Modern Iran (RLE Iran A) L Elwell-Sutton, 2013-05-13 This volume shows the progress and achievements of Iran up to the 1940s within the setting of her ancient history and her strategic position in the world today The author discusses Iran's vital position as the dividing line between the East and the West and how Iran drew from and contributed to both these cultures without losing her own individuality It is this cultural influence the author argues rather than any political strength that has enabled her to survive Much of the information is taken from sources not available in English or any other language other than Persian

Modern Iran in Perspective Ali Pirzadeh, 2019-09-05 This book highlights fundamental but often neglected issues important for a better understanding of present day Iran It underlines the idea that the most effective means for a nation to meet challenges and practices of the modern era lies with the fundamental values and norms that resonate with its inhabitants This book is meant to be a companion to the author s published book Iran Revisited Exploring the Historical Roots of Culture Economics and Society that expands upon that book s ideas without repeating its theoretical reasoning Its goal is to offer a better understanding of the current and evolving situations in Iran In this regard the author tried to clarify his position through a host of suggestions most notably the need to consider social rights as the bare minimum but extremely imperative criteria in our contemporary discourse for the betterment of our society These rights he argues are the most fundamental tenets of any community that strives to succeed and flourish In this context the underlying discussion rests on the following claim the most persisting problems in Iran are the outcomes of the gradual regression of the people mindset that persistently overlooked their heritage and value system in favor of imitating ideas that were are neither compatible with their culture and history nor applicable to the country s socioeconomic conditions The author therefore presumed that these predicaments are self inflicted they were neither caused by a specific state nor belong to a historical period or individual s they cannot be characterized by political or economic terminologies but are firmly rooted in people inability to recognize that the most vital principle in developing and propelling a nation forward is the existence of a unified people

The Making of Modern Iran Dr Stephanie Cronin,2012-11-12 This collection of essays by a distinguished group of specialists offers a new and exciting interpretation of Riza Shah s Iran A period of key importance the years between 1921 1941 have until now remained relatively neglected Recently however there has been a marked revival of interest in the history of these two decades and this collection brings together some of the best of this recent new scholarship Illustrating the diversity and complexity of interpretations to which contemporary scholarship has given rise the collection looks at both the high politics of the new state and at history from below examining some of the fierce controversies which have arisen surrounding such issues as the gender politics of the new regime the nature of its nationalism and its treatment of minorities

Gender and Dance in Modern Iran Ida Meftahi,2017-07-14 Gender and Dance in Modern Iran Biopolitics on Stage investigates the ways dancing bodies have been providing evidence for competing representations of modernity urbanism and religiosity across the twentieth century Focusing on the transformation of the staged dancing body its space of performance and spectatorial cultural ideology this book traces the dancing body in multiple milieus of performance including the Pahlavi era s national artistic scene and the popular caf and cabaret stages as well as the commercial cinematic screen and the post revolutionary Islamized theatrical stage It links the socio political discourses on performance with the staged public dancer in order to interrogate the formation of dominant categories of modern high and artistic and the subsequent othering of cultural realms that were discursively peripheralized from the national stage Through the study of archival and ethnographic research as well as a diverse literature pertaining to music theater cinema and popular culture it combines a close reading of primary sources such as official documents press materials and program notes with visual analysis of filmic materials and imageries as well as interviews with practitioners It offers an original and informed exploration into the ways performing bodies and their public have been associated with binary notions of vice and virtue morality and immorality commitment and degeneration chastity and eroticism and veiled ness and nakedness Engaging with a range of methodological and historiographical methods including postcolonial performance and feminist studies this book is a valuable resource for students and scholars of Middle East history and Iranian studies as well as gender studies and dance and performance studies

Law, State, and Society in Modern Iran H. Enayat, 2013-07-17 Using a Historical Institutional approach this book sheds light on a relatively understudied dimension of state building in early twentieth century Iran namely the quest for judicial reform and the rule of law from the 1906 Constitutional Revolution to the end of Reza Shah's rule in 1941

Forugh Farrokhzad, Poet of Modern Iran Dominic Parviz Brookshaw, Nasrin Rahimieh, 2023-05-04 The pioneering Iranian poet and filmmaker Forugh Farrokhzad was an iconic figure in her own day and has come to represent the spirit of revolt against patriarchal and cultural norms in 1960s Iran Five decades after her tragic death at the age of 32 Forugh Farrokhzad Poet of Modern Iran brings her ground breaking work into new focus During her lifetime Farrokhzad embodied the vexed predicament of the contemporary Iranian woman at once subjected to long held traditional practices and influenced by newly introduced modern social sensibilities Highlighting her literary and cinematic innovation this volume examines the unique place Farrokhzad occupies in Iran both among modern Persian poets in general and as an Iranian woman writer in particular The authors also explore Farrokhzad's appeal outside Iran in the Iranian diasporic imagination and through the numerous translations of her poetry into English It is a fitting and authoritative tribute to the work of a remarkable woman which will introduce and explain her legacy for a 21st century audience This second edition includes two new chapters which explore a travelogue Farrokhzad wrote during her time in Italy and an examination of Farrokhzad's influence on the writings of the Afghan female poet Laila Saradat Rowshani
