Seek The Frozen Lands Irish Polar Explorers 17401922:

Seek the Frozen Lands Frank Nugent,2013-09-15 High on any list of Polar explorers would be the names Crozier McClintock McClure and Shackleton But how many know they were all Irish Seek the Frozen Lands unveils an array of Irish heroes largely unknown in modern Ireland The sage begins with Edward Bransfield who made one of the first sightings of the Antarctic in 1820 The story ends with the heroic age of Antarctic exploration and the burial of Shackleton in 1922 in South Georgia Truly a story of heroism drama and tragedy Similar to Tom Crean An Unsung Hero Captain Francis Crozier Last Man Standing Everest Calling Ger McDonnell His Life and His Death on K2 Great Irish Wives Nicola Pierce,2025-09-08

Throughout history the stories of women s lives and work have been overshadowed by those of men Wives especially disappear unacknowledged as patrons and champions of their husband s work as collaborators muses carers and managers of the family domain Great Irish Wives shines a spotlight on ten such wives Matilda Tone Mary O Connell Constance Wilde Charlotte Shaw Emily Shackleton Annette Carson Sin ad de Valera Margaret Clarke George Yeats and Beatrice Behan The men in this book are household names from Wolfe Tone and Daniel O Connell to Oscar Wilde and Brendan Behan and they all have one thing in common they married women who enabled them to pursue their dreams even if that meant courting death or outrage Nicola Pierce tells the stories of these truly remarkable women Tracking the Franklin Expedition of 1845

Stephen Zorn,2023-08-25 The Franklin Northwest Passage Expedition of 1845 is perhaps the greatest disaster in the history of exploration all 129 men vanished as did the expedition s two ships HMS Erebus and Terror Over the next 150 years searchers found bones clothing and a variety of relics Inuit narratives provided some of the details of what happened to the frozen starving sailors after they deserted their ice locked ships in 1848 Then in 2014 and 2016 Canadian researchers found the sunken wrecks not far from the bleak windswept King William Island in the Arctic At last the mystery of the Franklin Expedition would be solved Or would it This book pulls together the various searchers discoveries the many recent scientific studies that shed light on when how and why the men died and whether in extremis they ate each other and illuminates what we know and what we don t and may never know about the fate of the expedition Chasing Ghosts Nicola

Pierce,2020-03-09 An enthralling novel of two intertwining stories based on real events in 19th century Ireland and the Canadian Arctic Two ships Arctic bound HMS Erebus and Terror leave London in 1845 captained by the aging Sir John Franklin How long they ll be gone depends on the ice Meanwhile second in command Francis Crozier worries about their inexperienced crew In Derry little Weesy Coppin dies of a fever but as far as her sister Ann and brother William are concerned her spirit returns to haunt them While an anxious world waits for news of the Arctic explorers the Coppin family try to understand what is going in their home But then one night all is revealed when the truth literally steps out of the shadows

Historical Dictionary of the Discovery and Exploration of the Northwest Passage Alan Day,2006-01-03 The Northwest Passage was repeatedly sought for over four centuries From the first attempt in the late 15th century to Roald Amundsen's famous voyage of 1903-1906 where the feat was first accomplished to expeditions in the late 1940s by the Mounties to discover an even more northern route author Alan Day covers all aspects of the ongoing quest that excited the imagination of the world. This compendium of explorers, navigators and expeditions tackles this broad topic with a convenient but extensive cross-referenced dictionary. A chronology traces the long succession of treks to find the passage the introduction helps explain what motivated them and the bibliography provides a means for those wishing to discover more information on this exciting subject.

Everest Calling Lorna Siggins, 2013-03-08 On 27 May 1993 Dawson Stelfox became the first Irish person to reach the summit of Everest following the route first attempted by Mallory and Irvine in 1924. This updated edition of the 1994 account recalls that groundbreaking success. It also chronicles many achievements since including the first Everest success by an Irishwoman Clare O'Leary and Pat Falvey's ascents by two different routes. In 2012 Irishman Noel Hanna completed his fifth Everest ascent. Other highlights include ascents of Lhotse, Cho Oyu, Kanchenjunga, Broad Peak and K2. Mike Barry became the first Irish person to walk to the South Pole and an Irish crew completed the first east-west circumnavigation of the Arctic in a small yacht. Members of the first Everest expedition still climb and Irish adventurers continue to attempt objectives such as the North Pole on foot. In conclusion, the book reflects on the perspectives of the original eight climbers and on how a trend towards success at the expense of challenge coupled with commercialisation of sport has left its mark on the Himalaya.

Frederick Douglass in Ireland Laurence Fenton, 2014-03-04 When we strove to blot out the stain of slavery and advance the rights of man, President Obama declared in Dublin in 2011, we found common cause with your struggle against oppression. Frederick Douglass, an escaped slave and our great abolitionist, forged an unlikely friendship right here in Dublin with your great liberator Daniel O'Connell. Frederick Douglass arrived in Ireland in the summer of 1845, the start of a two-year lecture tour of Britain and Ireland to champion freedom from slavery. He had been advised to leave America after the publication of his incendiary attack on slavery, Narrative of the Life of Frederick Douglass, An American Slave. Douglass spent four transformative months in Ireland, filling halls with eloquent denunciations of slavery and causing controversy with graphic descriptions of slaves being tortured. He also shared a stage with Daniel O'Connell and took the pledge from the apostle of temperance, Fr. Mathew. Douglass delighted in the openness with which he was received but was shocked at the poverty he encountered. This compelling account of the celebrated escaped slave's tour of Ireland combines a unique insight into the formative years of one of the great figures of nineteenth-century America with a vivid portrait of a country on the brink of famine.

The Routledge International Handbook of Human-Animal Interactions and Anthrozoology Aubrey H. Fine, Megan K. Mueller, Zenithson Y. Ng, Alan M. Beck, Jose M. Peralta, 2023-09-26 This diverse global and interdisciplinary volume explores the existing research practice and ethical issues pertinent to the field of human-animal interactions (HAIs), interventions and anthrozoology focusing on the perceived physical and mental health benefits to humans and the challenges derived from these relationships. The book

begins by exploring the basic theoretical principles of anthrozoology and HAI such as the evolution and history of the field the importance of language the economic costs and current perspectives to physical and mental wellbeing the origins of domestication of animals anthropomorphism and how animals fit into human societies Chapters then move onto practice covering topics such as how animals help childhood and adulthood development pet ownership disability the roles of pets for people with psychiatric disorders the links between animal and domestic abuse and then more widely into the therapeutic roles of animals animal assisted therapies interactions outside the home working animals animals in popular culture and animals in research for leisure and food Including chapters on a wide range of animals from domesticated pets to wildlife this collection examines the benefits yet also reveals the complexity and often dark side of human animal relations Interweaving accessible commentaries with revealing chapters throughout the text this collection would be of great interest to students and practitioners in the fields of mental health psychology veterinary medicine zoology biology social work history and sociology
