Queen Jeanne And The Promised Land:

Queen Jeanne and the Promised Land David Bryson,1997 This is the first monograph on the fascinating and controversial Jeanne d Albret queen of Navarre to make full use of contemporary manuscript and published sources focussing on her role as Huguenot leader of the Wars of Religion in southwestern France Women Reformers of Early Modern Europe Kirsi I. Stjerna,2022-10-04 Women Reformers of Early Modern Europe provides an expansive view of women negotiating their faith voice and agency in the religious and cultural scene of the sixteenth century reformations Women from different geographic contexts Germany France Spain Italy Holland and Scandinavia and from a broad spectrum of vocations and social standings are highlighted along with examples of their original writings in English translation in some cases brand new An international interdisciplinary cohort of over thirty scholars provide cutting edge scholarship on women religion and gender in the sixteenth century reformation context Chapters interpret historical sources relevant to the women in question and provide original material for a deeper understanding of each woman s specific negotiations about her faith and religious preferences as well as about her specific options as a woman Most of the women in the book left a written record providing a valuable window into women s spirituality and theology Gender questions are engaged throughout the chapters that provide irrefutable evidence of women s essential roles in the reception and implementation of the Protestant confessions An important voice comes from women who defended their right to profess Catholic faith Thematic articles enhance the analysis of the roles experiences and contributions of individual women in different contexts and positions vis vis reformation teachings Women stand out as writers theologians historians biblical interpreters publishers hymnwriters rulers pastoral care givers defenders of justice heretics rebels midwives mothers and friends The tone of the volume is scholarly but invites a broad spectrum of readers who have varying levels of background knowledge It is especially suitable as a textbook or as a reference guide in different disciplines reformation studies church history theological history gender scholarship early modern and sixteenth century studies and language studies Storytelling in Sixteenth-Century France Emily E. Thompson,2022-01-14 This collection explores different modalities of storytelling in sixteenth century France and emphasizes shared techniques and themes rather than attempting to define narrow kinds of narratives categories Through studies of storytelling in tapestries stone and music as well as in historical professional and literary writing that addressed both erudite and common readers the contributors evoke a society in transition Queen Jeanne and the Promised Land of Guyenne David M. Bryson,1997 Memory and Community in Sixteenth-Century France David P. LaGuardia,Cathy Yandell,2016-03-03 Memory and Community in Sixteenth Century France engages the question of remembering from a number of different perspectives It examines the formation of communities within diverse cultural religious and geographical contexts especially in relation to the material conditions for producing texts and discourses that were the foundations for collective practices of memory The Wars of Religion in France gave rise to numerous narrative and graphic representations of bodies remembered as icons and signifiers of the religious troubles The multiple sites of these clashes were filled with sound language and diverse kinds of signs mediated by print writing and discourses that recalled past battles and opposed different factions The volume demonstrates that memory and community interacted constantly in sixteenth century France producing conceptual frames that defined the conflicting groups to which individuals belonged and from which they derived their identities The ongoing conflicts of the Wars hence made it necessary for people both to remember certain events and to forget others As such memory was one of the key ideas in a period defined by its continuous reformulations of the present as a forum in which contradictory accounts of the recent past competed with one another for hegemony One of the aims of Memory and Community in Sixteenth Century France is to remedy the lack of scholarship on this important memorial function which was one of the intellectual foundations of the late French Renaissance and its fractured communities

The War Within Me Tracy Ryan, 2025-06-01 If I held my whole kingdom in one hand and my son in the other I would toss them both to the bottom of the sea before I would let them impede me Sixteenth century Princess Jeanne d Albret is twice royal her uncle is King of France her father King of Navarre She is small she is often ill yet she won t allow that to define her As a child she is carried to the altar at the French King s command but she and her mother have a secret plan to get their own way Soon a new king is on the French throne And when a second arranged marriage is forced on her Jeanne is surprised by bliss She can t stop talking or thinking about Antoine first prince of the blood she throws her whole self into their life together even when the battlefield parts them Fiery and stubborn wherever she goes Jeanne is reminded of her famous poet mother protector of reformers who could not break with the Catholic church despite her attraction to the new religious ideas Jeanne resolves to go further and let nothing stop her But what will this mean for her precious marriage As the Civil Wars break out the Wars of Religion and Jeanne commits to the Huguenots will her adored husband take the same path How can she fend off the Pope the Guises and the wily evasive Queen Mother of France Catherine de M dicis while struggling for her son s rights and future Tracy Ryan s second novel in the Queens of Navarre trilogy is a story of both flesh and spirit of passion and obsession and their often devastating consequences for self and others Praise for The Queen s Apprenticeship Queens of Navarre Book One a triumphant foray into historical fiction a compelling exploration of patriarchy privilege and resistance in Renaissance France set amid a vividly sketched milieu with convincing fictional characters Cheryl Akle The Australian the brilliant depth of character we want when reading historical fiction a buoyancy of storytelling Jessie Tu The Age

The Rule of Women in Early Modern Europe Anne J. Cruz, Mihoko Suzuki, 2009 A transnational comparison of women rulers and women s sovereignty throughout Europe

