Studies in practical criticism Brian Cox, 1963      Modern Arabic poetry, 1800-1970 Moreh, 2023-09-20 Arabic literature is noted for its tradition conscious consistency and sophistication In the classical period poetry and prose reached a high level of refinement and attained standards which are still being applied in the modern Arab world today The literature of the modern post classical period is no less sophisticated being a vibrant and flourishing expression of the continued Arabic tradition The series Studies in Arabic Literature Supplements to the Journal of Arabic Literature founded in 1971 is concerned with all kinds of literary expression in Arabic including the oral and vernacular traditions of both the modern and the classical periods Studies in the series can be literary historical analytical or comparative in nature and can treat of individual works authors and genres as well as literary traditions in a wider context Studies dealing with the social political and philosophical backgrounds of Arabic literature are particularly welcome in the series The series comprises monographs thematic collections of articles handbooks textual editions and annotated translations Text editions are as a rule accompanied by a translation on facing pages both text editions and translations should include comprehensive critical introductions which give a full and proper appreciation of the text or texts in question      A Study of the Poems of D. H. Lawrence M. Lockwood, 1987-12-08      American and British Poetry Harriet Semmes Alexander, 1984      The Poetry of Thom Gunn Stefania Michelucci, 2008-12-24 Thom Gunn served as a mouthpiece for his time illustrating the social cultural and historical transformations that have characterized western civilization from World War II until today Starting with theoretical premises drawn from philosophy anthropology and sociology this work examines Thom Gunn s entire poetic career In Gunn s early poetry the author argues the predominant theme is the desire for freedom from the painful prison of the intellect and from the masks that the individual feels compelled to wear even in his sexual relationships In Gunn s later poetry the author notes a gradual opening to human relationships and to Nature which is also Gunn s vindication and reevaluation of his own nature and the liberation of his long repressed and hidden homosexuality      The New Cambridge Bibliography of English Literature: Volume 4, 1900-1950 George Watson, I. R. Willison, 1972-12-07 More than fifty specialists have contributed to this new edition of volume 4 of The Cambridge Bibliography of English Literature The design of the original work has established itself so firmly as a workable solution to the immense problems of analysis articulation and coordination that it has been retained in all its essentials for the new edition The task of the new contributors has been to revise and integrate the lists of 1940 and 1957 to add materials of the following decade to correct and refine the bibliographical details already available and to re shape the whole according to a new series of conventions devised to give greater clarity and consistency to the entries     The Imagination of Edward Thomas Michael Kirkham,1986-12-04 This fascinating study explores the imagination life and work of Edward Thomas 1878 1917     Practical Stylistics H. G. Widdowson,1992-09-03 This book takes a particular perspective on the nature of poetry and follows this through to proposals for teaching It focuses attention on how the use of language in short poems can set up conditions for individual interpretation and the representation of reality in ways other than those which are established by normal social convention This view of poetry it is argued leads to a recognition of its essential role in education and provides a set of principles for an approach to teaching it which integrates the study of language and literature     Practical Criticism V 4 I A Richards,2014-05-12 This is Volume four of ten of the selected works of I A Richards from 1919 to 1938 Originally published in 1929 this study looks at literary judgement The Practical Criticism experiment began to take shape in late 1923 A C Benson then Master of Magdalene College records in his diary for the 13th of October that at dinner Richards had suggested as a good examination for English students to print five extracts of poetry and prose with no clue as to author and date and containing one really worthless piece and ask for comments and opinion This volume is the evidence of that experiment     Perspectives Jalal Uddin Khan,2015-02-05 Perspectives Romantic Victorian and Modern Literature is an up to date explication of various popular and classic subjects and authors arranged chronologically The book composed of thirteen essays examines Blake Coleridge Byron Shelley Keats Victorian medievalism the Victorian reaction to British India Ben Jonsonian elements in Yeats Yeats and Maud Gonne the treatment of the Irish civil war and Irish nationalism in Yeats and the treatment of the Spanish civil war in the selected works of modern fiction and nonfiction Marked by an originality of approach and a freshness and simplicity the book takes note of contemporary theoretical interdisciplinary and cultural discourse drawn from literature history politics and religion as necessary However it is far from being unnecessarily outweighed by the loaded clichés oft repeated jargon and overused euphemisms of modern literary or critical theory The result is regardless of its specialized treatment of otherwise commonplace or well known texts or topics that the overall discussion is as lucid introductory and expository as it is deep and scholarly making the book easily accessible and understandable to non specialist readers in addition to specialist researchers and academics     Discourse and Social Life Srikant Sarangi,Malcolm Coulthard,2014-06-11 This collection brings together for the first time in a single volume many of the major figures in contemporary discourse studies Each chapter is an original contribution which has been specifically commissioned for this book and together they document the wide range of concerns and techniques which characterise the discipline at the turn of the century Discourse and Social Life is concerned with a variety of different types of data talk text and interaction and covers research sites which range from the home setting through the health care setting and the courtroom to the public sphere The book not only provides a critical historical overview of different traditions of discourse analysis but also projects to some extent the possible developments of this field of study as other allied disciplines Philosophy Psychology Sociology Rhetoric and Communication Studies are taking a discursive turn Readers are invited to draw parallels between these different approaches to studying discourse in its social context The contributors are Sally Candlin Malcolm Coulthard Justine Coupland Nikolas Coupland Norman Fairclough Ruqaiya Hasan Robert Kaplan Geoff Leech Yon Maley Greg Myers Celia Roberts Srikant Sarangi Ron Scollon Theo van Leeuwen Henry Widdowson and Ruth Wodak

