Seeing When Art And Faith Intersect:

Seeing Douglas Gourley Campbell, 2002 Seeing consists of twenty brief essays about the role of contemporary artists of faith their audience and Christianity These essays bring to discussion topics from postmodernism authenticity and iconoclasm to individualism beauty and truth Each essay focuses on issues that relate to how artists of faith approach their thinking about art how viewers can enhance their experience of artworks and the relationship between Postmodernism and Christianity Campbell explores within the current Postmodernist environment how art and Christianity can be discussed in the present tense and how Art by Contemporary Christians is now a topic for serious discussion that cannot be dismissed as merely an oxymoron These essays bring to discussion issues that have been ignored by mainstream art publications God in the Gallery (Cultural Exegesis) Daniel A. Siedell, 2008-10-01 Is contemporary art a friend or foe of Christianity Art historian critic and curator Daniel Siedell addresses this question and presents a framework for interpreting art from a Christian worldview in God in the Gallery A Christian Embrace of Modern Art As such it is an excellent companion to Francis Schaeffer's classic Art and the Bible Divided into three parts Theology History and Practice God in the Gallery demonstrates that art is in conversation with and not opposed to the Christian faith In addition this book is beautifully enhanced with images from such artists as Andy Warhol Jackson Pollock Enrique Martinez Celaya and others Readers of this book will include professors students artists and anyone interested in Christianity and culture Rethinking Religion in the Theatre of Grotowski Catharine Christof, 2017-03-27 This book opens a new interdisciplinary frontier between religion and theatre studies to illuminate what has been seen as the religious or spiritual nature of Polish theatre director Jerzy Grotowski's work The central argument is that through an embodied materialist approach to religion and through a critical reading of the concepts of the New Age a new understanding of Grotowski and religion can be developed This is a vital reference for academics in both Religion and Theatre Studies that have an interest in the spiritual aspects of Grotowski's work Eliot's Dark Angel : Intersections of Life and Art Ronald Schuchard Goodrich C. White Professor of English Emory University, 1999-09-13 Schuchard's critical study draws upon previously unpublished and uncollected materials in showing how Eliot's personal voice works through the sordid the bawdy the blasphemous and the horrific to create a unique moral world and the only theory of moral criticism in English literature The book also erodes conventional attitudes toward Eliot's intellectual and spiritual development showing how early and consistently his classical and religious sensibility manifests itself in his poetry and criticism The book examines his reading his teaching his bawdy poems and his life long attraction to music halls and other modes of popular culture to show the complex relation between intellectual biography and art Miracles We Have Seen Harley Rotbart, 2016-09-13 This is a book of miracles medical events witnessed by leading physicians for which there is no reasonable medical explanation or if there is the explanation itself is extraordinary These dramatic first person essays detail spectacular serendipities impossible cures breathtaking resuscitations extraordinary awakenings and recovery from unimaginable disasters Still other essays give voice to cases in which the physical aspects were less dramatic than the emotional aspects yet miraculous and transformational for everyone involved Positive impacts left in the wake of even the gravest of tragedies profound triumphs of heart and spirit Preeminent physicians in many specialties including deans and department heads on the faculties of the top university medical schools in the country describe in everyday language and with moving testimony their very personal reactions to these remarkable clinical experiences Among the extraordinary cases poignantly recounted by the physicians witnessing them A priest visiting a hospitalized patient went into cardiac arrest on the elevator which opened up on the cardiac floor right at the foot of the cardiac specialist at just the right moment A tiny premature baby dying from irreversible lung disease despite the most intensive care who recovered almost immediately after being taken from his hospital bed and placed on his mother s chest President John F Kennedy s son Patrick who died shortly after birth and whose disease eventually led to research that saved generations of babies A nine year old boy who was decapitated in a horrific car accident but survived without neurological damage A woman who conceived and delivered a healthy baby despite having had both of her fallopian tubes surgically removed A young man whose only hope for survival was a heart transplant but just at the moment he developed a potentially fatal complication making a transplant impossible his own heart began healing itself A teenage girl near death after contracting full blown rabies who became the first patient ever to recover from that disease after an unexpected visit by Timothy Dolan the man who would go on to become the Archbishop of New York A Manhattan window washer who fell 47 stories and not only became the only person ever to survive a fall from that height but went on to make a full recovery Miracles We Have Seen is a book of inspiration and optimism and a compelling glimpse into the lives of physicians their humanity and determined devotion to their patients and their patients families It reminds us that what we don t know or don t understand isn t necessarily cause for fear and can even be reason for hope Christian Scholar's Review ,2004 Cultural Intersections in Later Chinese Buddhism Marsha Weidner,2001-08-31 In a demonstration of the value of interdisciplinary culture based approaches this collection of essays on later Chinese Buddhism takes us beyond the bedrock subjects of traditional Buddhist historiography scriptures and commentaries sectarian developments lives of notable monks to examine a wide range of extracanonical materials that illuminate cultural manifestations of Buddhism from the Song dynasty 960 1279 through the modern period Straying from well trodden paths the authors often transgress the boundaries of their own disciplines historians address architecture art historians look to politics a specialist in literature treats poetry that offers gendered insights into Buddhist lives The broad based cultural orientation of this volume is predicated on the recognition that art and religion are not closed systems requiring only minimal cross indexing with other social or aesthetic phenomena but constituent elements in interlocking networks of practice and belief Contributors Terese Tse Bartholomew Patricia Berger T Griffith Foulk Beata Grant Kenneth Hammond Amy McNair Daniel B Stevenson Marsha Weidner Ethical Considerations at the Intersection of Psychiatry and
