There were five They came together for reasons that no one is even sure of anymore and cut a swath through the universe Everyone knew their name and the lined up to follow them They knew their symbol the snarling wolf The warlords formed a following an almost religion And then it was over Years later and the followings of each of the original warriors have become clans The clans have grown and trained new warriors over time creating the driving force in all the universe Here are four people now training to follow in the ways of one particular wolf The wolf that ended it all in the first place the Blackwolf This is the start of their journey the beginning of their training Gregor Holden a Prince who's sense of duty is equaled only by his lust for adventure Candace Orthon a legacy who's father is a Blackwolf who's grandfather was a Blackwolf and who will be a Blackwolf if it kills her Ran Grastle already an accomplished warrior in his own right He's on the run for committing a crime to exact justice and cares very little for the clan or anyone else Xesca a child of the last planet that the Blackwolf attacked She has come to learn his ways his style so that no one can ever attack her planet again These four If no one else let these four progress
From Ritual to Modern Art Manfred Ewel, Anne Outwater, 2001 This beautifully produced and lavishly illustrated book addresses the huge imbalance in appreciation and representation of African art Museums exhibitions lavish catalogues magazines and publications on African art are largely dominated by non African scholars and institutions These imbalances lie in the economic and political discrepancies the history of European colonialism in Africa and the Western tradition of scholarship and public education on art history and ethnography Outside Africa East African art has been assumed to be more or less non-existent This is one of the few publications to have come out of Tanzania bearing witness to the appreciation of sculptural art and its tradition in that country The book arose out of a symposium on The Significance of Traditional Cultures for Today's Society which brought together Tanzanian and other experts organised by the National Museums of Tanzania and the German Cultural Centre in Dar es Salaam Papers from that symposium together with additional articles on the history and current state of sculpture in Tanzania present art from an African perspective and include contributions from Western scholars joining forces with African scholars Sociological ethnological and art historical approaches are included illustrating sculpture as the prime example of fine art in Africa both in its purely aesthetic sense and intricately linked with its ever-changing cultural context Modern Creative Makonde Sculpture S. J. Ntiro, 1982
