Memory, Metaphor, and Aby Warburg's Atlas of Images Christopher D. Johnson, 2012-07-26 The work of German cultural theorist and art historian Aby Warburg 1866-1929 has had a lasting effect on how we think about images This book is the first in English to focus on his last project the encyclopedic Atlas of Images Mnemosyne Begun in earnest in 1927 and left unfinished at the time of Warburg's death in 1929 the Atlas consisted of sixty-three large wooden panels covered with black cloth On these panels Warburg carefully intuitively arranged some thousand black and white photographs of classical and Renaissance art objects as well as of astrological and astronomical images ranging from ancient Babylon to Weimar Germany Here and there he also included maps manuscript pages and contemporary images taken from newspapers Trying through these constellations of images to make visible the many polarities that fueled antiquity's afterlife Warburg envisioned the Atlas as a vital form of metaphoric thought While the nondiscursive frequently digressive character of the Atlas complicates any linear narrative of its themes and contents Christopher D Johnson traces several thematic sequences in the panels By drawing on Warburg's published and unpublished writings and by attending to Warburg's cardinal idea that pathos formulas structure the West's cultural memory Johnson maps numerous tensions between word and image in the Atlas In addition to examining the work itself he considers the literary philosophical and intellectual historical implications of the Atlas As Johnson demonstrates the Atlas is not simply the culmination of Warburg's lifelong study of Renaissance culture but the ultimate expression of his now literal now metaphoric search for syncretic solutions to the urgent problems posed by the history of art and culture Teotihuacan Esther Pasztory, 1997 This book is the first comprehensive study and reinterpretation of the unique arts of Teotihuacan including architecture sculpture mural painting and ceramics Comparing the arts of Teotihuacan not previously judged artistic with those of other ancient civilizations Ester Pasztory demonstrates how they created and reflected the community's ideals Most people associate the pyramids of central Mexico with the Aztecs but these colossal constructions antedate the Aztecs by more than a thousand years The people of Teotihuacan who built the pyramids as part of a city of unprecedented size remain a mystery The NKJV Study Bible Thomas Nelson, 2008 The NKJV Study Bible the most comprehensive study Bible available is now better than ever The acclaimed NKJV Study Bible is the most complete study system for pastors teachers or Bible students who desire accurate study in God's Word The Second Edition is better than ever including more features to make it the best all-purpose study Bible available Using the trusted New King James Version R The NKJV Study Bible Second Edition has the mind of a scholar and the heart of a pastor Nelson's skilled team of scholars has produced the study system to reach for when accurate beneficial study in God's Word is the goal Features include Expanded cross references with textual notes Revised word studies and indexes Bible Times and Culture Notes Book introductions and outlines Timelines Reader friendly notes ideal for extended study Deluxe NKJV Concordance

Ba,2015-03-08 Negritude has been defined by L opold S dar Senghor as the sum of the cultural values of the black world as they are expressed in the life the institutions and the works of black men Sylvia Washington B analyzes Senghor s poetry to show how the concept of negritude infuses it at every level A biographical sketch describes his childhood in Senegal his distinguished academic career in France and his election as President of Senegal Themes of alienation and exile pervade Senghor's poetry but it was by the opposition of his sensitivity and values to those of Europe that he was able to formulate his credo. Its key theme and the supreme value of black African civilization is the concept of life forces which are not attributes or accidents of being but the very essence of being. Life is an essentially dynamic mode of being for the black African and it has been Senghor's achievement to communicate African intensity and vitality through his use of the nuances, subtleties and sonorities of the French language. In the final chapter Sylvia Washington B discusses the future of Senghor's belief that the black man's culture should be recognized as valid not simply as a matter of human justice but because the values of negritude could be instrumental in the reintegration of positive values into western civilization and the reorientation of contemporary man toward life and love.
