Sg Sociology In A Changing World:

The Making of Singapore Sociology Tong Chee-Kiong, Lian Kwen-Fee, 2021-11-08 This book presents a collection of essays of how the city state of Singapore's societal dynamics have evolved from the time of its birth as a nation in 1965 to the present. Key areas of Singapore society are explored contributing to the understanding of the social organisation of the city. This study reveals a shift from the modernisation studies in the 1970s to a more political economic turn as a consequence of the influence of dependency and world systems theories. Topics covered include urban studies, family, education, medical care, class and social stratification, work, language, ethnic groups, religion, and crime and deviance. Sociologies in Dialogue Sari Hanafi, Chin-Chun Yi, 2020-07-21 Sociologies in Dialogue brings together expert contributions from international scholars who reflect on the importance of collaboration between diverse sociological perspectives to enhance our understanding of the role of sociology as an academic discipline and as a vehicle for social change. By exploring the distinctive practices and research of a range of sociologists, the book shows how an open dialogue between sociologists is critical to addressing major sociological issues across the globe such as inequality and ethnocentrism and challenging the hierarchies of knowledge production and circulation. Contributors also discuss novel strands in theory and methodology such as multicultural sociology, cosmopolitanism, and multiple modernities. An important contribution for researchers and students interested in global sociology, sociological theories, and methodologies. Globalization and the Evolving World Society, 2021-11-01 The societies of the present world are experiencing many turbulent changes. New forces of change and modernization are driving people, business, and cultures across borders. The world has become a home to a new generation of homo sapiens who are curious about others but at the same time cherish to preserve their own cultures. What is the nature of this evolving world society? Is the world driving toward a new global civilization, an end of history, or an inevitable civilizational clash? The present volume has brought together leading scholars in the field to examine the concept of globalization, deliberate on the character of its multifaceted nature and expressions, and delineate its impact on the emerging world economy, politics, culture, and science. A number of substantive issues such as the emergence of new global economic inequality, culture, and the role of the transnational nature of the emerging global environmental regimes, rise of the NICs, and the conflicting role of the nation states in the face of the advancing forces of globalization are addressed. It is contended that globalization should be perceived neither as an unbounded economic progress nor as an expansion of western domination. Globalization is rather defined as a new development strategy, a process of change that can be planned, guided, and controlled. For national political and business leaders of the world, the volume provides a blueprint of the emerging areas of policy concerns and guidance. For the world of social science, it presents a road map of the emerging intellectual issues and challenges. Contributors are Alessandro Bonanno, Stephen W K Chiu, Douglas Constance, Richard J Estes, R Scott Frey, Archibald O Haller, George A Miller, Proshanta K Nandi, Winifred R Poster, J Timmons Roberts, Shahid M Shahidullah, Bam Dev Sharda, and Alvin Y So. The Contemporary Family in Singapore Eddie C. Y. Kuo, Aline K. Wong, 1979 Twelve essays on the sociology of the family in Singapore in the modern period Handbook of Sports Studies Jay Coakley, Eric Dunning, 2000 An authoritative cast of international and interdisciplinary contributors present the best of current thinking in sports studies as the subject matures and develops academically Bangladeshi Migration to Singapore Md Mizanur Rahman, 2017-03-07 This book examines international labour migrants in the context of South South migration with a focus on Bangladeshi migration to Singapore Two principal questions in the South South migration are addressed Why and how individuals migrate for work and what impact this temporary form of migration has for migrants and their families The book adopts a relatively new methodological approach to labour migration by linking different phases that migrants undergo in the migration process and by combining migrants in the host country with their families in the origin country This is achieved through identifying and addressing six key areas i migration policy ii social imperatives of migration iii recruitment iv social worlds of the migrants v remittance process and finally vi family development dynamics This book introduces the bari to migration research as a unit of analysis over and above individual and family units The book reveals how social and cultural forces both initiate and perpetuate migration and later on influence bari dynamics Learning through Collaborative Research Noel F. McGinn, 2013-01-11 This book covers the seven year project involving China Germany Japan Singapore Switzerland and the US to show how collaborative research can help expand worldwide knowledge of education Education Reform and Education Policy in East Asia Ka-ho Mok, 2006-06-28 This book assesses the impact of globalization on the education systems of key East Asian countries including China Hong Kong Japan and the tiger economies of South Korea Taiwan and Singapore examining how the increasingly interdependent economic system has driven policy change and education reform It discusses how policy makers have responded to changes required in educational outcomes in order to equip their societies for new global conditions and explores the impact of new approaches and ideologies related to globalization such as marketization privatization governance changes managerialism economic rationalism and neo liberalism making comparisons across the region Based upon in depth research fieldwork literature analysis policy document analysis and personal reflections of academics serving in the education sector this volume recounts heated debates about the pros and cons of education restructuring in East Asia The discussions on national responses and coping strategies in this volume offer highly relevant insights on how globalization has resulted in restructuring and draws lessons from comparative public policy analysis and comparative education studies

China's Political Worldview and Chinese Exceptionalism Benjamin Ho, 2025-10-01 China's Political Worldview and Chinese Exceptionalism International Order and Global Leadership uses the notion of Chinese exceptionalism as a framework to analyze China's international politics and foreign policy This book argues that China's approach to international relations is best understood in the context of these claims to exceptionalism and China's broader political world view In doing so it fosters a more comprehensive understanding of China's actions within the realms of foreign policy and international politics and in the context of the preferred world order norms and rules that the country seeks to promote Focuses on the study of China's political worldview an area that is under studied by Western scholars of Chinese politics Emphasizes on China's diplomatic activities in Asia which is an area of great interest to policy makers Study on Chinese exceptionalism which is also an under researched albeit growing theme in recent years Youth Empowerment and Volunteerism Elaine S.C LIU, Michael J. HOLOSKO, T. Wing LO, 2008-12-01 The book provides guidelines and practical creative exercises which equip creatives major students as well as creative practitioners with fundamental knowledge on creation methods Combination of functionality simplicity and aesthetics in modern design is considered a fundamental design principle in the Bauhaus School in Germany and inspired by the School the creative handcrafting exercises and the concepts introduced in this book are primarily coherent with this principle The book draws a direction between two and three dimensional material based design and modern digital creation process The first part of the book introduces various creative handcrafting exercises on proportion geometry and modularity among other fundamental design principles The creative exercises will sensitize students on aesthetical and structural issues and thus serve as an essential building block for application of the design principles to computer based creative processes which are introduced in the second part of the book Published by City University of Hong Kong Press
