spirituality and Research Methods Do this in Remembrance of Me Bryan D. Spinks, 2014-02-10 Bryan Spinks is one of the world's leading scholars in the field of liturgy and to have a comprehensive work by him on the Eucharist is a major catch for SCM Like the author's previous work on Baptism this will become a standard work about the Eucharist and Eucharistic theology worldwide The book a study of the history and theology of the Eucharist is the fifth volume in the SCM Studies in Worship and Liturgy series and will help to establish the series as a place for landmark books of liturgical scholarship Labour of Love

Stanislau Paulau ,George A. Kiraz ,Johannes Makar ,Josef Önder ,Gabriel Bar-Sawme ,Jesse Siragan Arlen ,Christopher Sheklian ,Gaétan du Roy ,2025-09-29 In this edited volume publications from Armenian Syriac Coptic and Tewahdo publishers are taken as crucial witnesses of how these communities rewrite themselves in the lands of migration taking into account not only the texts as such but also how physical books accompanied by social media and digital publications are central in a transnational religious practice geared towards transmitting tradition to the next generation In this the volume bridges the gap between two burgeoning fields the anthropology of Orthodox Christianity and the historical study of the major texts that form the backbone of the Oriental religious traditions Scholars from a variety of disciplines including history anthropology theology and religious studies as well as practitioners in the field of education and publishing have contributed to this volume by bringing in a variety of case studies Thus they helped to situate the concerns of the ERC project Rewriting Global Orthodoxy Oriental Orthodox Churches in Europe 1970 2020 in a broader context of the study of the role of texts and traditions in the Oriental Churches with examples from the North America Armenia Ethiopia Egypt Sweden France Belgium and Germany The volume is opened by an introductory article discussing a few of the underlying themes of the project and the volume religion books learning and closed by an overview of the communal work of the project in mapping publications and publishing by Oriental Orthodox Churches in Europe based on the project s website <https://fourcornersoftheworld.pters.ru> nl The Oxford Handbook of Catholic Theology Lewis Ayres, Medi Ann Volpe, Thomas L. Humphries (Jr.), 2019 This Handbook provides an introduction to all the major aspects of Catholic theology As well as covering basic topics of doctrine and moral theology the book considers some of Catholic theology s most important sources between 200 and 1870 and all the main movements and developments in Catholic theology since 1870 Embodied Words, Spoken Signs Rhodora E. Beaton, 2014 The twentieth century witnessed a renewed interest in a Roman Catholic theology of the word The beginning of this renewal is marked by the work of Karl Rahner who before the Second Vatican Council decried the fact that Roman Catholicism in contrast to the Protestant theological tradition lacked an adequate theology of the word Rahner s contributions as well as those of sacramental theologian Louis Marie Chauvet demonstrate the Roman Catholic conviction that the word is fundamentally sacramental it has the capacity to bear God s presence to humanity Rooted in patristic and medieval sacramental tradition and engaged in dialogue with Reformation theologies Rhodora Beaton examines the further advances in Rahner and Chauvet to articulate the relationship between word and sacrament within the context of language culture and an already graced world as the place of divine self expression as well as analyzes the implications for Trinitarian theology sacramentality liturgy and action
