Practical Reason and Norms Joseph Raz, 1999-09-09 Practical Reason and Norms focuses on three problems In what way are rules normative and how do they differ from ordinary reasons What makes normative systems systematic What distinguishes legal systems and in what consists their normativity All three questions are answered by taking reasons as the basic normative concept and showing the distinctive role reasons have in every case thus paving the way to a unified account of normativity Rules are a structure of reasons to perform the required act and an exclusionary reason not to follow some competing reasons Exclusionary reasons are explained and used to unlock the secrets of orders promises and decisions as well as rules Games are used to exemplify normative systems Inevitably the analysis extends to some aspects of normative discourse which is truth apt but with a diminished assertoric force      Reason's Traces Matthew Kapstein, 2001-06-15 Reason s Traces addresses some of the key questions in the study of Indian and Buddhist thought the analysis of personal identity and of ultimate reality the interpretation of Tantric texts and traditions and Tibetan approaches to the interpretation of Indian sources Drawing on a wide range of scholarship Reason s Traces reflects current work in philosophical analysis and hermeneutics inviting readers to explore in a Buddhist context the relationship between philosophy and traditions of spiritual exercise      Reason's Debt to Freedom Ishtiyaque Haji, 2012-06-01 To have free will with respect to an act is to have the ability both to perform and to refrain from performing it In this book Ishtiyaque Haji argues that no one can have practical reasons of a certain sort objective reasons to perform some act unless one has free will regarding that act      ,      European Competition Law Annual 2003 Claus-Dieter Ehlermann, Isabela Atanasiu, 2006-03-14 The European Competition Law Annual 2003 is the eighth in a series of volumes following the annual workshops on EU Competition Law and Policy held at the Robert Schuman Centre of the European University in Florence The volume reproduces the materials of the roundtable debate that took place at the eighth Workshop and is dedicated to the question What is an Abuse of a Dominant Position It contains the usual mix of expert discussion and expert papers presented by the participants at this annual gathering of leading EU and international experts on competition law      Accident/Incident Prevention Techniques Charles D.

Reese, 2011-10-25 Published more than ten years ago the first edition of Accident Incident Prevention Techniques provided clear comprehensive guidance on how to mitigate the cost in personnel and to the bottom line of accidents incidents in the workplace Significantly revised and updated this Second Edition takes its place as the A to Z hands on guide to the r

Distribution Law Theodore L. Banks, 1998-12-01      EU Cartel Enforcement Andreas Scordamaglia-Tousis, 2013-08-01 There has been a long standing debate on the compatibility of EU competition law with fundamental rights protection particularly as the latter is enshrined in the due process requirements of the European Convention on Human Rights ECHR This book a signal contribution to that debate assesses two questions of paramount concern first whether the current level of fundamental rights protection in cartel enforcement falls within the accepted ECHR standards and second how the often conflicting objectives of effectiveness and adequate protection of fundamental rights could optimally be achieved Following a detailed survey of relevant EU institutional substantive and procedural law rules the author offers a set of persuasive normative responses to both questions Proceeding from an in depth analysis of the pertinent rights and legal nature of competition proceedings under EU and ECHR law the author goes on to examine such elements of the perceived incompatibility as the following investigatory powers vested in competition authorities the privilege against self incrimination right to privacy fair trial probatory requirements degree of use of presumptions in EU practice Article 6 ECHR guarantees pertaining to the presumption of innocence proving coordination of competitive behaviour proving restriction of competition admissibility of evidence before EU Courts and the Commission assessment of the attribution of liability rules EU fining rules judicial review of cartel decisions by EU Courts and national sanctioning rules The author s extraordinarily thorough presentation is rounded off with a remarkably comprehensive bibliography that lists in addition to books and articles newspaper articles EU regulations and directives soft law guidelines and best practices EU and ECtHR case law EU Advocate General opinions European Commission decisions and European Ombudsman decisions General conclusions stress the necessity of introducing further reforms to enhance the effectiveness and legitimacy of fundamental rights in the context of competition proceedings Few books have taken such a thorough and far reaching approach to the reconciliation of effective public enforcement and fundamental rights or of effective deterrence with the principles of legality non retroactivity presumption of innocence and ne bis in idem In the depth of its appraisal of the entire spectrum of enforcement components from a fundamental rights perspective the book is without peers It will be warmly welcomed by any parties interested in the intersection of competition law and human rights

Emotions as Original

Existences Demian Whiting, 2020-09-25 This book defends the much disputed view that emotions are what Hume referred to as original existences feeling states that have no intentional or representational properties of their own In doing so the book serves as a valuable counterbalance to the now mainstream view that emotions are representational mental states Beginning with a defence of a feeling theory of emotion Whiting opens up a whole new way of thinking about the role and centrality of emotion in our lives showing how emotion is key to a proper understanding of human motivation and the self Whiting establishes that emotions as types of bodily feelings serve as the categorical bases for our behavioural dispositions including those associated with moral thought virtue and vice The book concludes by advancing the idea that emotions make up our intrinsic nature the characterisation of what we are like in and of ourselves when considered apart from how we are disposed to behave The conclusion additionally draws out the implications of the claims made throughout the book in relation to our understanding of mental illness and the treatment of emotional disorders

Trade-Off Professor Erik Hollnagel,2012-10-01 Accident investigation and risk assessment have for decades focused on the human factor particularly human error This bias towards performance failures leads to a neglect of normal performance It assumes that failures and successes have different origins so there is little to be gained from studying them together Erik

Hollnagel believes this assumption is false and that safety cannot be attained only by eliminating risks and failures The alternative is to understand why things go right and to amplify that The ETTO Principle looks at the common trait of people at work to adjust what they do to match the conditions It proposes that this efficiency thoroughness trade off ETTO is normal While in some cases the adjustments may lead to adverse outcomes these are due to the same processes that produce successes     How to Choose the Right Vocation Holmes Whittier Merton,1917
