Modern Germany A Volume In The Comparative Societies Series:

21st Century Sociology: A Reference Handbook Clifton D. Bryant, Dennis L. Peck, 2007 Publisher Description Modern Germany Harold R. Kerbo, Hermann Strasser, 2000 One in a series of short books devoted to different countries that offers much needed cross cultural and global material to instructors Used alongside an introductory sociology text or as a supplement in courses on comparative societies comparative politics comparative economics or social stratification this book brings a rich global perspective into the undergraduate classroom The opening chapter establishes historical and cultural context while subsequent chapters focus on the basic institutions social stratification social problems and social change The chapter organization is typical of a standard introductory sociology text making it easy to use in any class In Modern Germany the authors seek to help create a deeper understanding of German society and culture for people outside of Germany Throughout the book frequent comparisons are utilized showing the similarities and differences between Germany and other modern societies particularly the United States Modern Thailand Robert Slagter, Harold R. Kerbo, 2000 Part of a series which offers material on the societies of various countries This volume covers Thailand and is designed to be used alongside an introductory sociology text or as supplementary material in courses on comparative societies politics or economics or social stratification Work in a Modern Society Jürgen Kocka, 2010 Whereas the history of workers and labor movements has been widely researched the history of work has been rather neglected by comparison This volume offers original contributions that deal with cultural social and theoretical aspects of the history of work in modern Europe including the relations between gender and work working and soldiering work and trust constructions and practices The volume focuses on Germany but also places the case studies in a broader European context It thus offers an insight into social and cultural history as practiced by German speaking scholars today but also introduces the reader to ongoing research in this field Witchcraft, Madness, Society, and Religion in Early Modern Germany H.C. Erik Midelfort, 2024-10-28 H C Erik Midelfort has carved out a reputation for innovative work on early modern German history with a particular focus on the social history of ideas and religion This collection pulls together some of his best work on the related subjects of witchcraft the history of madness and psychology demonology exorcism and the social history of religious change in early modern Europe Several of the pieces reprinted here constitute reviews of recent scholarly literature on their topics while others offer sharp departures from conventional wisdom A critique of Michel Foucault's view of the history of madness proved both stimulating but irritating to Foucault's most faithful readers so it is reprinted here along with a short retrospective comment by the author Another focus of this collection is the social history of the Holy Roman Empire where towns peasants and noble families developed different perceptions of the Protestant and Catholic Reformations and of the options the religious revolutions of the sixteenth century offered Finally this collection also brings together articles which show how Freudian psychoanalysis and academic sociology have filtered and interpreted the history of early modern

Germany Comparing Jewish Societies Todd M. Endelman, 2025-08-14 Having unfolded in the diverse communities of the diaspora Jewish experience lends itself almost effortlessly to comparative treatment The contributors to this volume take up the challenge examining Jewish societies from medieval to modern times in Western and Eastern Europe North and South America North Africa India China and the Middle East The essays use the methodological strategies and theoretical insights of history sociology anthropology and political science to explore such topics as Jewish and African nationalism Arab and Jewish railway workers in British ruled Palestine East European Jewish immigrants in New York London and Paris ritual murder trials in fin de siècle Central Europe and Catholic and Jewish enlightenment movements Further because of their comparative structure and method these essays stimulate fresh questions about the larger societies in which Jews lived their values practices and structures Comparing Jewish Societies will appeal to students and scholars at all levels who wish to break out of old frameworks to observe the Jews and their religion with a new methodologically sophisticated eye Todd M Endelman is William Haber Professor of Modern Jewish History University of Michigan

Sites of Modernity—Places of Risk Martin H. Geyer, 2023-07-14 Places of risk and sites of modernity refer not merely to physical locations but also objects and institutions that stand at the center of contemporary debates on security and risk These are social and political domains where energy and infrastructure are produced where domestic security is pursued and maintained and where citizens encounter the state in its punitive or monitory roles Taking a wide view of the period from the 1970s to today this volume brings together innovative interdisciplinary case studies of sites of modernity that promise to provide security and safety yet at the same time are deemed responsible for creating new risks With a particular contemporary interest in the technocratic changes of security and risk control the contributors to Sites of Modernity Places of Risk position the 1970s as a turning point in the path from industrial to post industrial modernity

The Force of Comparison Willibald Steinmetz, 2019-09-01 In an era defined by daily polls institutional rankings and other forms of social quantification it can be easy to forget that comparison has a long historical lineage Presenting a range of multidisciplinary perspectives this volume investigates the concepts and practices of comparison from the early modern period to the present Each chapter demonstrates how comparison has helped to drive the seemingly irresistible dynamism of the modern world exploring how comparatively minded assessors determine their units of analysis the criteria they select or ignore and just who it is that makes use of these comparisons and to what ends

Modern South Africa Phillip T. Gay, 2001 One of a series of short books each one on a different country that will provide much needed cross cultural and global material for instructors to use to supplement their introductory sociology text as well as courses in social stratification comparative societies comparative politics comparative economics and other courses that are enriched by a global perspective The opening chapter establishes historical and cultural context while subsequent chapters focus on the basic institutions social stratification social problems and social change The chapter organization is typical of a standard introductory sociology text making it easy to use in any class It is concise and direct while covering all the necessary topics and issues

