Rhodes Around Britain Gary Rhodes,1998 Rhodes presents recipes for soups starters fish poultry and meat gathered from his latest travels around the British Isles 55 color photos Open Rhodes Around Britain Gary Rhodes,1996 Following Rhodes Around Britain and More Rhodes Around Britain this is the third instalment of television chef Gary Rhodes s culinary journey around Britain The book contains 130 recipes involving basic dishes which can be adapted to create a wide range of variations More Rhodes Around Britain Gary Rhodes,1995 A collection of recipes featuring traditional British food but with a foreign flavour to show how Mediterranean Far Eastern and Californian touches can transform basic British ingredients The author also offers short cut tips on many basic recipes The Complete Rhodes Around Britain Gary Rhodes,2001 An omnibus edition of television chef Gary Rhodes s culinary journey around Britain It brings together over 450 classic recipes including the famous bread and butter pudding and steak and kidney pie There are tempting variations on basic dishes too and tips on complex techniques Rhodes & More Rhodes Around Britain Gary Rhodes,1995 Encyclopedia of Contemporary British Culture Peter Childs,Michael Storry,2013-05-13 Boasting more than 970 alphabetically arranged entries the Encyclopedia of Contemporary British Culture surveys British cultural practices and icons in the latter half of the twentieth century It examines high and popular culture and encompasses both institutional and alternative aspects of British culture It provides insight into the whole spectrum of British contemporary life Topics covered include architecture pubs film internet and current takes on the monarchy Cross referencing and a thematic contents list enable readers to identify related articles The entries range from short biographical synopses to longer overview essays on key issues This Encyclopedia is essential reading for anyone interested in British culture It also provides a cultural context for students of English Modern History and Comparative European Studies Mouth Wide Open John Thorne,Matt Lewis Thorne,2008-11-25 Ever since his first book Simple Cooking and its acclaimed successors Outlaw Cook Serious Pig and Pot on the Fire John Thorne has been hailed as one of the most provocative passionate and accessible food writers at work today In Mouth Wide Open his fifth collection he has prepared a feast for the senses and intellect charting a cook s journey from ingredient to dish in illuminating essays that delve into the intimate pleasures of pistachios the Scottish burr of real marmalade how the Greeks made a Greek salad the hidden allure of salt anchovies and exploring the uncharted territory of improvised breakfasts and resolutely idiosyncratic midnight snacks Most of all his inimitable warmth humor and generosity of spirit inspire us to begin our own journey of discovery in the kitchen and in the age old comfort and delight of preparing food Hidden History Gerry Docherty,James MacGregor,2013-07-04 Think you know about British history and the causes of the First World War Think again This fascinating and gripping study of events at the turn of the Twentieth Century is a remarkable insight into how political and social factors that we widely accept to be the causes of The Great War were really just a construct put together by a very small but powerful political elite Thought provoking Docherty and Macgregor do not mince their words their arguments are powerful Britain at War Simply astonishing Reader review Very illuminating Reader review You simply MUST read this book Reader review This is a page turner Reader review Hidden History uniquely exposes those responsible for the First World War It reveals how accounts of the war's origins have been deliberately falsified to conceal the guilt of the secret cabal of very rich and powerful men in London responsible for the most heinous crime perpetrated on humanity For ten years they plotted the destruction of Germany as the first stage of their plan to take control of the world The assassination of Archduke Franz Ferdinand was no chance happening It lit a fuse that had been carefully set through a chain of command stretching from Sarajevo through Belgrade and St Petersburg to that cabal in London Our understanding of these events has been firmly trapped in a web of falsehood and duplicity carefully constructed by the victors at Versailles in 1919 and maintained by compliant historians ever since The official version is fatally flawed warped by the volume of evidence they destroyed or concealed from public view Hidden History poses a tantalising challenge The authors ask only that you examine the evidence they lay before you Angela Carter: New Critical Readings Sonya Andermahr, Lawrence Phillips, 2012-10-11 Covering her early poetry and journalism as well as her fictional writings leading international scholars explore new directions in scholarship on Angela Carter Food and Cultural Studies Bob Ashley, 2004 This book re-examines the interdisciplinary history of food studies from a cultural studies framework exploring subjects such as food and nation the gendering of eating in the phenomenon of TV chefs vegetarianism risk and moral panics

1001 Foods To Die For Corby Kummer, Andrews McMeel Publishing, LLC, 2007-11 An essential list for food lovers this culinary catalogue features luscious photographs and descriptions of must eat foods from soup to nuts from all over the world

