newlyweds Lois Clymer and her husband Jim had a dream After visiting the gorgeous homestead of a young church couple Lois and Jim decided they wanted to make their very own homestead filled with animals and children In this warm and candid narrative Lois details how life eventually led her and Jim to build a homestead that celebrated the idea of self sufficient living In their homestead they discovered a unique rhythm of life in bringing together family farm animals and gardening Along the way Lois sold shares for her garden learned to use an air hammer while building two tiny houses became involved in politics and gazed in wonder at amazing displays of the northern lights Lois not only details the creation of different homesteads throughout the years but she reveals the challenges she and Jim met along the way This memoir contains the lessons Lois learned and the wisdom she gained as she searched for answers to life s ultimate questions Jewish Cultural Studies

Simon J. Bronner,2021-05-04 Defines the distinctive field of Jewish cultural studies and its basis in folkloristic psychological and ethnological approaches Jewish Cultural Studiescharts the contours and boundaries of Jewish cultural studies and the issues of Jewish culture that make it so intriguing and necessary not only for Jews but also for students of identity ethnicity and diversity generally In addition to framing the distinguishing features of Jewish culture and the ways it has been studied and often misrepresented and maligned Simon J Bronner presents several case studies using ethnography folkloristic interpretation and rhetorical analysis Bronner building on many years of global cultural exploration locates patterns processes frames and themes of events and actions identified as Jewish to discern what makes them appear Jewish and why Jewish Cultural Studiesis divided into three parts Part 1 deals with the conceptualization of how Jews in complex heterogenous societies identify themselves as a cultural group to non Jews and vice versa such as how the Jewish home is socially and materially constructed Part 2 delves into ritualization as a strategic Jewish practice for perpetuating peoplehood and the values that it suggests for example the rising popularity of naming ceremonies for newborn girls simhat bat or zeved habat in the twenty first century Part 3 explores narration including the global transformation of Jewish joking in online settings and the role of Jews in American political culture Bronner reflects that a reason to separate Jewish cultural studies from the fields of Jewish studies and cultural studies is the distinctiveness of Jewish culture among other ethnic experiences As a diasporic group with religious ties and varying local customs Jews present difficulties of categorization He encourages a multiperspectival approach that considers the Jewish double consciousness as being aware of both insider and outsider perspectives participation in ancient tradition and recent modernization and the great variety and stigmatization of Jewish experience and cultural expression Students and scholars in Jewish studies cultural studies ethnic religious studies folklore sociology psychology and ethnology are the intended audience for this book Day of Honey Annia Ciezadlo, 2012-02-14
