Security for Object-Oriented Systems

Bhavani Thuraisingham, Ravi Sandhu, T.C. Ting, 2013-06-29 This volume contains papers from the OOPSLA 93 Conference Workshop on Security for Object Oriented Systems held in Washington DC USA on 26 September 1993 The workshop addressed the issue of how to introduce an acceptable level of security into object oriented systems as the use of such systems becomes increasingly widespread The topic is approached from two different but complementary viewpoints the incorporation of security into object oriented systems and the use of object oriented design and modelling techniques for designing secure applications The papers cover a variety of issues relating to both mandatory and discretionary security including security facilities of PCTE information flow control the design of multilevel secure data models and secure database interoperation via role translation The resulting volume provides a comprehensive overview of current work in this important area of research

Protection, Security, and Safeguards Dale L. June, 2000-06-28 Our need for security has not waned since the dawn of civilization it has only increased and become more complicated Protection Security and Safeguards Practical Approaches and Perspectives draws on the security prowess of former secret service agents and other notable security professionals as the authors touch on nearly every facet of the industry Written to satisfy the practical needs of anyone in the business of protection the text covers areas such as personal protection security in the workplace residence security healthcare security aviation security and many more Special chapters detailing the experiences of an identity theft victim as well as a woman who must employ 24 hour security to insure she doesn't harm others cover security issues from the client's viewpoint Other chapters on quick threat assessment and defensive tactics will help agents protect themselves and their clients Although other publications discuss and analyze security none focus on both the professional and personal perspectives of this critical industry Editor Dale L. June shares his vast knowledge and lucid insight into the business of protection A former U S Secret Service agent in the Presidential Protection Division he also worked with the U S Customs Service as a terrorism intelligence specialist and was a former police officer He has more than 30 years experience in various fields of protection and security including owning and operating an executive protection and security consulting business He teaches university courses as well as security related topics at private vocational academies
