Seeking Nontraditional Approaches To Collaborating And Partnering With Industry:

Seeking Nontraditional Approaches to Collaborating and Partnering with Industry, 2002 This report documents the findings of a study to help the Army understand how to better collaborate and partner with industry It expands on a briefing presented to the Assistant Secretary of the Army Acquisition Logistics and Technology ASA ALT in January 2000 describing nontraditional approaches for the Army to follow to collaborate and partner with industry using the concepts of public private partnerships venture capital funding and government corporations The research was sponsored by the Deputy ASA ALT for Plans Programs and Policy and was conducted within RAND Arroyo Center's Force Development and Technology Program The Arroyo Center is a federally funded research and development center sponsored by the United States Army The findings should be of interest to Army audiences concerned with collaborating and partnering with industry and interested in understanding the various means available to the Army to increase such collaborations and partnerships using nontraditional approaches

Seeking Nontraditional Approaches to Collaborating and Partnering with Industry Bruce Held, Kenneth P. Horn, Michael V. Hynes, Christopher Hanks, Jamison Jo Medby, Paul Steinberg, Christopher G. Pernin, 2002

The Army has a growing need to collaborate and partner with industry This document describes three nontraditional approaches to that goal namely 1 forming real estate public private partnerships PPPs 2 using Army venture capital mechanisms as a research and development funding and collaborating tool and 3 spinning off Army activities into federal government corporations FGCs The research shows that while the three concepts appear promising each requires resolution of key issues before it can be seriously considered for implementation

Competition, Choice, and Incentives in Government Programs Albert Morales, John M. Kamensky, 2006 Since the 1980s the language used around market based government has muddled its meaning and polarized its proponents and critics making the topic politicized and controversial Competition Choice and Incentives in Government Programs hopes to reframe competing views of market based government so it is seen not as an ideology but rather as a fact based set of approaches for managing government services and programs more efficiently and effectively
