This volume collects together core papers by Richard K Larson developing what has since come to be known as the VP Shell or Split VP analysis of sentential structure The volume includes five previously published papers together with two major unpublished works from the same period Light Predicate Raising 1989 which explores the interesting consequences of a leftward raising analysis of NP Shift phenomena and The Projection of DP and DegP 1991 which extends the shell approach to the projection of nominal and adjectival structure showing how projection can be handled in a uniform way In addition to published unpublished and limited distribution work the volume includes extensive new introductory material The general introduction traces the conceptual roots of VP Shells and its problems in the face of subsequent developments in theory and offers an updated form compatible with modern Minimalist syntactic analysis The section introductions to the material on datives complex predicates and nominals show how the updated form of shell theory applies in the empirical domains where it was originally developed

The King's Peace Lisa Ford, 2021-08-10 During the Age of Revolution the British Crown responded to crises in its colonies with a heavy hand Lisa Ford shows how imperial peacekeeping methods which blurred the line between the rule of law and the rule of the sword transformed the imperial constitution and corroded colonial subjectivity

Military Intervention in Democratic Societies Peter J. Rowe, Christopher J. Whelan, 2021-05-30 This book first published in 1985 provides a comprehensive treatment of the role of the military within civil society With analysis from a policing and military viewpoint both rarely available in public and legal and historical perspectives this book sheds valuable light both on the role of the law in democratic societies and on the way the balance between the state and civil liberties has been struck
