Green,2023-05-15 The Spirit and the Screen engages contemporary films from the perspective of pneumatology to give theologies of culture fruitful new perspectives that begin with the Spirit rather than other common theological contact points Christology anthropology theological ethics creation eschatology etc This book explores pertinent pneumatological issues that arise in film as well as literary devices that draw allusions to the Spirit It offers three main contributions first it explores how Christian understandings of the person and work of the Spirit illuminate the nature of film and film making second it shows that there are in fact Spirit figures in film as distinct from but inseparable from Christ figures even if sometimes they re not intended as such Spirit led characters are moved to act prophetically against their inclinations and in excess of their skill or knowledge and with eccentric life giving creativity third it identifies subtle and explicit symbolizations of the Spirit in
