Multicultural Children's Literature:

Multicultural Children's Literature Donna E. Norton, 2009 With the growing number of ethnic minority students in public schools it is very important for teachers librarians and all those who work with children to have an understanding of appropriate multicultural literature This book and the literature selections are designed to develop heightened sensitivity and understanding of people from various cultures and traditions through the selection of carefully chosen literature It includes a balance of research about the culture and the literature a discussion of authentic literature for students from early childhood through young adults and teaching activities designed to develop higher cognitive abilities The book uses a unique five phase approach for the study of multicultural literature that has been field tested Teaching Multicultural Children's Literature in a Diverse Society AnnMarie Alberton Gunn, Susan, V. Bennett, 2023-03-28 This textbook is a comprehensive resource for teaching multicultural children's literature Providing foundational information on how and why to integrate diverse children's literature into the classroom this book presents a necessary historical perspective on cultural groups in the United States and context for how to teach children's literature in a way that reflects and sustains students' rich cultural backgrounds The historical insights and context on diverse cultural groups at the heart of the book allow readers to deepen their understanding of why teaching about cultural diversity is necessary for effective and inclusive education Part I offers foundational information on how to teach children's literature in a diverse society and Part II overviews pedagogy resources and guidance for teaching specific culturally and linguistically marginalized groups Each chapter contains book recommendations discussion questions and additional resources for teachers With authentic strategies and crucial background knowledge embedded in each chapter this text is essential reading for pre-service and in-service teachers and is ideal for courses in children's literature literacy methods instruction and multicultural education Critical Multicultural

Analysis of Children's Literature Maria José Botelho, Masha Kabakow Rudman, 2009-05-07 Children's literature is a contested terrain as is multicultural education Taken together they pose a formidable challenge to both classroom teachers and academics Rather than deny the inherent conflicts and tensions in the field in Critical Multicultural Analysis of Children's Literature Mirrors Windows and Doors Maria Jos Botelho and Masha Kabakow Rudman confront deconstruct and reconstruct these terrains by proposing a reframing of the field Surely all of us children teachers and academics can benefit from this more expansive understanding of what it means to read books Sonia Nieto From the Foreword Critical multicultural analysis provides a philosophical shift for teaching literature constructing curriculum and taking up issues of diversity and social justice It problematizes children's literature offers a way of reading power explores the complex web of sociopolitical relations and deconstructs taken-for-granted assumptions about language meaning reading and literature it is literary study as sociopolitical change Bringing a critical lens to the study of multiculturalism in children's literature this book prepares teachers teacher educators and researchers of children's literature to analyze the ideological dimensions of reading and studying literature Each chapter includes recommendations for classroom application classroom research and further reading Helpful end of book appendixes include a list of children s book awards lists of publishers diagrams of the power continuum and the theoretical framework of critical multicultural analysis and lists of selected children s literature journals and online resources
