Questions , Europe and Its Shadows Hamid Dabashi,2019-10-20 Europe has long imagined itself as the centre of the universe although its precise geographical cultural and social terrains have always been amorphous Exploring the fear and fascination associated with the continent as an allegory Hamid Dabashi considers Europe to be a historically formed barricade against the world Frantz Fanon s assessment that Europe is literally the creation of the Third World is still true today but in more than one sense for the colonial has always been embedded in the capital and the capital within the colonial As the condition of coloniality shifts so have the dividing lines between coloniser and colonised and this shift calls for a reappraisal of our understanding of nationalism xenophobia and sectarianism as the dangerous indices of the emerging worlds As the far right populists captivate minds across Europe and Brexit upsets the balance of power in the European Union this book from a major scholar of postcolonial thought is a timely and transformative intervention Parliamentary

Oversight of the Executives Elena Griglio,2020-10-01 Oversight of executives has always been a key function of parliaments and one that is central to developing the relationship between the executive and legislative branches of government However in reality governments are taking a more pronounced role in controlling legislation diluting the influence of parliament This book plots this trend in parliaments across Europe to illustrate points of convergence and divergence In so doing it suggest tools and methods that parliaments can develop to bolster their crucial oversight role

Improperly Obtained Evidence in Anglo-American and Continental Law Dimitrios Giannouloupoulos, 2019-02-21 This is the first book to offer an extensive cosmopolitan cross cultural insight into the perennial controversy over the use of improperly obtained evidence in criminal trials It challenges the conventional view that exclusionary rules are idiosyncratic of Anglo American law and highlights the constitutionalisation and internationalisation of criminal evidence and procedure as a cause of rapprochement or divergence beyond the Anglo American and Continental law divide Analysis focuses on confessional evidence and evidence obtained by search and seizure telephone interceptions and other means of electronic surveillance The laws of England and Wales France Greece and the United States are systematically compared and contrasted throughout this study but where appropriate analysis extends to other Anglo American and Continental legal systems The book reviews exclusionary rules vis vis the operation of judicial discretion and explores the normative justifications that underpin them It attempts to reinvigorate the idea of excluding evidence to protect constitutional or human rights the rights thesis arguing that there is significant scope for Anglo American and Continental legal systems to place a renewed emphasis on it particularly in relation to confessional evidence obtained in violation of custodial interrogation rights we can locate an emerging rapprochement and unique potential for European Court of Human Rights jurisprudence to build consensus in this respect In marked contrast remaining divergence with regard to evidence obtained by privacy violations means there is little momentum to adopt a reinvigorated rights thesis more widely Longlisted for the Inner Temple Book Prize 2022     An Inventory of Upcoming Questions with an EU Connotation that are Suited to Cooperation Between the Countries Around the Baltic Sea, and that May be Favourably Influenced by Such a Cooperation ,2005     Enacting European Citizenship Engin F. Isin, Michael Saward, 2013-04-18 This book examines the changing character of European citizenship focusing on acts of citizenship     A Litmus Test for Democratic Politics in Europe Julien Navarro, 2022-12-26 This book investigates how political actors and more particularly members of parliaments have reacted to Brexit to assess its long term consequences Brexit has not only been a major disruption affecting the functioning and internal balance of the European Union EU but to a very large extent it also represents a challenge to the idea of an ever closer union and to the democratic principles on which the EU has been built Relying on empirical explorations of regional and national parliaments across the continent as well as the European Parliament the chapters in this volume address three intertwined sets of questions regarding the evolution of democratic politics in Europe in the wake of Brexit Firstly how do citizens representatives assess the UK's decision to withdraw from the EU and its consequences Secondly what is the impact of Brexit as regards the politicisation of the debate on Europe Has Brexit exacerbated existing political divisions or generated new cleavages Thirdly and crucially have parliaments attempted to and succeeded in influencing Brexit negotiations and their outcome What positions did parliamentarians promote in these negotiations What model for the future of the EU did they defend The book is key reading for all students and researchers interested in Politics and International Relations Elections European Studies and European Union Politics This book was originally published as a special issue of the Journal of Contemporary European Studies

