Scribes Online John Ost,1999 Digital Reading and Writing in Composition Studies Mary R. Lamb,Jennifer M. Parrott,2019-03-13 As digital reading has become more productive and active the lines between reading and writing become more blurred This book offers both an exploration of collaborative reading and pedagogical strategies for teaching reading and writing that reflect the realities of digital literacies This edited scholarly collection offers strategies for teaching reading and writing that highlight the possibilities opportunities and complexities of digital literacies Part 1 explores reading and writing that happen digitally and offers frameworks for thinking about this process Part 2 focuses on strategies for the classroom by applying reading theories design principles and rhetorical concepts to instruction Part 3 introduces various disciplinary implications for this blended approach to writing instruction What is emerging is new theories and practices of reading in both print and digital spaces theories that account for how diverse student readers encounter and engage digital texts This collection contributes to this work by offering strategies for sustaining reading and cultivating writing in this landscape of changing digital literacies The book is essential for the professional development of beginning teachers who will appreciate the historical and bibliographic overview as well as classroom strategies and for busy veteran teachers who will gain updated knowledge and a renewed commitment to teaching an array of literacy skills It will be ideal for graduate seminars in composition theory and pedagogy both undergraduate and graduate and teacher education courses and will be key reading for scholars in rhetoric and composition interested in composition history assessment communication studies and literature pedagogy Research Writing Rewired Dawn Reed,Troy Hicks,2015-10-22 Our students are online constantly and yet research shows that only half of teachers say digital tools make writing instruction easier Research Writing Rewired seeks to turn that statistic upside down Or rather upside right If we want to ready students for a globalized world 100% of teachers ought to consider technology an asset to any kind of writing assert authors Dawn Reed and Troy Hicks But the main wiring still has to be the ELA standards and the essential questions at the heart of each content area To that end the authors show you how to use digital tools within a multi week inquiry unit to increase students engagement as they write to learn and share knowledge Their book a clear model for tech rich research writing that will inform your own inquiry driven units Guiding components include An inquiry based technology rich unit on identity and culture that provides learners with opportunities to engage with the very same issues that are written about and discussed by citizens of a global society 28 model lessons and a framework including extensions tech tips and activities that blend print image apps and video so students build multi literacy skills day by day Recurring use of best practices like formative assessment close reading think alouds and teaching key skills including analyzing and synthesizing annotating checking credibility of sources discussion and writing about reading Dozens of lessons and activities built around students favorite technology tools and online destinations including Citelighter Smore ThingLink Padlet and Cazles Animoto Mural ly and getLoupe Genius and Lit Genius Now

Comment You Voices QR codes that take you to video clips on a companion website so you can see the teaching techniques and digital tools in action It s up to us to make the digital learning in school a lot more like the digital learning we all do in life Research Writing Rewired shows us how to channel students passion for digital communication into meeting ELA goals

Exploring Technology for Writing and Writing Instruction Pytash, Kristine E.,2013-07-31 As digital technologies continue to develop and evolve an understanding of what it means to be technologically literate must also be redefined Students regularly make use of digital technologies to construct written text both in and out of the classroom and for modern writing instruction to be successful educators must adapt to meet this new dichotomy Exploring Technology for Writing and Writing Instruction examines the use of writing technologies in early childhood elementary secondary and post secondary classrooms as well as in professional development contexts This book provides researchers scholars students educators and professionals around the world with access to the latest knowledge on writing technology and methods for its use in the classroom

Taking Flight With OWLs James A. Inman,Donna Sewell,2000 Examines computer technology use in writing centers to move beyond anecdotal evidence for implementing computer tech in writing centers Presents carefully considered studies that theorize the move to computer tech examine tech use in practice

Education in Cyberspace Sian Bayne,Ray Land,2013-05-13 The use of online learning environments is now widespread and there is a wealth of literature providing practical advice on how to teach online develop courses and ensure effective pedagogical practice What has been frequently overlooked is the insight offered by cyberspace theory which considers broader social cultural and theoretical contexts within which new technologies and learning models are situated This book provides a fresh perspective on current thinking in e learning It challenges orthodox assumptions about the role of technology in the teaching and learning of the future and explores more varied and wider reaching conceptual frameworks for learning in cyberspace Featuring the contributions of respected and experienced experts with a wide range of perspectives Education in Cyberspace will be valued by anyone closely involved in the theory of e learning and education

Writing Across Distances and Disciplines Joyce Magnotto Neff,Carl Whithaus,2009-03-04 Writing Across Distances and Disciplines addresses questions that cross borders between onsite hybrid and distributed learning environments between higher education and the workplace and between distance education and composition pedagogy This groundbreaking volume raises critical issues clarifies key terms reviews history and theory analyzes current research reconsiders pedagogy explores specific applications of WAC and WID in distributed environments and considers what business and education might teach one another about writing and learning Exploring the intersection of writing across the curriculum composition studies and distance learning it provides an in depth look at issues of importance to students faculty and administrators regarding the technological future of writing and learning in higher education

