Rebirth Of A Nation:

Rebirth of a Nation Jackson Lears, 2009-06-09 Historian Lears presents an illuminating and authoritative history of America in the years between the Civil War and World War I b w photo insert Rebirth of a Nation Leaford Clemetson Williams, 1954 New Faces in a Changing America Loretta I. Winters, Herman L. DeBose, 2003 New Faces in a Changing America is a comprehensive penetrating authoritative and provocative examination of what it means to be multiracial in this country With contributions by the leading thinkers activists and researchers on the subject it admirably links theory and the powerful lived experiences of mixed race people This book will be the most important reference source on the subject for many years James P Allen California State University Northridge Not since the work of Root has there been as important of an anthology as New Faces in a Changing America This book explores the reality of multiracial people from a variety of theoretical and conceptual perspectives It is a must read for anybody who want to understand the multiracial movement and the multiracial people who lead that movement Any teacher who wants to introduce the concept of multiraciality to his her class must also have this book Winters and Debose are to be commended for putting together this first rate academic examination of an important social phenomenon George Yancey University of North Texas How multiracial people identify themselves can have major consequences on their positions in their families communities and society Even the U S Census has recognized the rapidly increasing numbers of those who consider themselves multiracial adding a new racial category to the 2000 Census form two or more races New Faces in a Changing America Multiracial Identity in the 21st Century examines the multiracial experience its history and the political issues and consequences surrounding biracial and multiracial identity bringing together top names in the field to give readers cutting edge views and insights gained from contemporary research This important new text follows the trail blazed by Maria Root who contributes its opening chapter An introduction places the issues of multiracial identity into context via a discussion of U S Census data and debates providing an overview of the varied readings to come covering such topics as Race as a social rather than biological construction The Multiracial Movement Racial Ethnic Groups in America and Beyond Race Gender human service professionals including psychologists counselors social workers and school personnel and importantly multiracial individuals themselves Rebirth of a Nation John L. Porter, 1984 The Rebirth of a Nation, 1915 Rebirth of a Nation John P. Halstead, 1967 Tales of the Nation Lene Bull-Christiansen, 2004 In light of the uses and misuses of history in Zimbabwean politics in recent years this research report focuses on how versions of the country s liberation war history have become a site of struggle over the definition of Zimbabwean national identity As identity politics often do Zimbabwean nationalism draws on a wide field of cultural symbols of identity and political discourses of inclusion and exclusion Therefore the report takes a cross disciplinary approach to the issue of national identity by mapping out the imaginary field of Zimbabwean nationalism This approach opens up the possibility of cross reading the political discourses of the President and the ruling party ZANU PF with opposing voices such as those in the works of the author Yvonne Vera This cross reading shows how Vera's novels and the political discourses participate in the struggle over Zimbabwean national identity by offering different versions of the nation's history in the form of patriotic history feminist nationalism or narratives of difference In this way the research report adds to our understanding of power and resistance in Zimbabwean politics of national identity

The Historical Film Marcia Landy, 2001 What is history How do we represent it How do our notions of history change over time The essays in The Historical Film History and Memory in Media probe the roles that cinema and television play in altering and complicating our understanding of historical events The book brings together representative examples of how both media critics and historians write about history as it is created and disseminated through film and television The essays explore what is at stake culturally and politically in media history and how this form of history making is different from traditional historiography The volume is divided into four parts Regarding History History as Trauma History Fiction and Postcolonial Memory and History and Television that progressively deepen our understanding of just how complex the issues are Essays by top scholars analyze many different kinds of film historical film documentary costume drama and heritage films The section on television is equally broad examining phenomena as diverse as news broadcasts and Ken Burns's documentary The Civil War Contributors are Mbye Cham George F Custen Mary Ann Doane Richard Dienst Taylor Downing Gary Edgerton Naomi Greene Miriam Bratu Hansen Sue Harper Sumiko Higashi Anton Kaes Marcia Landy Shawn Rosenheim Robert A Rosenstone Pierre Sorlin Maria Wyke and Ismail Xavier

Music Makes the Nation , Rebirth of a Nation John Lloyd, 1998

D. W. Griffith's The Birth of a Nation Jenny Barrett, Douglas Field, Ian Scott, 2022-12-27 In 1915 American filmmaker D W Griffith released a film that went on to become one of the most controversial of all time Over a century later The Birth of a Nation continues to stimulate debate on the relationship between Hollywood and racism This volume reveals new perspectives on Griffith's film across ten original chapters re considering it as text historical milestone and influence The volume also includes a helpful timeline that lists key publications and events in Birth's ongoing history revealing the rich and stimulating discourse on its art its cultural impact and its ethical dimensions

Managing Domestic Dissent in First World War Britain Brock Millman, 2014-01-14 The author argues that the way the British Government managed dissent during World War I is important for understanding the way that the war ended He argues that a comprehensive and effective system of suppression had been developed by the war's end in 1918 with a greater level in reserve

Narratives of Nation-Building in Korea Sheila Miyoshi Jager, 2016-07-08 This book offers new insight on how key historical texts and events in Korea's history have contributed to the formation of the nation's collective consciousness The work is woven around the unifying premise that particular narrative texts events that extend back to the premodern period have remained important albeit transformed over the modern period and into the contemporary period The author explores the relationship between gender and nationalism by showing how key narrative topics such as tales of virtuous womanhood have been employed transformed and re deployed to make sense of particular national events Connecting these narratives and historic events to contemporary Korean society Jager reveals how these sites or reference points were also successfully re deployed in the context of the division of Korea and the construction of Korea s modern consciousness

