

I carry in

I've learned to pay attention. Large and small moments, words and action, time, all have weight. My life isn't perfect, I'm flawed and while so much of life can be hard and ugly, I see and feel wonderful things. The fact that I can love and be loved is not something that I take for granted. My girls, I see the wonderful young women they're becoming and at the same time I can almost feel still feel the weight of them in my arms, see their nurse drunk faces. My husband who is still my very favorite person, who truly knows me better than any other person and still likes me. Montana, best dog ever. I'm thankful for these things daily. I picture myself on a waterfront or gazing at the night sky, because those moments where I can just be and feel at peace, so satisfying. All the words I've read, that have amused, or touched, or taught me, or made me look at something from a new perspective, the music that has uplifted, been cathartic, made me shake my butt, or taken me back to days of old, I treasure it.

In my heart, I carry all these things.