A Comparative History of Commerce and Industry, Volume II David E. McNabb, 2016-01-26 A Comparative History of Commerce and Industry Volume II offers a subjective review of how the cultural social and economic institutions of commerce and industry evolved in industrialized nations to produce the institution we now know as business enterprise

Social Stratification and Inequality Harold R. Kerbo, 2000 This revised edition aims to provide a comprehensive exploration of the economic and social divisions in human societies The book takes a global perspective and includes detailed information on stratification around the world addressing the ways in which governments corporations and workers cope with milestone changes such as greater European unification and an increased US economic presence Extensive comparative information as well as an overview of how historically social stratification has changed and evolved gives readers a global perspective on class conflict

Audiences of Nazism Ulrike Weckel, 2023-10-13 Through its focus on audiences and their reception of media in Nazi Germany Audiences of Nazism inverts the typical top down perspective employed in studies that concentrate on the regime's regulation of media and propaganda It thereby sheds new light on the complex character of the period's media their uses and the scope for audience interpretation Contributors investigate how consumers either appropriated or ignored certain messages of Nazi propaganda and how some even participated in its production The authors ground their studies on novel historical sources including private diaries and letters photographs and films and concert programs which demonstrate amongst other things how audiences interpreted and responded to regulated news Nazi Party rallies and the regime's denunciation of modern works of art as degenerate

Modern Russia M. Kh Titma, Nancy Brandon Tuma, 2001 One in a series of short books devoted to different countries that offers much needed cross cultural and global material to instructors Used alongside an introductory sociology text or as a supplement in courses on comparative societies comparative politics comparative economics or social stratification this book brings a rich global perspective into the undergraduate classroom The opening chapter establishes historical and cultural context while subsequent chapters focus on the basic institutions social stratification social problems and social change The chapter organization is typical of a standard introductory sociology text making it easy to use in any class

Space and Spatiality in Modern German-Jewish History Simone Lässig, Miriam Rürup, 2017-06-01 What makes a space Jewish This wide ranging volume revisits literal as well as metaphorical spaces in modern German history to examine the ways in which Jewishness has been attributed to them both within and outside of Jewish communities and what the implications have been across different eras and social contexts Working from an expansive concept of the spatial these contributions look not only at physical sites but at professional political institutional and imaginative realms as well as historical Jewish experiences of spacelessness Together they encompass spaces as varied as early modern print shops and Weimar cinema always pointing to the complex intertwining of German and Jewish identity

Modern India Joti Sekhon, 2000 Part of a series which offers material on the societies of various countries This volume covers India and is designed to be used alongside an introductory sociology text or as supplementary material in courses on comparative societies politics or economics or social stratification

Poverty and Welfare in Modern German History Lutz

Raphael,2016-12-01 For many the history of German social policy is defined primarily by that nation s postwar emergence as a model of the European welfare state As this comprehensive volume demonstrates however the question of how to care for the poor has had significant implications for German history throughout the modern era Here eight leading historians provide essential case studies and syntheses of current research into German welfare from the Holy Roman Empire to the present day Along the way they trace the parallel historical dynamics that have continued to shape German society including religious diversity political exclusion and inclusion and concepts of race and gender

World Poverty: The Roots of Global Inequality and the Modern World System Harold R. Kerbo,2006 Provides an introduction to modern world system theory and its attempts to explain world poverty and inequality This book contains an overview of poverty in Africa Latin America and Asia It tells why some countries in the world mostly in Asia have become richer and reduced the ranks of their poor through ties with the global economy

Humanitarianism and Media Johannes Paulmann,2018-12-17

From Christian missionary publications to the media strategies employed by today s NGOs this interdisciplinary collection explores the entangled histories of humanitarianism and media It traces the emergence of humanitarian imagery in the West and investigates how the meanings of suffering and aid have been constructed in a period of evolving mass communication demonstrating the extent to which many seemingly new phenomena in fact have long historical legacies Ultimately the critical histories collected here help to challenge existing asymmetries and help those who advocate a new cosmopolitan consciousness recognizing the dignity and rights of others

The United States and Germany During the Twentieth Century

Christof Mauch,Kiran Klaus Patel,2010-08-30 The United States and Germany during the Twentieth Century presents a wide ranging comparison of American and German societies during the late 19th and 20th centuries The two countries the world s leading rising powers of the time were both more similar and more different than is widely understood Above all their dual encounter with modernity brings out the richness of both societies as they faced unprecedented internal and external challenges sometimes in isolation but more often in combination or in parallel with one another

Recent Social Trends in West Germany, 1960-1990 Wolfgang Glatzer,International Research Group on the Comparative Charting of Social Change in Advanced Industrial Societies,1992 The third volume in the invaluable reference series Comparative Charting of Social Change examines social trends in West Germany during the period between 1960 and 1990 This was a special phase of German history the Federal Republic of Germany was founded in 1949 and by 1960 the main disturbances of the Second World War had been overcome The next thirty years saw relatively stable development in democratic institutions economic wealth and the welfare state This process however was not entirely without difficulties Environmental conditions deteriorated and unemployment grew especially in the 1980s A new reunified Germany replaced the old FRG in 1990

ushering in a fundamentally different social structure
