Martel, 2008 From skilled weekend warriors to internationally recognized stars of the professional adventure game Lynn Martel has interviewed dozens of the most dynamic creative and accomplished self propelled adventurers of our time In

Expedition to the Edge Stories of Worldwide Adventure Martel has assembled 59 compelling and entertaining stories that uniquely capture the exploits the hardships the fears and the personal insights of a virtual who's who of contemporary adventurers as they explore remote mountain landscapes from the Rockies to Pakistan to Antarctica Through candid and revealing conversations Martel captures the joys the motivations and the revelations of top climbers Sonnie Trotter Sean Isaac Raphael Slawinski and Steph Davis Himalayan alpinists Carlos Buhler Marko Prezelj and Barry Blanchard record setting paraglider Will Gadd Everest skier Kit Deslauriers the conservationist duo Karsten Heuer and Leanne Allison as they follow a caribou herd for five months on foot across the Yukon and Colin Angus on his two year quest to become the first person to circumnavigate the world by human power The Sunlit Summit Robin Lloyd-Jones, 2013-08-15 William Hutchison Murray 1913 1996 was one of Scotland's most distinguished climbers in the years before and after the Second World War As a prisoner of war in Italy he wrote his first classic book Mountaineering in Scotland on rough toilet paper which was confiscated and destroyed by the Gestapo The rewritten version was published in 1947 and followed by the now equally famous Undiscovered Scotland In 1951 he was deputy leader to Eric Shipton on the Everest Reconnaissance Expedition which discovered the eventual successful route which would be climbed by Hilary and Tensing From the 1960s onwards he was heavily involved in conservation campaigns and his book Highland Landscape commissioned by the National Trust for Scotland identified areas of outstanding beauty that should be protected It proved to be extremely influential In 1966 he was awarded an OBE as he pursued a life of service as is well illustrated by the various posts he held Commissioner for the Countryside Commission for Scotland 1968 1980 President of the Scottish Mountaineering Club 1962 1964 and of the Ramblers Association Scotland 1966 82 Chairman of Scottish Countryside Activities Council 1967 82 Vice President of the Alpine Club 1971 72 President of Mountaineering Council of Scotland 1972 75 He was a prolific author but a proper understanding of his life and work requires that we appreciate that his driving force was a quest to achieve inner purification that would lead him to oneness with Truth and Beauty For many years the climber author and teacher Robin Lloyd Jones above has been researching the life and work of Bill Murray and working steadily on this biography It is not only a triumph of fine writing and interest but a worthy accolade for this great man Lonely Planet Scotland's Highlands & Islands Neil Wilson, Andy Symington, 2021-10 Lonely Planet's Scotland's Highlands all with your trusted travel companion Get to the heart of the Highlands it's in every traveller's hands It's on mobile phones It's on the Internet It's everywhere and it's telling entire generations of people how to travel the world Fairfax Media Australia The Munros and Tops Chris Townsend, 2013-05-24 When Chris Townsend reached the summit of Ben Hope in Sutherland he walked his way into the record books After 118 days in which he had covered more than 1 700 miles and climbed over 575 000 feet he had completed the first single continuous journey of all 277 Munros and 240 Tops in the Scottish Highlands This is the story of that remarkable walk from the start on Ben More on the Isle of Mull through to the finish the equivalent of climbing Mount Everest 18 times For the

author the real enjoyment of the walk was not in counting up the summits or the miles but in spending week after week in the hills and living in the wilds In THE MUNROS AND TOPS Chris Townsend recalls the joys of observing the birds and animals the trees and flowers the changing shapes of the hills and the play of light on their slopes He writes about the complexities of route finding and the challenge of rugged terrain and of coping with often atrocious weather conditions Illustrated with photographs taken during the walk this is a stirring account of a unique achievement Winter Climbs: Ben Nevis and Glen Coe Mike Pescod, 2022-11-15 Ben Nevis and Glen Coe remain at the forefront of Scottish winter climbing and hold their place on the world stage of climbing The classic climbs are highly regarded objectives This selection of the best climbs across the area is enough to offer any climber a lifetime of inspiration This eighth edition of Cicerone's classic guide is the first guide to categorise every climb and to describe in detail how they form in order to help climbers choose the best route and judge the climbing conditions Being in the right place at the right time is a major part of winter climbing and this book will guide you through the decision making process to make more expeditions successful With snow ice and mixed routes ranging from grade I introductory ascents to extreme test pieces including the hardest traditional winter climb in the world there are routes to suit all abilities and preferences plus advice to help you select an appropriate route for the prevailing conditions Of Bens, Glens and Rambling Auld Men Robert Scott, Gordon Nicol, 2015-05-28 This starts with the early post WWII years when Robert and Gordon as young men were first attracted to the outdoors They hiked and climbed in the mountains of the Scottish Highlands and often slept in caves barns bothies and tents in both summer and winter They made friends and climbed with many of the emerging group of mainly working class rock climbers who were pioneering ascents of the cliffs and gullies in Glencoe and Ben Nevis at that time Their week end adventures had them ranging across the wild moors glens and mountains in all seasons and in all weathers As the years passed their lives changed One became a youth hostel warden in N W Scotland later becoming a gamekeeper and ghillie on an estate in Assynt The other went overseas as a teacher first to Algeria then to Saudi Arabia and finally Brunei S E Asia where he stayed for nearly thirty years The two men lost touch with each other for over forty years At that point they met again and while recalling their youthful ramblings and catching up on one another's later adventures came to realise the uniqueness of their lives From these two kinds of rambling comes this fascinating book