Celebrity Chefs, Food Media and the Politics of Eating Joanne Hollows, 2022-08-11 Working across food studies and media studies Joanne Hollows examines the impact of celebrity chefs on how we think about food and how we cook shop and eat Hollows explores how celebrity chefs emerged in both restaurant and media industries making chefs like Jamie Oliver and Gordon Ramsay into global stars She also shows how blogs and YouTube enabled the emergence of new types of branded food personalities such as Deliciously Ella and BOSH As well as providing a valuable introduction to existing research on celebrity chefs Hollows uses case studies to analyse how celebrity chefs shape food practices and wider social political and cultural trends Hollows explores their impact on ideas about veganism healthy eating and the Covid 19 pandemic and how their advice is bound up with class gender and race She also demonstrates how celebrity chefs such as Jamie Oliver Hugh Fearnley Whittingstall Nadiya Hussain and Jack Monroe have become food activists and campaigners who intervene in contemporary debates about the environment food poverty and nation The Age of the ΔPOMΩN John Pryor, Elizabeth M. Jeffreys, 2006-07-01 This volume examines the development and evolution of the war galley known as the Dromon and its relative the Chelandion from first appearance in the sixth century until its supersession in the twelfth century by the Galea developed in the Latin West Beginning as a small fully decked monoreme galley by the tenth century the Dromon had become a bireme the pre eminent war galley of the Mediterranean The salient features of these ships were their two banked oarage system the spurs at their bows which replaced the ram of classical antiquity their lateen sails and their primary weapon Greek Fire The book contextualizes the technical characteristics of the ships within the operational history of Byzantine fleets logistical problems of medieval naval warfare and strategic objectives Surviving Byzantine sources especially tactical manuals are subjected to close literary and philological analysis Travel in the Byzantine World Ruth Macrides,2017-07-05 This latest volume in the SPBS series makes a notable contribution to our understanding both of the evidence for travel and of the realities and perceptions of communications in the Byzantine world Four aspects of travel in the Byzantine world from the 6th to the 15th century are examined technicalities of travel on land and sea purposes of travel foreign visitors perceptions of Constantinople and the representation of the travel experience in images and in written accounts Sources used to illuminate these aspects include descriptions of journeys pilot books bilingual word lists shipwrecks monastic documents but as the opening paper shows the range of such sources can be far wider than generally supposed The contributors highlight road and travel conditions for horses and humans types of ships and speed of sea journeys the nature of trade in the Mediterranean the continuity of pilgrimage to the Holy Land attitudes toward travel Patterns of communication in the Mediterranean are revealed through distribution of ceramic finds letter collections and the spread of the plague TEACHING ENGLISH, LANGUAGE AND LITERACY Dominic Wyse,Russell Jones,Helen Bradford,Mary Anne Wolpert,2004-11-23 This fully updated second edition of Teaching English Language and Literacy is an essential introduction for anyone learning to teach English at primary school level Designed for students on initial teacher training courses but also of great use to those teachers wanting to keep pace with the latest developments in their specialist subject The book covers the theory and practice of teaching English language and literacy and includes comprehensive analysis of the Primary National Strategy PNS Literacy Framework Each chapter has a specific glossary to explain terms and gives suggestions for further reading This second edition covers key areas that students teachers and English co ordinators have to manage and includes advice on developing reading including advice on choosing texts and the role of phonics improving writing skills including advice on grammar and punctuation planning and assessing speaking and listening lessons working effectively with pupils who are multilingual understanding historical developments in the subject the latest thinking in educational policy and practice the use of multimedia maintaining good home school links gender and the teaching of English language and literacy All these chapters include clear examples of practice coverage of key issues analysis of research and reflections on national policy to encourage the best possible response to the demands of the National Curriculum Market failure? Great Britain: Parliament: House of Commons: Communities and Local Government Committee,2009-07-23 The Committee undertook this inquiry into traditional retail markets to determine whether local authorities and central government should be doing more to support them The Committee has come to appreciate the complex and diverse nature of the traditional retail markets sector A significant number of all types of markets continue to thrive but the number in decline appears to be greater than the number that is not There are a number of reasons for the decline the most significant being increased competition from supermarkets other alternative cheap retail outlets and the internet Nevertheless a growing number of markets are adapting successfully to change Local authorities and central government should care about markets because of the multi faceted nature of the benefits that successful markets can bring to local towns and communities The report identifies five key benefits economic social eg in encouraging social cohesion assisting the regeneration of town centres promoting healthy eating and reducing environmental impacts in the retail sector On finance and management the report notes lessons from elsewhere in Europe identifies best practice and recommends that councils consider using prudential borrowing market champions at a senior level within the council and co operation with the private sector The report also addresses the challenges facing medium and small town councils seeking to keep smaller local markets alive the need for better promotion and recruitment and training for existing traders and market managers the strategic role of central government