Perceptions of Europe Daniel Gaxie, Nicolas Hubé, Jay Rowell, 2013 This book presents the main findings of a comparative qualitative survey conducted in France Germany Italy and Poland Ordinary citizens from very different social backgrounds and professions were asked a range of open ended questions allowing them to express themselves freely There have been few qualitative surveys on ordinary citizens views of European integration and none on this scale The resulting picture is very different from the self evident assumptions of many current studies on European opinions The book stresses the great diversity ambiguity and complexity of European attitudes It emphasises the causal impact of formal education political interest and involvement individual everyday exposures to European realities and the role of collective national experiences of European integration and national history This book is the first qualitative survey among ordinary from all social strata across Europe that explores perceptions and judgments on Europe and the EU explains the underlying logic of why Europe and European integration are such a far reality to most citizens explores how most citizens are poorly but unequally informed about and interested in European subjects investigates how citizens are able to express perceptions of Europe by using a series of analogies and comparisons often linked to their daily experiences identifies the complex range of issues that influence our perceptions and the irresolute fragmentary mixed and sometimes contradictory nature of these opinions

Concentrate Questions and Answers EU Law Nigel Foster, 2018-07-26 The Concentrate Q the content is exceptional Wendy Chinenye Akaiigwe London Metropolitan University I would not hesitate to recommend this book to a friend Blessing Denhere Coventry University Making European Space Ole Brandt Jensen, Tim Richardson, 2004 Making European Space crystallises and critically examines the key policy ideas emerging in the new field of European spatial planning and explores the arguments surrounding policy themes such as polycentric development sustainability Academic Identities in

Higher Education Linda Evans, Jon Nixon, 2015-04-23 Academic identity is continually being formed and reformed by the institutional socio cultural and political contexts within which academic practitioners operate In Europe the impact of the 2008 economic crisis and its continuing aftermath accounts for many of these changes but the diverse cultures and histories of different regions are also significant factors influencing how institutions adapt and resist and how identities are shaped Academic Identities in Higher Education highlights the multiple influences acting upon academic practitioners and documents some of the ways in which they are positioning themselves in relation to these often competing pressures At a time when higher education is undergoing huge structural and systemic change there is increasing uncertainty regarding the nature of academic identity Traditional notions compete with new and emergent ones which are still in the process of formation and articulation Academic Identities in Higher Education explores this process of formation and articulation and addresses the question what does it mean to be an academic in 21st century Europe The Age of Questions Holly Case, 2018-07-10 A groundbreaking history of the Big Questions that dominated the nineteenth century In the early nineteenth century a new age began the age of questions In the Eastern and Belgian questions as much as in the slavery worker social woman and Jewish questions contemporaries saw not interrogatives to be answered but problems to be solved Alexis de Tocqueville Victor Hugo Karl Marx Frederick Douglass Fyodor Dostoevsky Rosa Luxemburg and Adolf Hitler were among the many who put their pens to the task The Age of Questions asks how the question form arose what trajectory it followed and why it provoked such feverish excitement for over a century Was there a family resemblance between questions Have they disappeared or are they on the rise again in our time In this pioneering book Holly Case undertakes a stunningly original analysis presenting chapter by chapter seven distinct arguments and frameworks for understanding the age She considers whether it was marked by a progressive quest for emancipation of women slaves Jews laborers and others a steady inexorable march toward genocide and the Final Solution or a movement toward federation and the dissolution of boundaries Or was it simply a farce a false frenzy dreamed up by publicists eager to sell subscriptions As the arguments clash patterns emerge and sharpen until the age reveals its full and peculiar nature Turning convention on its head with meticulous and astonishingly broad scholarship The Age of Questions illuminates how patterns of thinking move history     Essential