The Military Orders: On land and by sea Malcolm Barber, Judith Mary Upton-Ward, 1994 The twenty seven papers published here represent a selection of those delivered at the Fourth International Conference on the Military Orders in 2005 Architecture archaeology and the part which the orders played in Europe are well represented along with work on northern and eastern Europe Four papers deal specifically with military or naval matters while another four deal with the spiritual life of the brothers and sisters Family relationships represent a growing field of interest     Humphrey, Duke of Gloucester (1390-1447) and the Italian Humanists / by Susanne Saygin Susanne Saygin,2002 This study reconstructs the relations between the fifteenth century English patron of Italian Renaissance humanism Humphrey Duke of Gloucester 1390 1447 his Italian middlemen and several Italian humanists with regard to the social and political context of their shared literary interests     Conflict and Reconciliation Iñigo Kristien Marcel Bocken,2004 This book offers historical philosophical and theological studies on the meaning of conflicts in life and thinking of Nicholas of Cusa 1401 1464 and deals with his attempts to develop a model for peace and tolerance     Erasmus and the Middle Ages István Bejczy,2001-08-06 The aim of this book is to examine Erasmus attitude toward the medieval past and to relate it to his historical consciousness More than any other Renaissance humanist Erasmus was committed to the goal of building an alternative to medieval civilisation In his view the restoration and study of ancient pagan and Christian literature would result in an elevation of cultural and intellectual as well as moral and spiritual standards Yet these very assumptions appear to be challenged by Erasmus specific observations on the course of history up to his own day The present study is the first to show a fault line between the basic ideas of Erasmus Christian humanism and his view of the actual development of humanity through the ages     Secret conversions to Judaism in early modern Europe [electronic resource] Martin Mulsow,Richard Henry Popkin,2004 This volume deals with conversions to Judaism from the 16th to the 18th century It provides six case studies by leading international scholars on phenomena as crypto Judaism judaizing reversion of Jewish Christian converts and secret conversion of non Jewish Christians for intellectual reasons The first contributions examine George Buchanan and John Dury followed by three studies of the milieu of late seventeenth century Amsterdam The last essay is concerned with Lord George Gordon and Cabbalistic Freemasonry The contributions will be of interest for intellectual historians but also historians of political thought or Jewish studies Contributors include Elisheva Carlebach Allison P Coudert Martin Mulsow Richard H Popkin Marsha Keith Schuchard and Arthur Williamson     The Historiographical Concept 'System of Philosophy' Leo Catana,2008-03-31 Jacob Brucker 1696 1770 established the history of philosophy as a philosophical discipline in the 1740s In order to separate this new discipline from other historical disciplines he introduced the historiographical concept system of philosophy The historian of philosophy should use this concept as a criterion of inclusion of past philosophies and as an ideal form of exposition The present book describes the origin of this historiographical notion its implicit Protestant assumptions and it traces the concept s impact upon the methods of history of philosophy and history of ideas as developed over the following centuries Finally it discusses the concept s strenghts and weaknesses as a historiographical tool arguing that it ought to be given up     Huguenot Heartland Philip Conner,2017-03-02 In the immediate years and months before the outbreak of religious war in 1562 the growth of Protestantism in France had gone unchecked and an overriding sense of Protestant triumphalism emerged in cities across the land However the wars unleashed a vigorous Catholic reaction that extinguished Protestant hopes of ultimate success This offensive triggered violence across the provinces paralysing Huguenot communities and sending many Protestant churches in northern France into terminal decline But French Protestantism was never a uniform phenomenon and events in southern France took a rather different course from those in the north This study explores the fate of the Huguenot community in the area of its greatest strength in southern France The book examines the Protestant ascendancy in the Huguenot stronghold of Montauban through the period of the religious wars laying open the impact that the new religion had upon the town and its surrounding locality and the way in which the town related to the wider political and religious concerns of the Protestant south In particular it probes the way in which the town related to the nobility the political assemblies Henry of Navarre and the wider world of international Calvinism reflecting upon the distinctive cultural elements that characterised Calvinism in southern France

Inventing the Public Sphere (2 Vols.) Leidulf Melve, 2007-10-30 This book deals with public debate during the Investiture Contest ca 1040 1122 During this revolutionary struggle between the secular and the religious powers polemical writers contributed to the arguably first public debate in medieval Europe A close reading of a selection of these polemics offers new views on the functioning of the medieval public sphere as well as how the public framework circumscribing the writers led to argumentative innovations These include an increasing concern with interpretation and contextualisation resulting in a more critical and probing intellectual community Public debate during the Contest taught intellectuals how to argue in public and in that respect transferred a lasting legacy to the later Middle Ages and beyond

The Early Enlightenment in the Dutch Republic, 1650-1750 Wiep Van Bunge, 2003-01-01 This book contains twelve major essays written by prominent historians from the Netherlands Belgium and the United States on the early Enlightenment in the Dutch Republic and more in particular on the main schools of thought that made up its philosophical profile

Princes and Princely Culture 1450-1650, Volume 2, 2005-01-01 Many products of medieval and renaissance culture literature music political ideology social and governmental structures the fine arts forms of devotional piety and also the social political and literary self representation of rulers found their best expression in the context of the courts of greater and lesser princes This second volume on princes and princely culture between 1450 and 1650 the first was published in 2003 as volume 118 1 in this series contains twelve essays These are focused on England under Edward IV Henry VII and Henry VIII Elizabeth I and under James I and Charles I The late fifteenth century imperial court is treated in a piece on Matthias I Corvinus The courts of Italy are represented by chapters on those of the Po Valley the Medici of Florence the Papal courts of Pius II and Julius II and of Naples Spanish court culture is discussed in contributions on Charles V Philip II and on Philip IV
