their emergence into big people Writing was the forum through which she best expressed herself the same as music is for a musician In her earliest writings and diaries she stated her desires to be a writer Her opinions were carefully thoughtful erudite and tactfully voiced The only time I remember that she got her dander up and went on an all out crusade was when she got wind that the town leaders were planning to have an enormous beautiful oak tree behind the Chamber of Commerce cut down They lost she won and the tree is standing today She loved to read and kept lists of books she devoured sometimes over a hundred in a years span Yet her own mother was opposed to education beyond the eighth grade for a farm girl and was very much disapproving of her reading novels even the writings by Dickens It was her father who encouraged her education and her love of books and writing She was the kind of person who looked for the good in things in people in nature and in life Although she had periods of worry and depression she never let them slow her down The reasoning behind her positive outlook which she described to me during one of my down times was pragmatic and positive why choose to dwell on the hurtful and the bad when one can live much more effectively by dwelling on the beautiful the exciting and the good of life She grew up during Womens Suffrage As an early feminist she insisted on fairness in all things for women as for men yet in her own life she was comfortable with first being a had working housewife and mother and being a civic leader and writer second Among her homespun articles she also wrote blistering articles against the treatment of Jews and others during World War II and against bigotry during the early days of desegregation The n word was certainly not permitted in her home I remember her as a wise person On one occasion when two of her children were arguing over splitting up a remaining chunk of cake she utilized the King Solomon ploy by allowing one to make the slice and the other to take the first piece Of course the two pieces were precisely identical Music was a part of our lives with Classic Crib Quilts and How to Make Them Thos.