America Ascendant Stanley B. Greenberg,2015-11-03 America is poised to lead the 21st Century as it led the 20th That will happen because the country is at a tipping point in the battle for its own renewal a renewal that will allow America to be exceptional again Our economy is on the move fueled by revolutions in energy immigration innovation big data and advanced manufacturing America s energy independence has set off shockwaves Just as important are the social transformations that are making the country ever more racially and culturally diverse younger a home to immigrants and the metropolitan centers that foster a rising economic and cultural dynamism While most other countries struggle profoundly with immigration and religious and racial differences America s on a path to multicultural identity Those revolutions in the economy society and culture and are also producing a new American majority that embraces new values and new politics Republicans are waging a counter revolution and that is why America looks gridlocked and why the country is turning to Democrats to take on the country s growing challenges The economic and social transformations leave people struggling to earn enough and reach the middle class Families are under stress Government is corrupted by big money The American public is demanding the country address the dark side of our progress and reforms are starting to happen That is why Democrats will get to lead an era of reform and renewal comparable to the progressive era that mitigated the excesses of the Industrial Revolution In this incisive book expert strategist Greenberg draws on years of research and polling to illuminate how America is far from being gridlocked and he articulates a powerful vision of how American politics and America can be renewed

The Pan-African Nation Andrew Apter,2008-10-01 When Nigeria hosted the Second World Black and African Festival of Arts and Culture FESTAC in 1977 it celebrated a global vision of black nationhood and citizenship animated by the exuberance of its recent oil boom Andrew Apter s The Pan African Nation tells the full story of this cultural extravaganza from Nigeria s spectacular rebirth as a rapidly developing petro state to its dramatic demise when the boom went bust According to Apter FESTAC expanded the horizons of blackness in Nigeria to mirror the global circuits of its economy By showcasing masks dances images and souvenirs from its many diverse ethnic groups Nigeria forged a new national culture In the grandeur of this oil fed confidence the nation subsumed all black and African cultures within its empire of cultural signs and erased its colonial legacies from collective memory As the oil economy collapsed however cultural signs became unstable contributing to rampant violence and dissimulation The Pan African Nation unpacks FESTAC as a historically situated mirror of production in Nigeria More broadly it points towards a critique of the political economy of the sign in postcolonial Africa

Deepfakes Graham Meikle,2022-09-22 What happens when we can no longer believe what we see Show the AI technologies that create deepfakes enough images of a celebrity or a politician and they will generate a convincing video in which that person appears to say and do things they have never actually said or done The result is a media environment in which anyone's face and image can be remixed and manipulated Graham Meikle explains how deepfakes synthetic media are made and used From celebrity porn and political satire to movie mash ups and disinformation campaigns this book explores themes of trust and consent as face swapping software becomes more common Meikle argues that deepfake videos allow for a new perspective on the taken for granted nature of contemporary media in which our capacity to remix and share content increasingly conflicts with our capacity to trust The book analyses how such videos deepen the social media environment in which the public and the personal converge and in which all human experience becomes data to be shared Timely clear and accessibly written this is an essential text for students and scholars of media communication cultural studies and sociology as well as general readers Forward Without Fear Derek Taira,2024

Derek Taira argues that during the territorial period many Hawaiians neither subscribed nor succumbed to public schools aggressive efforts to assimilate and Americanize but instead engaged with American education to envision and support an alternate future Shaping Global Islamic Discourses Masooda Bano,2015-03-20 Explores the influence of centres of Islamic learning using 3 case studies Al Azhar University in Egypt International Islamic University of Medina in Saudi Arabia and Al Mustafa University in Iran Intellectuals in the Modern Islamic World Stephane A. Dudoignon,Komatsu

Hisao,Kosugi Yasushi,2006-09-27 Incorporating a rich series of case studies covering a range of geographical areas this collection of essays examines the history of modern intellectuals in the Islamic world throughout the twentieth century The contributors reassess the typology and history of various scholars providing significant diachronic analysis of the different forms of communication learning and authority While each chapter presents a separate regional case with an historically and geographically different background the volume discloses commonalities similarities and intellectual echoes through its comparative approach Consisting of two parts the volume focuses first on al Manar the influential journal published between 1898 and 1935 that inspired much imagination and arguments among local intelligentsias all over the Islamic world The second part discusses the formation transmission and transformation of learning and authority from the Middle East to Central and Southeast Asia Constituting a milestone in comparative studies of the modern Islamic world this book highlights the range of and transformation in the role of intellectuals in Islamic societies Against the Third Reich Paul

Tillich,1998-01-01 Paul Tillich one of the greatest Protestant theologians of modern times wrote more than one hundred radio addresses that were broadcast into Nazi Germany from March 1942 through May 1944 The broadcasts were passionate and political urging Germans to recognize the horror of Hitler and to reject a morally and spiritually bankrupt government Largely unknown in the United States the broadcasts have been translated into English for the first time and approximately half of them are presented in this book
