brooded upon the relationship between German society politics and the films that represented them all From these tangled motives a rich discourse on film emerged that paralleled or anticipated discourses in the other film centers of the world The Cinema s Third Machine reproduces the diversity of perspectives and the intensity of controversies of early German film within the broad context of German social and political history from the aesthetic rapture of the first years to the institutionalization of film by the national socialist state Many texts have been rediscovered and are now presented to modern scholars for the first time Hake treats all aspects of the medium production promotion education journalism aesthetics and political activism following throughout the various forms criticism assumed

Film audiences Bridgette Wessels, Peter Merrington, Matthew Hanchard, David Forrest, 2022-12-20 Reception studies have made film audiences increasingly visible while surveys track trends and policymakers gather information about audience preferences and demographics But little attention has been paid to the specific contextual relationships and interactions between films and individuals that generate and sustain audiences This monograph develops the idea of audiences as interactive and relational introducing three innovative concepts personal film journeys five types of audience formations and five geographies of film provision A major challenge of audience research is how to capture the richness of people s social and cultural engagement with film To achieve this the book uses an innovative mixed methods research and computational ontology It develops ground breaking theory and concepts and an innovative methodology based on an extensive data set derived from the under researched area of British regional film audiences