Hardy's Lyrics B. Green, 2016-04-29 Thomas Hardy frequently insisted that his poems were not self expressive but dramatic or impersonative Yet biographical expositions have dulled their impersonality Brian Green's approach is more exacting and rewarding taking Hardy at his word he traces Hardy's master theme throughout the corpus of poems a governing concern which merges Victorian and perennial ideas throughout the whole of Hardy's writings

Selected Letters of William Empson William Empson, 2006-03-09 This edited collection of letters by William Empson 1906-1984 one of the foremost writers and literary critics of the twentieth century ranges across the entirety of his career Parts of the correspondence record the development of ideas that were to come to fruition in seminal texts including Seven Types of Ambiguity The Structure of Complex Words and Milton's God The topics of other letters range from Shakespeare's Dark Lady to Marvell's marriage and Byron's bisexuality Empson relished correspondence that was combative if not downright aggressive As a result parts of this edition take the form of a serial disputation with other critics of the period including Frank Kermode Helen Gardner Philip Hobsbaum and I A Richards Other notable correspondents include A Alvarez Bonamy Dobson Leslie Fiedler Graham Hough C K Ogden George Orwell Kathleen Raine John Crowe Ransom Christopher Ricks Laura Riding A L Rowse Stephen Spender E M W Tillyard Rosemond Tuve John Wain and G Wilson Knight All readers of literary history and criticism will stand to benefit from this edition Empson is universally credited as the man who invented modern literary criticism so that all of his writings make a signal addition to the canon of his works This selection provides a context for the evaluation of Empson's total literary output and in many letters Empson seeks to defend his ideas against both published and personal attacks This volume not only fills in all the missing links it adds up to a completely new volume of critical writings by Empson

The Languages of Literature Roger Fowler, 2016-08-19 In The Language of Literature first published in 1971 Roger Fowler argues that the vitality and centrality of the verbal dimension of literature and read as a whole the papers in this collection imply a consistent point of view on language in literature The author focuses on the continuity of language in literature with language outside literature on its cultural appropriateness and adjustment and on its power to create aesthetic patterns and to organise concepts to make fictions This title will be of interest to students of literary theory
