The French Compared with the English Syntax, by Questions and Answers, Etc J. DUVERGER (Teacher of French in London.), 1796

Jewish Socratic Questions in an Age without Plato Yehuda Halper, 2021-11-01 Winner of the 2022 Goldstein Goren Book Award from the Goldstein Goren International Center for Jewish Thought at Ben Gurion University of the Negev Yehuda Halper examines Jewish depictions of Socrates and Socratic questioning of the divine among European and North African Jews of the 12th 15th centuries Without direct access to Plato their understanding of Socrates is indirect based on legendary material on fragmentary quotations from Plato or on Aristotle Out of these sources Jewish authors of this period formed two distinct views of Socrates one as a wise ascetic monotheist and the other as a vocal skeptic The latter view has its roots in Plato's Apology where Socrates describes his divine mandate to question all knowledge including knowledge of the divine After exploring how this and similar questions arise in the works of Judah Halevi and the Hebrew Averroes Halper traces how such open questioning of the divine arises in the works of Maimonides Jacob Anatoli Gersonides and Abraham Bibago