Electronic Literacies Mark Warschauer,1998-11-01 Electronic Literacies is an insightful study of the challenges and contradictions that arise as culturally and linguistically diverse learners engage in new language and literacy practices in online environments The role of the Internet in changing literacy and education has been a topic of much speculation but very little concrete research This book is one of the first attempts to document the role of the Internet and other new digital technologies in the development of language and literacy Warschauer looks at how the nature of reading and writing is changing and how those changes are being addressed in the classroom His focus is on the experiences of culturally and linguistically diverse learners who are at special risk of being marginalized from the information society Based on a two year ethnographic study of the uses of the Internet in four language and writing classrooms in the state of Hawai i a Hawaiian language class of Native Hawaiian students seeking to revitalize their language and culture an ESL class of students from Pacific Island and Latin American countries an ESL class of students from Asian countries and an English composition class of working class students from diverse ethnic backgrounds the book includes data from interviews with students and teachers classroom observations and analysis of student texts This rich ethnographic data is combined with theories from a broad range of disciplines to develop conclusions about the relationship of technology to language literacy education and culture Central to Warschauer s discussion and conclusions is how contradictions of language culture and class affect the impact of Internet based education While Hawai i is a special place the issues confronted here are similar in many ways to those that exist throughout the United States and many other countries How to provide culturally and linguistically diverse students traditionally on the educational and technological margins with the literacies they need to fully participate in public community and economic life in the 21st century The Open Access version of this book available at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com> has been made available under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives CC BY NC ND 4 0 license Create, Compose, Connect! Jeremy Hyler, Troy Hicks, 2014-04-16 Find out how to incorporate digital tools into your English language arts class to improve students reading writing listening and speaking skills Authors Jeremy Hyler and Troy Hicks show you that technology is not just about making a lesson engaging it s about helping students become effective creators and consumers of information in today s fast paced world You ll learn how to use mobile technologies to teach narrative informational and argument writing as well as visual literacy and multimodal research Each chapter is filled with exciting lesson plans and tech tool suggestions that you can take back to your own classroom immediately See Jeremy Hyler s TEDx <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=WHtXIjvSSAA> Virtual Mentoring for K-12 Literacy Instruction Paula Saine, 2018-10-12 There is no research based text that provides a model for teaching and learning in a virtual environment with literacy learners Therefore this book will focus on preparing challenging students to be successful independent learners for the twenty first century This will involve one where students are constructing their own meaning not only within the traditional brick and mortar environment with the assistant of the classroom teacher but also in an online environment scaffolded by a virtual tutor Today virtual environments are a common alternative space for students in K 12 to engage in meaningful online literacy learning with their tutors Boxie 2004 Hurst 2007 Williams Witte 2007

Handbook of Research on Digital Tools for Writing Instruction in K-12 Settings Anderson, Rebecca S., Mims, Clif, 2014-04-30 More emphasis is being placed on writing instruction in K 12 schools than ever before With the growing number of digital tools in the classroom it is important that K 12 teachers learn how to use these tools to effectively teach writing in all content areas The Handbook of Research on Digital Tools for Writing Instruction in K 12 Settings will provide research about how students use digital tools to write both in and out of school settings as well as discuss issues and concerns related to the use of these learning methods This publication is beneficial to educators professionals and researchers working in the field of K 12 and teacher education Remote Learning Paula Saine, 2021-12-08 Remote Learning Engaging in K 12 Literacy Instruction is about teacher candidates engaging K 12 students in remote literacy instruction during their teacher preparation programs This book includes new case studies for tutoring diverse students remotely with diverse literacy learning needs that ranges from English Language Learners to students with special needs It also includes remote teaching in diverse settings such as intervention programs virtual and private schools and so forth Many more web meeting tools such as Adobe Connect Zoom Google Classroom made it possible for synchronous tutoring And be sure to check out the wide range of digital resources that supported K 12 remote literacy instruction The digital tools included CommonLit IXL RoomRecess ABC Mouse and more Literacy Online Myron C. Tuman, 1992 In the midst of ideological debates in the 1980s concerning literacy an entirely different kind of revolution in the practice of literacy was occurring Everyone students teachers authors and their readers was starting to use computers to compose texts The very notions of reading and writing were being altered with the use of online library catalogues computer databases and electronic mail With access to laser printing and desktop publishing software writers were also able to control not only what they said but how it looked Skim, Dive, Surface Jenae Cohn, 2021-06 Students are reading on screens more than ever how can we teach them to be better digital readers E-tivities Gilly Salmon, 2006
