Security      Non-racialism in South Africa David Everatt, 2017-07-05 When Nelson Mandela was elected President of South Africa in 1994 the world looked on at the miracle of racial reconciliation that unfolded in South Africa. However the dream of a Rainbow Nation in Archbishop Desmond Tutu's phrase seems to be fading and racial identities seem to be more entrenched than ever. What prospects then for the non-racial democracy envisioned by Mandela and the South African Constitution? This book examines the status and future prospects of non-racialism. It discusses the nature of non-racialism and applies the concept to wider national issues and to questions of identity. The book looks out into South Africa's future and assesses generational changes to the country's handling of non-racialism. This latter point is the main theme in the opening preface by Ahmed Kathrada, jailed with Nelson Mandela, who reminds the reader that there is no easy answer: non-racialism is built every day every minute by people who seek to transform social relations and allow the Rainbow Nation to flourish. This book was published as a special issue of Politikon.

African Religion in the Dialogue Debate Laurenti Magesa, 2010 Dialogue between African Religion and other world religions has regrettably been a much neglected area in formal religious discourse in Africa to date. Moreover up to now the imperative of dialogue in the process of evangelism figures only peripherally if at all in the study of African Christian Theology. This book is probably the first deliberate extensive and well argued attempt by an African theologian to fill this unfortunate lacuna. How can Christian and African spiritualities interact with and enrich each other on the basis of mutual respect without as has historically been the case the one necessarily seeking to eradicate the other? This is the fundamental question of dialogue discussed in the pages of this book. Dr Laurenti Magesa is Senior Lecturer in African Theology at the Maryknoll Institute of African Studies and the Jesuit School of Theology, Catholic University of Eastern Africa, Nairobi, Kenya.

Cultural Studies of Modern Germany Russell A. Berman, 1993 A study probing the ambiguities of German nationhood. Berman takes a theoretical perspective of cultural studies exploring such themes as the constitution of nationhood, what holds a citizenry together and history's role in providing a framework for current identities and institutions.

Race in Education Gerhard Mar, 2019-05-28 There is global evidence that ghosts of notions of essentialist differences between human groups continue to haunt in various forms. People draw upon ideas of religion, race, ethnicity, gender and sexuality and nation to draw distinctions. Racism, xenophobia, sexism and right wing populism are ongoing and increasing phenomena. In addition genetic science has introduced new forms of proof which lends itself to misuse to confirm common sense perceptions. The valuable contributions of the authors in this publication not only warn against such notions but offer ways of exploring, exposing and challenging the ghosts and the fears engendered through their contemporary forms.

The Uncertain Promise of Southern Africa York W. Bradshaw, Stephen N. Ndegwa, 2000 In the 1970s and 1980s Indiana University Press published a series of books edited by Gwendolen Carter and others on economic and political conditions in Southern Africa during the apartheid era. The Uncertain Promise of Southern Africa is a return to that successful format in the post-apartheid era. Leading scholars analyze the economic, political, social and cultural conditions in Southern Africa and the prospects for the region The first part of the book examines the current political and development situation in six countries South Africa Namibia Botswana Zimbabwe Angola and Mozambique The second part focuses on issues of enduring importance in the region education health gender the law intra and inter regional power relations international commerce and popular culture

Values, Interests and Power: South African foreign policy in uncertain times Daniel D. Bradlow, Elizabeth Sidiropoulos, 2020-01-01

About the publication South Africa's foreign policy makers are facing a substantial challenge From the advent of the democratic era in 1994 through to the early 2000s South Africa was a highly respected actor in international affairs with a number of impressive accomplishments in the areas of global governance peacekeeping and international norm entrepreneurship However since that time the country's international standing has declined The value based and innovative foreign policy that earned the early post apartheid South African government such great international respect has been replaced by a more transactional and tactically driven approach to international affairs The country's position as Africa's leading economy and voice in international affairs is increasingly being challenged by other African states This book explores how South Africa can develop a foreign policy strategy that is appropriate to the uncertain times in which we live and that both helps the country address its overwhelming domestic challenges of poverty inequality and unemployment and regain its former high international reputation The contributors to this book offer analyses and proposals for developing such a strategy within the context of the country's constitutional order and institutional constraints and that addresses the diverse and complex global and regional aspects of the country's international relations

Endorsements In this valuable book which should be on every diplomat's bookshelf some of SA's foremost experts offer the government frank and compelling advice on how to conduct a much better foreign policy over the next decade The authors challenge Pretoria to muster all the country's assets and skills and not just those of the ruling party to pursue only the most important foreign policy goals And to be guided always by the lodestar of the Constitution

Peter Fabricius Foreign Policy Analyst former Foreign Affairs Editor at Independent Newspapers In this one of a kind book of twelve chapters by emerging and experienced scholars the authors probe into factors shaping South African foreign policy lessons learned and the future strategy of the country's foreign policy in an ever changing world A compelling read for policy makers and scholars

Ambassador Prof Iqbal Jhazbhay University of South Africa Member of the ANC's N E C International Relations Sub Committee its breadth will engage newcomers its insights will be useful to scholars and practitioners alike

Professor Amrita Narlikar President German Institute for Global and Area Studies GIGA This book offers compelling insights on South Africa's foreign policy These varied pieces provide textured and critical perspectives that may help open up an avenue to re imagine South Africa's foreign policy afresh in the post Zuma years It is a compendium that should appeal to scholars of international relations practitioners of foreign policy and the broader policy community

Professor Mzukiso Qobo Head School of Governance University of the Witwatersrand This nuanced and richly detailed volume offers the reader superb analyses of South Africa's foreign policy. The authors' contributions present both theoretical considerations and specific policy recommendations which make the book highly useful for both scholars and policy makers. Each chapter is thus certain to significantly contribute to promoting the public debate about South Africa's place in the world.

Controversial

Monuments and Memorials David B. Allison, 2023-09-02
 The impetus for the first edition was violent actions: the white supremacist rally in Charlottesville, Virginia, in 2017, which was touched off by discussions about removing a statue to Robert E. Lee and resulted in the death of Heather Heyer. Since the publication of the first edition, both history and democracy are being threatened in ways that we were only seeing small glimpses of in 2018. Today, attempts to elevate new or more complex history have been met with vilification. States across the country have passed legislation to ban critical race theory from being taught in public schools and are seeking ways to limit what teachers are allowed to teach about slavery and race in the United States. These threats are unlikely to abate. As such, our responsibility as historians, community leaders, museum professionals, and citizens is to redouble our efforts to share human stories in relatable ways and to exercise our rights and wield our power whenever and however we can. The revised edition tackles the great issues of our time against the backdrop of monument culture and historical truth.
