The Elusive Self Louise A. Poresky, 1981 The complex novels by Virginia Woolf are seen with clarity and coherence in The Elusive Self a thorough and detailed literary interpretation by Louise A Poresky The result is a reliable map that guides the reader through the nine novels Adding the wisdom of religion and psychology to her literary criticism Dr Poresky demonstrates how Woolf's characters strive to achieve personal wholeness The quest progresses sequentially through the novels as a major character in each work struggles against certain demons whether the superficial dictates of society or the voices that say women cannot be artists and thus realizes the difference between ego and essence British Marxist Criticism Victor N. Paananen, 2021-12-12 British Marxist Criticism provides selective but extensive annotated bibliographies introductory essays and important pieces of work from each of eight British critics who sought to explain literary production according to the principles of Marxism Herbert Read Reassessed David Goodway, 1998-01-01 Herbert Read 1893-1968 acquired in his lifetime a considerable international reputation in all the major areas of his diverse activities as poet as educationalist as anarchist as philosopher of aesthetics as art critic as historian of and above all as propagandist for modern art and design The papers assembled in Herbert Read Reassessed offer a comprehensive and authoritative coverage of Read's life work that is designed to stimulate debate An impressive volume it manages to present a unified but not totalizing portrait of one of England's most distinguished twentieth century critics English Historical Review Men In The Public Eye Jeff Hearn, 2006-05-11 Men in the Public Eye reveals why men's domination in and of the public sphere is a vital feature of gender relations in patriarchy It also shows how public domains dominate private domains contributing to the intensification of public patriarchies Jeff Hearn explores these important issues by focusing on the period 1870-1920 when there was massive growth and transformation in the power of the public domains He demonstrates that these historical debates and dilemmas are still relevant today as men search for new postmodern forms of masculinities Interrogating Boundaries of the Nonhuman Sune Borkfelt, Matthias Stephan, 2022-05-23 Interrogating Boundaries of the Nonhuman Literature Climate Change and Environmental Crises asks whether literary works that interrogate and alter the terms of human-nonhuman relations can point to new more sustainable ways forward Bringing insights from the field of literary animal studies a diverse and international group of scholars examine literary contributions to the ecological framing of human-nonhuman relationships Collectively the contributors to this edited collection contemplate the role of literature in the setting of environmental agendas and in determining humanity's path forward in the company of nonhuman others American Journal of Islamic Social Sciences 14:1 Abdelwahab M. Virginia Woolf Rachel Bowlby, 2016-07-01 Rachel Bowlby's anthology of articles conjures up the enormous richness and variety of recent work that returns to Woolf not so much for final answers as for insights into questions about writing literary traditions and the differences of the sexes The collection includes pieces by such well known writers as Gillian Beer Mary Jacobus Peggy Kamuf and Catharine Stimpson With a substantial Introduction headnotes to each piece and full supporting material this volume provides an ideal guide to Woolf and her place in modern literary and cultural studies
