Questioning the Media John Downing, John D. H. Downing, Ali Mohammadi, Annabelle Sreberny, 1995-03-15 Clearly written with careful signposting of relevant debates this reader in the critical tradition is a model of an introductory cultural and media studies text the writing is accessible the concepts and arguments are sophisticated and the tone is one of committed engagement Media International Australia Questioning the Media John Derek Hall Downing, 1990

Questioning the Media John Downing, Ali Mohammadi, Annabelle Sreberny-Mohammadi, 1991 Mass Media James B. Martin, 2002 Mass media has become an integral part of the human experience News travels around the world in a split second affecting people in other countries in untold ways Although being on top of the news may be good at least for news junkies mass media also transmits values or the lack thereof condenses complex events and thoughts to simplified sound bites and often ignores the essence of an event or story The selective bibliography gathers the books and magazine literature over the previous ten years while providing access through author title and subject indexes The Art of Dialogue Ineke de Feijter, 2007 Media and culture are deeply intertwined in contemporary society Religions have problems relating to this media culture which is shaped by media processes and conditioned by digital media and interactive forms of communication Media set the agenda and they profoundly challenge religions both with respect to their public communication and their very existence and public relevance People increasingly use media for shaping their religious identity and their search with respect to questions of ultimate meaning Barely any theological studies exist that reflect on religious policies and their subsequent praxis in the field of communication The author analyzes Christian policy views and identifies the main problems and opportunities in relating to media culture Media, Terrorism, and Theory Anandam P. Kavoori, Todd Fraley, 2006-01-20 Over the past few years coverage of terror attacks has featured prominently in numerous media outlets Drawing on both popular and academic articles the essays in Media Terrorism and Theory A Reader analyze the larger issues surrounding media's portrayal of terrorism including terrorism as a media event war and media nationalism and media public responsibility and journalistic accountability Renowned contributors from around the world explore these issues as they relate to a global community From such diverse fields as cultural studies political science media studies architecture and information science each brings a distinctive perspective Answering a growing need to understand media discourse on terrorism Media Terrorism and Theory complements readings in upper level mass communication courses and will appeal to students and scholars of international media and terrorism Communication for Social Change Anthology Alfonso Gumucio Dagron, Thomas Tufte, 2006 Contains nearly 200 readings published between 1927 and 2005 in English or translated from other languages on the historical roots and pioneering thinking regarding communication for social change Covers a variety of topics including the radio tv and other mass communication information and communication technology the digital gap the formation of an information society national information policies participatory decision making communication of development pedagogy and entertainment education HIV AIDS communication for prevention etc A Companion to Media Studies Angharad N. Valdivia, 2008-04-15 A Companion to Media Studies is a comprehensive collection that brings together new writings by an international team to provide an overview of the theories and methodologies that have produced this most interdisciplinary of fields Tackles a variety of central concepts and controversies organized into six areas of study foundations production media content media audiences effects and futures Provides an accessible point of entry into this expansive and interdisciplinary field Includes the writings of renowned media scholars including McQuail Schiller Gallagher Wartella and Bryant Now available in paperback for the course market Alternative Media and Taiwan's Socio-Political Transformation, 1970s-1990s Junhao Hong, Cheng-Nan Hou, 2023-08-31 This book systematically and comprehensively studies on alternative media in Taiwan using a historical approach and primary data and first hand collected materials to examine how political openness and social movement in the 1980s through the 1990s in Taiwan enabled the rapid growth and wide development of Taiwan's alternative media what impact the alternative media in Taiwan had on its socio political transformation and what implications Taiwan's case of alternative media has for other societies especially for other Asian societies This book would be a good reading for intellectuals media professionals government analysts and the general public as well who are interested in this topic Media Research Methods Ina Bertrand, Peter Hughes, 2017-10-13 This indispensable textbook provides student researchers with extensive guidance and methods from across the social sciences and humanities showing them how to make informed choices and consider the many alternatives available throughout the research process Unique in approach the text focus on how to do media research across three key strands audiences institutions and texts and critically assesses a wide range of methods addressing why they are appropriate or useful in certain scenarios Written by two experts with a wealth of experience between them in teaching research methods and skills this excellent resource explains complex methods in a clear and accessible way offering practical guidance on how to use different methodologies while situating the methods in the context of critical evaluations of previously published research Providing a complete overview of media research methods while encouraging students to develop their own intellectual frameworks this book is invaluable for undergraduates postgraduates novice and more experienced researchers of media communication and journalism Men, Masculinity and the Media Steve Craig, 1992-02-26 Although studies of men and masculinity have gained momentum little has been published that focuses on the media and their relationship to men as men Men Masculinity and the Media addresses this shortcoming Scholars from across the social sciences investigate past media research on men and masculinity They also examine how the media serve to construct masculinities how men and their relationships have been depicted and how men respond to media images From comic books and rock music to film and television this groundbreaking volume scrutinizes the interrelationship among men the media and masculinity The Politics of Southeast Asia's New Media William Atkins, 2013-11-19 The past decade has seen a major structural shift in broadcasting in Southeast Asia with the development of digital satellite and cable broadcasting This shift has impacted upon some of the most information sensitive governments in the world Singapore Malaysia and until recently Indonesia Atkins traces this development in five countries showing that the challenge to authoritarian regimes anticipated by modern theorists as a result of the globalization of news and information is not materializing Instead a new commercial elite has arisen Southeast Asia's own mini moguls who act as gatekeepers for state interests as partners to global media companies

