The Closing of the Muslim Mind Robert R. Reilly, 2023-06-20 Islam's Intellectual Suicide and the Threat to Us All People are shocked and frightened by the behavior coming out of the Islamic world not only because it is violent but also because it is seemingly inexplicable While there are many answers to the question of what went wrong in the Muslim world no one has decisively answered why it went wrong Until now In this eye opening new book foreign policy expert Robert R Reilly uncovers the root of our contemporary crisis a pivotal struggle waged within the Muslim world nearly a millennium ago In a heated battle over the role of reason the side of irrationality won The deformed theology that resulted Reilly reveals produced the spiritual pathology of Islamism and a deeply dysfunctional culture Terrorism from 9 11 to London Madrid and Mumbai to the Christmas 2009 attempted airline bombing is the most obvious manifestation of this crisis But Reilly shows that the pathology extends much further The Closing of the Muslim Mind solves such puzzles as why peace is so elusive in the Middle East why the Arab world stands near the bottom of every measure of human development why scientific inquiry is nearly dead in the Islamic world why Spain translates more books in a single year than the entire Arab world has in the past thousand years why some people in Saudi Arabia still refuse to believe man has been to the moon why Muslim media frequently present natural disasters like Hurricane Katrina as God's direct retribution Delving deeper than previous polemics and simplistic analyses The Closing of the Muslim Mind provides the answers the West has so desperately needed in confronting the Islamist crisis

Biondi, 2021-04-21 Readings in Ethics offers a vast collection of carefully edited readings arranged chronologically across five historical periods. In addition to texts from canonical philosophers such as Plato, Mill, Wollstonecraft, and Rawls, the volume draws from other sources of wisdom: stories, fables, proverbs, medieval mystical treatises, literature, and poetry. The editors have also written substantial introductions, annotations, discussion questions, and suggestions for further reading, making for a thorough guided tour of our ethical past and present.

Religious Freedom in Islam Daniel Philpott, 2019-02-01 Since at least the attacks of September 11, 2001, one of the most pressing political questions of the age has been whether Islam is hostile to religious freedom. Daniel Philpott examines conditions on the ground in forty-seven Muslim majority countries today and offers an honest, clear-eyed answer to this urgent question. It is not, however, a simple answer. From a satellite view, the Muslim world looks unfree. But Philpott shows the truth is much more complex. Some one-fourth of Muslim majority countries are, in fact, religiously free. Of the other countries, about forty percent are governed not by Islamists but by a hostile secularism imported from the West, while the other sixty percent are Islamist. The picture that emerges is both honest and hopeful. Yes, most Muslim majority countries are lacking in religious freedom. But Philpott argues the Islamic tradition carries within it seeds of freedom, and he offers guidance for how to cultivate those seeds in order to expand religious freedom in the Muslim world and the world at large. It is an urgent project. Religious freedom promotes goods like democracy and the advancement of women that are lacking in the Muslim majority world and reduces ills like civil war, terrorism, and violence. Further religious freedom is simply a matter of justice, not an exclusively Western value, but rather a universal right rooted in human nature. Its realization is critical to the aspirations of religious minorities and dissenters in Muslim countries, to Muslims living in non-Muslim countries or under secular dictatorships, and to relations between the West and the Muslim world. In this thoughtful book, Philpott seeks to establish a constructive middle ground in a fiery and long-lasting debate over Islam.

Averroes and the Enlightenment Mourad Wahba, 2010-10-04 Thirty-four scholars from 18 countries on five continents met in Cairo to debate for the first time the ideals of the Enlightenment and secularism while celebrating the 800th anniversary of the death of one of Islam's greatest philosophers, Muslim philosopher Ibn Rushd (1126–1198), known in the West as Averroes. May be viewed as a medieval precursor of the European Enlightenment and as a rallying point for dialogue between East and West, Averroes's attempt to harmonize philosophy and religion, reason and faith, led to a rethinking of the tenets of Christianity. His work spurred on some of the great rational syntheses of Christian thought such as Thomas Aquinas's Summa Theologica. This book offers a rare opportunity to learn about the contemporary Arab world and its efforts to dialogue with the West.

God's Command J. E. Hare, 2015 This work focuses on divine command and, in particular, the theory that what makes something obligatory is that God commands it and what makes something wrong is that God commands us not to do it Focusing on the Abrahamic faiths eminent scholar John E Hare explains that two experiences have had to be integrated The first is that God tells us to do something or not to do something The second is that we have to work out ourselves what to do and what not to do The difficulty has come in establishing the proper relation between them In Christian reflection on this two main traditions have emerged divine command theory and natural law theory Hare successfully defends a version of divine command theory but also shows that there is considerable overlap with some versions of natural law theory He engages with a number of Christian theologians particularly Karl Barth and extends into a discussion of divine command within Judaism and Islam The work concludes by examining recent work in evolutionary psychology and argues that thinking of our moral obligations as produced by divine command offers us some help in seeing how a moral conscience could develop in a way that is evolutionarily stable

Conflict, Identity, and Reform in the Muslim World Daniel Brumberg, Dina Shehata, 2009 Conflict Identity and Reform in the Muslim World highlights the challenges that escalating identity conflicts within Muslim majority states pose for both the Muslim world and for the West an issue that has received scant attention in policy and academic circles

Reasoning with God Khaled Abou El Fadl, 2014-10-23 In light of recent concern over Shari ah such as proposed laws to prohibit it in the United States and conflict over the role it should play in the new Egyptian constitution many people are confused about the meaning of Shari ah in Islam and its role in the world today In Reasoning with God renowned Islamic scholar Khaled Abou El Fadl explains not only what Shari ah really means but also the way it can revitalize and reengage contemporary Islam After a prologue that provides an essential overview of Shari ah Abou El Fadl explores the moral trajectory of Islam in today s world

Weaving powerful personal stories with broader global examples he shows the ways that some interpretations of Islam today have undermined its potential in peace and love Rather than simply outlining challenges however the author provides constructive suggestions about how Muslims can reengage the ethical tradition of their faith through Shari ah As the world s second largest religion Islam remains an important force on the global stage Reasoning with God takes readers both Muslim and non Muslim beyond superficial understandings of Shari ah to a deeper understanding of its meaning and potential
