Exploring Romans Ashley Day, 2004-11 Exploring Romans is an attempt to explain the profound truths of Paul's letter in everyday language Somewhere between AD 55 and AD 57 an itinerant preacher named Paul wrote a letter to the Christians in Rome Working his way across Asia Minor and into Europe he preached the Gospel tirelessly Many churches were founded but fearful opposition was also generated Paul was stoned beaten shipwrecked and imprisoned but nothing dampened his enthusiasm His letter to the Romans is a masterpiece It sets out the basic tenets of the Christian faith but also explores eternal mysteries in greater depth than any other work We hope it will help the reader gain a better understanding of the marvels of God's inspired Word

Affirm the Reality of Your Own Greatness Neville Lancelot Goddard, Creating a new way of life doesn t start with external reforms or superficial changes to organizations laws or social structures True transformation must begin within each individual through the renewal of their mind and their perceptions of themselves It is the inner awakening that shapes the outer reality Man can only manifest in the world what he affirms as true within himself This personal affirmation fueled by imagination and love is the starting point for creating a more harmonious and elevated future The key to this transformation lies in changing the ideas and beliefs that inhabit our minds Imagination often underestimated is the most powerful tool we have for shaping destiny When disciplined and guided by a high purpose it is capable of transforming the reality around us influencing our relationships circumstances and even the environment in which we live Everything we see and experience is a reflection of our self awareness Genuine faith the kind that brings concrete results is not a simple act of desire or will but the serene recognition that what we desire has already been achieved True prayer therefore is not an anxious request but a state of complete trust By visualizing the desire that has already been fulfilled and feeling the reality of that visualization we create the necessary conditions for the desire to manifest This transformation requires persistence and constant practice Just as learning a new skill requires daily dedication the process of renewing the mind is continuous Meditation and visualization are essential practices for cultivating control over the imagination and staying focused on high ideals Only with this inner discipline can we truly become masters of our reality The key to this change is the willingness to abandon old concepts and beliefs replacing them with higher and nobler ideas Outward change is impossible without first transforming the heart True religion the kind that brings lasting peace and contentment is not found in external dogmas but is born from the deep inner experience of renewal It is through this change of attitude nourished by love and guided by imagination that we create a new future a future that begins with the transformation of the self A R Ribeiro

Open Friendship in a Closed Society Peter Slade, 2009-10-09 Peter Slade examines Mission Mississippi s model of racial reconciliation which stresses one on one individual friendships among religious people of different races and considers whether it can effectively address the issue of social justice Slade argues that Mission Mississippi s goal of changing Mississippi one relationship at a time is both a pragmatic strategy and a theological statement of hope for social and economic change in Mississippi

Today's Prayer Stephen Kyeyune, 2019-05-30 This book is written to all kinds of people because all of us need to pray Praying means asking None of us is exempted from praying because we are all dependants in one way or another Everything that is not God depends on

God We are inadequate because there is no time we don't have expectations to meet We have shared human desires For example everyone needs to be loved We are all exclusively dependants on God because the desires of the human heart can only be found in the Lord Trying to fix things apart from God is the recipe of failure Praying is the greatest fellowship with God We pray to the all sufficient God because we are insufficient by ourselves Humanity with all human resources cannot save or fulfill itself Our desires are endless and are constantly changing For example our eyes are never satisfied with seeing we always want to see something new Our ears are never satisfied with hearing we always want to hear the current news Likewise the soul is never tired of yearning for the transcendent People take different avenues when seeking for fulfillment but only those who have discovered the power of prayer experience true fulfillment We are called to pray unceasingly because there is constantly a feeling of emptiness when we do not communicate with God Emptiness is the reality of the void that colonized the heart which was once a sacred space occupied by the Divine Praying is to be intimate with God it is having God's ear and eye in order to see the earthly things from the heavenly perspective John 12-21 Gerald L.

Garcia, 2017-04-07 Out of the shadows of Pope John Paul II the Great comes an invigorating look at the Catholic faith Father Michael Garcia takes a broad and sometimes overwhelming topic Roman Catholic theology and makes it user friendly for all Having studied and taught theology for over twenty five years I find this book as the spark needed to fuel those searching for answers to the Catholic faith Beginning from the standpoint of salvation history Father Michael Garcia's text takes the reader from the Fall to the Resurrection awakening interest in students lacking theological acumen In just a few pages Father Michael Garcia delivers practical advice to living a life worthy of the trip to salvation This brevity in unveiling religious truth is bound to captivate the reader Miracles were never intended to be simply signs of power or solutions to impossible problems but rather opportunities for change and conversion This line from Father Michael Garcia's new book is just one sample of the ingenious way that the author simplifies complex ideas motivating even the average reader to discover more Whether the audience consists of accomplished theologians or recent converts to the Roman Catholic faith this book quenches the readers desire for knowledge and religious understanding Father Michael Garcia's text is certain to imbue his readers with a fresh perspective regarding their faith It is not only a theological primer but also a practical look at how to apply the consistent church teaching to the realities of life in the twenty first century When readers put down this book they will have picked up an appreciation of the Catholic faith