In Search of Hospitality Conrad Lashley, Alison Morrison, 2013-10-11 In Search of Hospitality is a unique contribution to the study of hospitality exploring the practice of hospitality across disciplines and adopting an international perspective where appropriate In Search of Hospitality brings together an extraordinary collection of leading researches and writers in hospitality sociology philosophy and social history providing a truly global perspective on hospitality focuses the study of hospitality across the range of human social and economic settings provides a reference point for the future development of hospitality as an academic discipline This text is ideal for students and academics in both the applied fields of hospitality and tourism studies and general academic fields in business studies and behavioral sciences For practitioners in hospitality leisure and tourism businesses the text provides a provocative and informative guide to understanding and providing hospitality in commercial contexts

Eating and Believing David Grumett, Rachel Muers, 2011-11-03 What are the links between people s beliefs and the foods they choose to eat In the modern Western world dietary choices are a topic of ethical and political debate but how can centuries of Christian thought and practice also inform them And how do reasons for abstaining from particular foods in the modern world compare with earlier ones This book will shed new light on modern vegetarianism and related forms of dietary choice by situating them in the context of historic Christian practice It will show how the theological significance of embodied practice may be retrieved and reconceived in the present day Food and diet is a neglected area of Christian theology and Christianity is conspicuous among the modern world s religions in having few dietary rules or customs Yet historically food and the practices surrounding it have significantly shaped Christian lives and identities This collection prepared collaboratively includes contributions on the relationship between Christian beliefs and food practices in specific historical contexts It considers the relationship between eating and believing from non Christian perspectives that have in turn shaped Christian attitudes and practices It also examines ethical arguments about vegetarianism and their significance for emerging Christian theologies of food Media Studies Paul Marris, Sue Thornham, 2000-03 Media Studies A Reader provides a thorough introduction to the full range of theoretical perspectives on the mass media from the past thirty years Ranging from the arguments between the American mass communication tradition and the Europe centered Frankfurt School of the 1940s to the analyses of communication technologies by Marshall McLuhan and Raymond Williams in the 1960s Media Studies A Reader maps the mass media field its varied and often conflicting histories and its current debates Sixty five articles provide comprehensive coverage of all the main theorists and approaches The first half Studying the Media explores in detail three core elements of media studies production and regulation of mass media media texts and reception and consumption of media The second half brings together concrete examples of how theoretical debates can be realized in a series of case studies on soap operas the news and advertising A general introduction and introductions to each section summarize and contextualize the debates Contributors include Theodor W Adorno Marshal McLuhan Raymond Williams Stuart Hall Annette Kuhn J rgen Habermas John Fiske Richard Dyer Niki Strange Danae Clark Angela McRobbie Bill Nichols Lynne Joyrich David Morley Ien Ang Janice Radway Henry Jenkins Tania Modleski Anne McClintock Sadie Plant The Pleasures and Horrors of Eating Marion Gymnich, 2010-09-15 Browsing through books and TV channels we find people pre occupied with eating cooking and competing with chefs Eating and food in today s media have become a form of entertainment and art A survey of literary history and culture shows to what extent eating used to be closely related to all areas of human life to religion eroticism and even to death In this volume early modern ideas of feasting banqueting and culinary pleasures are juxtaposed with post 18th and 19th century concepts in which the intake of food is increasingly subjected to moral theological and economic reservations In a wide range of essays various images rhetorics and poetics of plenty are not only contrasted with the horrors of gluttony they are also seen in the context of modern phenomena such as the anorexic body or the gourmandizing b te humaine It is this vexing binary approach to eating and food which this volume traces within a wide chronological framework and which is at the core not only of literature art and film but also of a flourishing popular culture
