Quest for the Cosmos Laurie McGinn, 2004-03-15. En route to a war he doesn't want to be part of, Derek Kaing discovers and revives survivors in suspended animation adrift in space for five hundred years. The discovery is a catalyst for a series of events that dramatically alter Derek's life. Suddenly, he finds himself faced with a difficult decision: kill the astronauts and continue to the war front as ordered, or risk exposure of his underground movement attempting to reform his oppressive, war-torn nation known as the Teyre Dynasty. Derek realizes the only way to avoid the decision is to desert. While successful, Derek soon discovers his heart longs to free his people, who are slaves to a dictatorship which wages a conquest against the rest of humanity. In order to end the conquest and free his people, Derek must seek aid from an opposing nation and convince his brother Neirock, who is next in line for the Teyre throne, to join him in an ultimate quest that will forever change the course of

Edge of the Universe Paul Halpern, 2012-08-10 An accessible look at the mysteries that lurk at the edge of the known universe and beyond The observable universe the part we can see with telescopes is incredibly vast Yet recent theories suggest that there is far more to the universe than what our instruments record in fact it could be infinite Colossal flows of galaxies large empty regions called voids and other unexplained phenomena offer clues that our own bubble universe could be part of a greater realm called the multiverse How big is the observable universe What it is made of What lies beyond it Was there a time before the Big Bang Could space have unseen dimensions In this book physicist and science writer Paul Halpern explains what we know and what we hope to soon find out about our extraordinary cosmos Explains what we know about the Big Bang the accelerating universe dark energy dark flow and dark matter to examine some of the theories about the content of the universe and why its edge is getting farther away from us faster Explores the idea that the observable universe could be a hologram and that everything that happens within it might be written on its edge Written by physicist and popular science writer Paul Halpern whose other books include Collider The Search for the World's Smallest Particles and What's Science Ever Done For Us What the Simpsons Can Teach Us About Physics Robots Life and the Universe

Encountering Earth Trevor George Hunsberger Bechtel, Matt Eaton, Tim Harvie, 2018-05-14 One day Matthew Eaton was walking through an impromptu animal shelter display at his local pet store when suddenly an eight month old kitten dug his claws into Eaton's flesh Eaton recognized that the eyes of this cat and the curve of his claw compelled a response analogous to those found in the writings of Buber Levinas and Derrida And not just Eaton but a whole community of theologians have found themselves in an encounter with particular places and animals that demands rich theological reflection Eaton enlisted fellow editors Harvie and Bechtel to collect the essays in this volume in which theologians listen to horses rats snakes cats dogs and the earth itself who become new theological voices demanding a response In this volume the voice of the more than human world is heard as making theology possible These essays suggest that what we say theologically represents not simply ideas of our own making subsequently superimposed onto the natural world through our own discovery but rather flow from an expressive Earth With additional contributions from Kimberly Carfore Lisa E Dahill Celia Deane Drummond Heather Eaton Nathan Kowalsky Abigail Lofte Jame Schaefer Cristina D Vanin Mark Wallace Grace Y Kao Chris Carter John Berkman Laura Hobgood
