Service-book for Sunday Schools, Day Schools, Guilds, Brotherhoods, Etc Charles Lewis Hutchins,1893

Understanding the Doctrine of the Trinity John Weekes,2001-04-29 In writing this book I was mindful of the many areas of conflict that exist between Christian and Christian Christian and Jew Christian and Jehovah Witness Members of The Church of Latter Day Saints and others The purpose was to examine critically some of the main areas of conflict and measure them against what the bible has to say concerning the Godhead Father Son and Holy Spirit and to arrive at a reasonable honest and dispassionate conclusion One very clear and positive way was to show that Jesus that great and unusual man of history was indeed a man from heaven and is in fact God incarnate Even those who have not accepted Jesus as God or equal with God must admit that he was like no other He was born in a lowly stable and died a convicted felon Yet the world in short order turned to him Even the mighty Roman Empire which initially haunted and crucified hanged and hounded Christians eventually turned to Him and acknowledged Him The evidence then is that Jesus is someone special The Jewish ruler Nichodemus acknowledged he was from God It follows therefore that if Jesus was from God then it is reasonable to accept that he was a person of truth and integrity Yet Jesus said he was God God seems to have been well pleased with Jesus Is it not reasonable therefore to accept Jesus at His word Commonsense and logic answers a resounding Yes The History of the Black Watch (Royal Highland Regiment) of Canada: 3-Volume Set, 1759-2021 Roman Johann Jarymowycz,2023-05-15 In three volumes spanning centuries Lieutenant Colonel Roman Jarymowycz recounts the story of the Black Watch Royal Highland Regiment of Canada the oldest Highland regiment in the country He traces its history from the roots when soldiers settlers and militia volunteers rallied to defend the southern borders of their adopted country against invasion from the United States Drawing on diaries letters classified documents and the regimental archive Jarymowycz weaves the strands of a complex story into an epic narrative of a resolute collective of officers and men Since its birth in 1862 as the 5th Battalion Volunteer Militia Rifles of Canada thousands of citizens have served in the unit In addition to securing Canada s borders Black Watch soldiers have fought in the South African War both world wars and the Korean War They have bolstered NATO operations and United Nations peacekeeping missions and they provided aid to the civil power during the 1997 Quebec and Eastern Ontario ice storm disaster and the COVID 19 pandemic The Montreal based battalion continues to serve Canada in its traditional role as a reserve infantry unit and to this day Black Watch soldiers frequently deploy on dangerous missions abroad In volume 1 readers will learn of the Black Watch s origins its first foreign enterprise the South African War and a detailed account of the Great War where the regiment evolved from the 5th Royal Highlanders to become the Canadian Black Watch as they were known throughout the empire The Montreal regiment trained four battalions for overseas duty three of which participated in the greatest battles of the First World War an unprecedented accomplishment This volume not only offers a critical analysis of campaigns key actions and tactical evolution but also includes an intimate and compelling account of the sacrifices that forged this extraordinary regiment In volume 2 we are offered the story of the bloody battlefields of the Second World War when the Black Watch joined Commonwealth regiments to defeat the Axis Powers After a quick mobilization in 1939 and a long wait in England the Black Watch experienced a baptism by fire at Dieppe Landing in Normandy after D Day the regiment fought in France Belgium the Netherlands and Germany its distinguished service earning numerous honours As well as discussing these military engagements Jarymowycz reveals the many difficulties with recruiting training recovering from devastating battles communicating with higher command and the quality and scarcity of reinforcements Volume 3 relates the regiment s post Second World War story Canada s commitments to NATO and the United Nations led to the creation of two regular battalions of the Black Watch while retaining the reserve battalion in Montreal From 1953 to 1970 in Korea Germany Cyprus and Canada the regular battalions served with devotion and courage The thousands of men who were based at Camp Aldershot Nova Scotia and the Regimental Depot in Sussex New Brunswick then moved to establish a Regular Force Home Station in the newly constructed Camp Gagetown NB These units earned a reputation second to none in efficiency training fighting ability readiness and strength This monumental history of Canada s oldest Highland regiment is at once a record of Scottish heritage a portrait of Montreal rising as an industrial giant and an examination of the emergence of a military culture from the Western Front
