

Though we all have the fear and the seeds of anger within us, we must learn not to water those seeds and instead nourish our positive qualities – those of compassion, understanding, and loving kindness.

The Art of Power Thich Nhat Hanh, 2009-10-13 Power is good for one thing only to increase our happiness and the happiness of others. Being peaceful and happy is the most important thing in our lives and yet most of the time we suffer we run after our cravings we look to the past or the future for our happiness. Turning our conventional understanding of power on its head world renowned Zen master spiritual leader and national bestselling author Thich Nhat Hanh reveals how true power comes from within. What we seek we already have. Whether we want it or not power remains one of the central issues in all of our lives. Every day each of us exercises power in many ways and our every act subtly affects the world we live in. This struggle for control and authority permeates every aspect of our private and public lives preventing us from attaining true happiness. The me first mentality in our culture seeps unnoticed into our decisions and choices. Our bottom line approach to getting ahead may be most visible in the business world but the stress fear and anxiety it causes are being felt by people in all walks of life. With colorful anecdotes precise language and concrete practices Thich Nhat Hanh illustrates how the current understanding of power leads us on a never ending search for external markers like job title or salary. The Art of Power boldly challenges our assumptions and teaches each of us how to access the true power that is within our grasp.

Understanding Our Mind Thich Nhat Hanh, 2002-02-09 Thich Nhat Hanh pulls from 50 classic Buddhist verses to present the basic teachings of Buddhist applied psychology exploring the true nature of our feelings and perceptions. Based on the 50 verses on the nature of consciousness taken from the great 5th century Buddhist master Vasubandhu and the teachings of the Avatamsaka Sutra Thich Nhat Hanh focuses on the direct experience of recognizing embracing and looking deeply into the nature of our feelings and perceptions. Presenting the basic teachings of Buddhist applied psychology Understanding Our Mind shows us how our mind is like a field where every kind of seed is planted seeds of suffering anger happiness and peace. The quality of our life depends on the quality of the seeds in our mind. If we know how to water seeds of joy and transform seeds of suffering then understanding love and compassion will flower. Vietnamese Zen Master Thuong Chieu said When we understand how our mind works the practice becomes easy.