Media Ethics and Accountability Systems Claude-Jean Bertrand, 2018-04-17 Over the last few years the O J Simpson case then the Lewinsky Clinton affair and scores of minor scandals have dominated the US press often taking precedence over important domestic and international issues This tabloidization of the news media both here and abroad has proved that the market cannot insure media quality In a democracy for media to function well they must be free of both political and economic muzzling The only solution is to add self regulation or quality control by professionals and public to the other two forces the market and state regulation In this controversial volume Claude Jean Bertrand sets out to define a set of accountability systems democratic efficient and harmless to insure true freedom and quality of media This brief highly literate volume focuses not on philosophical foundations of media ethics or case stories but on what is now missing in the codes Many books deal with media ethics but few deal with accountability Media Ethics and Accountability Systems zeroes in on the many nongovernmental methods of enforcing quality control and on the difficulty of getting the media microcosm to accept such accountability To remedy this lack Bertrand proposes rethinking existing media accountability systems some 30 to 40 in number and creation of new ones He observes that existing systems are rooted in four basic approaches training the education of citizens in media use and the incorporation of ethics courses in journalistic education evaluation criticism positive and negative not only from politicians consumerists and intellectuals but from media professionals themselves monitoring by independent academic experts over extended periods of time into the long term effects and feedback giving ear to the various segments of media users and their needs and tastes rather than scrutinizing sales and ratings Media Ethics will be of particular interest to academics in the fields of communication and journalism as well as to the general reader with an interest in public issues and a civic concern for society How to Write about the Media Today Raúl Damacio

Tovares, Alla V. Tovares, 2010-03-02 A comprehensive and practical guide to writing a successful media paper or report from selecting a topic to submitting the final draft How to Write about the Media Today is the first book to offer students and media practitioners a comprehensive approach for researching and preparing a report paper or presentation on some aspect of today's mass communication How to Write about the Media Today begins with a discussion of different types of media outlets from traditional newspapers and television to the Internet as well as an overview of contemporary directions in media studies This is followed by a series of step by step strategies for selecting topics conducting research and writing cogently and engagingly about media related events and issues Because each chapter stands on its own this resource can be read sequentially or consulted topic by topic as needed

Reading Media Theory Brett Mills, David M. Barlow, 2014-06-11 What does the Frankfurt School have to say about the creative industries Does the spread of Google prove we now live in an information society How is Madonna an example of postmodernism How new is new media Does the power of Facebook mean we're all media makers now This groundbreaking volume part reader part textbook helps you to engage thoroughly with some of the major voices that have come to define the landscape of theory in media studies from the public sphere to postmodernism from mass communication theory to media effects from production to reception and beyond But much more than this by providing assistance and questions directly alongside the readings it crucially helps you develop the skills necessary to become a critical informed and analytical reader Each reading is supported on the facing page by author annotations which provide comments dissect the arguments explain key ideas and terminology make references to other relevant material and pose questions that emerge from the text Key features Opening chapters What is theory and What is reading bring alive the importance of both as key parts of media scholarship Pre reading substantial Introductory sections set each text and its author in context and show the relevance of the reading to contemporary culture Post reading Reflection sections summarise each reading's key points and suggests further areas to explore and think about 4 types of annotations help you engage with the reading context content structure and writing style as well as questions to provoke further thought Split into 4 sections Reading theory Key thinkers and schools Approaches and Media Theory in context New to the second edition New chapters on New Media and Audiences as Producers Reading Media Theory will assist you in developing close reading and analytic skills It will also increase your ability to outline key theories and debates assess different case studies critically link theoretical approaches to a particular historical context and to structure and present an argument As such it will be essential reading for undergraduate and postgraduate students of media studies cultural studies communication studies the sociology of the media popular culture and other related subjects
