Scotland Yesterday:

Scotland Today and Yesterday John MacKay, 2024-12-15 This book is the story of a changing Scotland as it was heard and seen by the people of Scotland We all may have our ideas about where we are headed as nation and a society but none of us knows That makes what lies ahead so fascinating Just like what s gone before JOHN MacKAY John MacKay is one of Scotland s best known broadcasters His career as a reporter anchor and presenter has spanned from the Thatcher Years to the Independence Referendum and beyond MacKay has been witness to the major stories in the country s recent past There have been the tragedies of Lockerbie Dunblane and Clutha sporting triumphs and tears the opening of the new Scottish Parliament the drama of parliamentary elections and referendums interviews with Prime Ministers and First Ministers and the death of Donald Dewar From being in a room with a grizzly bear to trying to calm an irate and topless Alex Salmond MacKay s career has been nothing if not varied Using archive scripts interview transcripts recollections and personal diaries he tells the story of one of the most tumultuous periods in Scotland s peacetime history Education in Scotland, Yesterday and Today May Mackintosh, 1962 Bad News (Routledge Revivals) Peter Beharrell, Howard Davis, John Eldridge, John Hewitt, Jean Hart, Gregg Philo, Paul Walton, Brian Winston, 2009-10-15 It is a commonly held belief that television news in Britain on whatever channel is more objective more trustworthy more neutral than press reporting The illusion is exploded in this controversial study by the Glasgow University Media Group originally published in 1976 The authors undertook an exhaustive monitoring of all television broadcasts over 6 months from January to June 1975 with particular focus upon industrial news broadcasts the TUC strikes and industrial action business and economic affairs Their analysis showed how television news favours certain individuals by giving them more time and status But their findings did not merely deny the neutrality of the news they gave a new insight into the picture of industrial society that TV news constructs Scotland Rosemary Goring, 2009-12-29 A spirited collection of witnessing from all the periods of Scottish history in the words of Cromwell to Conan Doyle poets to nurses to warriors The New York Review of Books This is a vivid wide ranging account of Scotland s history composed of numerous stories and observations by those who experienced it firsthand through the centuries Contributors range from Tacitus Mary Queen of Scots and Oliver Cromwell to Adam Smith David Livingstone and Billy Connolly These include not only historic moments from Bannockburn to the opening of the new Parliament in 1999 but also testimonies like that of the eight year old factory worker who was dangled by his ear out of a third floor window for making a mistake the survivors of the 1746 Battle of Culloden who wished perhaps that they had died on the field John Logie Baird inventor of television and great writers including Arthur Conan Doyle Robert Louis Stevenson and the editor of Encyclopedia Britannica From the battlefield to the sports field this is living accessible history told by criminals servants housewives poets journalists nurses prisoners comedians and many more Notes of a Newsman John MacKay, 2015-09-01 As a young reporter John MacKay took the first calls on the Lockerbie Bombing As a news anchor he conducted the final TV

interviews of the Yes and No campaigns in Scotland's Referendum His journey in journalism has taken him to the key events through the most dramatic decades of Scotland's peacetime history Using contemporary scripts transcripts of significant interviews diaries and recollections he charts Scotland's transformation as a society and as a nation The British Journal of Astrology, 1926 Yesterday's Words Marijke Mooijaart, Marijke van der Wal, 2021-02-03 Yesterday's Words Contemporary Current and Future Lexicography reflects the main issues of scholarly discussion in the fields of historical lexicography and lexicology including the historiography of lexicography The state of the art volume offers a wide range of contributions in five chapters After the editors introduction to Yesterday's Words the chapter Dictionaries and Dictionary Makers of Former Ages concentrates on historical lexicography including both the main lexicographical works in English and German and dictionaries of minority languages such as Frisian Welsh Irish and Scots The Vocabulary of the Past discusses historical lexicological and etymological issues such as the results of early language contact in the West Germanic area and in Jamaica in more recent times Researchers involved in ongoing lexicographical projects such as the first dictionary of Old Dutch report on their practice and methodological approach in Current and Future Lexicography and Lexicology Many dictionaries or dictionary research projects discussed in the volume have been or are being carried out in a digital environment In the final chapter Technology of Today for Yesterday's Words special attention is paid to projects in which computer techniques and the development of new applications have been essential The volume is an essential text for lexicographers historiographers and historical linguists Ireland Yesterday and Today Hugh Sutherland, 1909

Yesterday, Today and Tomorrow Hanna Segal, 2007-08-07 What is the role of psychoanalysis in today's world Yesterday Today and Tomorrow presents a selection of papers written by Hanna Segal The collection introduces the reader to a wide spectrum of insights into psychoanalysis ranging from current thoughts on the nature of dreaming to new ideas about vision and disillusionment Her long interest in factors affecting war is pursued in her examination of the psychotic factors symbolic significance and psychological impact of the events of September the 11th and the ensuing war on Iraq The second half of the book discusses Segal's presentations to conferences and symposia from 1969 2000 this material is split into six sections Models of the mind and mental processes Psychoanalytic technique Segal on Klein Segal on Bion Envy and narcissism Interviews Yesterday Today and Tomorrow is a masterly contribution to the field Segal's clarity of thought and striking clinical illustrations make the book accessible to those new to the field as well as those acquainted with her seminal work

Scotland's Referendum and the Media Neil Blain, 2016-02-12 After the Referendum on whether Scotland should become an independent country in September 2014 and following a momentous mobilisation of voters by both the Yes and No campaigns Scotland's political environment has been fundamentally energised But how was the Referendum campaign reported and structured in the media in Scotland the wider United Kingdom and in other parts of the world and was it a matter of construction rather than representation In this book scholars commentators and journalists from Britain Europe and beyond examine how the media across the world presented the debate itself and the shifting nature of Scottish and British identity which that debate revealed Several of the contributors also explore how the emphases and constructions which were put on the debate in their particular countries illuminated these countries own responses to nationalism and separatism The consequences of the Referendum s No result are traced in the media through until the May general election of 2015 London Calling ,1947 Kingdom Come Rob Murphy,2011-10-04 2015 The United Kingdoms just discovered enough oil to guarantee prosperity for the next 100 years The Government sees this as the final cog in its project to make the United Kingdom the enterprise capital of the world and to restore the countrys greatness The only problem is that most of the oil lies off Scotland and Wales And the Scots and Welsh want their share of the bonanza Over the next six years the United Kingdom descends into a spiral of conflict in which old nationalisms re emerge and threaten to drag in European neighbours and the United States as the violence spills over beyond the countrys boundaries Media, Knowledge and
