See How She Runs:

See How She Runs Matthew Costello, 2020-01-18 After the stroke Kate's husband was a different man. Cruel, abusive, violent. Divorce was her only salvation, but not for her daughter and son. By law, they were required to visit their father and endure his terrible rage. So Kate decided to run away. To start a new life for herself and her children. To find safety in the arms of another man. That was when her nightmare really began. The Undertow Jo Baker, 2012-05-15 The American debut by the bestselling author of Longbourn, a vivid, indelibly told novel that follows four generations of a family against the backdrop of a century of turmoil. Gripping. Emotionally powerful. You can't walk away from her book. The New York Times Book Review. The Undertow traces the lives of the Hastings family from the eve of the First World War to the present day. William, a young factory worker preparing to join the navy; his son Billy, who cycles into the D-Day landings; his grandson Will, an Oxford professor in the 1960s; and his great granddaughter Billie, an artist in contemporary London. Here Jo Baker reveals the Hastings legacy of choices made, chances lost, and truths long buried in what is an enthralling story of inheritance, fate, passion, and what it means to truly break free of the past.

Nocturnals Bradford Morrow, 2019-08-20 This spring 2019 edition of Bard College's literary journal explores the fascination and mystery of night through stories, poems, essays, and memoirs. Scheherazade famously spun stories for a thousand and one nights in order to sustain her life. In recognition of how vital it is to voice our own stories, the stellar works collected here include entries by Sallie Tisdale, Rick Moody, Joyce Carol Oates, and many others, addressing our myriad experiences from dusk to daybreak. In this volume, readers will encounter the monster of Kowloon, which relies on the imaginations of children in order to exist; three men embark on a hallucinatory journey into the snowy, pitch-dark night of the soul; Purgatory can be found here, along with ghosts, alternative universes, an East Village bar that doubles as a portal to another life, and a personal chronicle of a visit to Burning Man in Black Rock Desert. Also included are the nightbird, Nycticorax, musical nocturnes, night thoughts at solstice, wheeling galaxies, and the cosmos itself. The pioneering nocturnal photography of George Shiras is celebrated in these pages, and the dichotomous world of night versus day in equatorial Uganda is observed by an ethnographic eye.

Body of a Girl Leah Stewart, 2001-08-01 A powerful, suspenseful debut novel about a young woman whose obsession with a stranger's murder has her venturing into the unknown. In Memphis, where the heat clings heavy like a second skin, it has been a summer of murders. Olivia Dale's job as a novice crime reporter is at once surreal, stepping in and out of strangers' lives with her notebook, and all too real. As she looks down on the twisted body of a young woman who has been kidnapped and gruesomely killed, she wonders if she could have been that girl. As she chases the story, she discovers that Allison Avery, so all-American, so like Olivia in age and looks, was just like her, except wilder. Drawn deep into the shadows and secrets of Allison's life, Olivia becomes caught up in exploring her own wild side and finds herself seduced by a perilous world where her life may be in danger.

XIII Kristina Konstantinova, 2015-03-05 XIII is a collection of short stories that circle around one number and the girl that bears it proudly in black ink under her skin It is a simple roman numeral followed by thirteen lines The lines are all there to represent a story and how a life has been changed Real life is simple There is no climax no great adventure no fighting and explosions around every corner and no magic that will make everything better at the most opportune moment But real life is also hard and impossible to explain Most importantly life continues through the commercials and past the happily ever after Yet there are things in it almost like fiction hard to accept as real And although shown through stories and fantasies there are some things that must always be Such as love pain and obsession After all without all of those how could such a simple number hold so many people captive
