Crime and Racial Constructions Jeanette Covington, 2010-04-12 Crime and Racial Constructions Cultural Misinformation about African Americans in Media and Academia focuses on how film images of dangerous hedonistic blacks have assumed greater significance since blacks protested racial injustice during the Civil Rights Movement and the Black Power Movement of the 1960s and 1970s It does so by reviewing a number of films that have been released from the 1970s until the present in which black males are depicted as violent and threatening It likewise considers how these same films represent black females as prostitutes drug addicts and irresponsible abusive mothers who spawn violence in their children Because these on screen images of a violent apolitical and immoral black underclass find their way into the criminological literature the book also takes a look at how criminologists use these images to link crime to underclass culture Both Hollywood and criminologists alike manage to ignore how black activism during the 1960s social movements actually sparked black opposition to the kind of black on black crime that is routinely depicted on screen By taking a critical look at these negative images Crime and Racial Constructions seeks to correct some of the distortions that arise from the undue academic and cinematic focus on black criminals at the expense of racially conscious blacks City of Suspects Pablo Piccato,2001-09-26 An analysis of the complex moral interpretations crime was given by Mexico s urban poor and of the evolving institutional responses to crime and punishment in modern Mexico COVID AND COEXISTENCE Ramya R,Santhosh R,Pradeep Kumar B, This book is a collection of mixed responses of academicians and researchers on the burning issues that emanate from the conditions created by the spread of Covid 19 Virus in India Articles in this book are arranged in four parts viz Covid and Coexistence Conceptual Issues Covid 19 Development Issues Covid 19 Sectoral Issues and Covid 19 Labour and Gender Issues Contents and findings of research articles included in this book may be helpful for policymakers and institutions engaged in dealing with Pandemic conditions We hope readers and scholars will find this book worth reading The New War Plays J. Boll,2013-10-18 How can war be represented on stage How does the theatre examine the structures leading to violence and war and explore their transformation of societies Springing from the discussion about New Wars in the age of globalisation this interdisciplinary study demonstrates how these New Wars bring forth new plays about war A Democratic Enlightenment Morton Schoolman,2020-04-03 In A Democratic Enlightenment Morton Schoolman proposes aesthetic education through film as a way to redress the political violence inflicted on difference that society constructs as its racialized gendered Semitic and sexualized other Drawing on Voltaire Diderot and Schiller Schoolman reconstructs the genealogical history of what he calls the reconciliation image a visual model of a democratic ideal of reconciliation he then theorizes through Whitman s prose and poetry and Adorno s aesthetic theory Analyzing The Help 2011 and Gentleman s Agreement 1947 Schoolman shows how film produces a more advanced image of reconciliation than those originally created by modernist artworks Each film depicts violence toward racial and ethnic difference while also displaying a reconciliation image that aesthetically educates the public about how the violence of constructing difference as otherness can be overcome Mounting a democratic enlightenment the reconciliation image in film illuminates a possible politics for challenging the rise of nationalism s violence toward differences in all their diversity The kingdom of God is within you graf Leo Tolstoy,1917
