Perspectives on Contemporary Irish Theatre Anne Etienne, Thierry Dubost, 2017-10-20 This book addresses the notion posed by Thomas Kilroy in his definition of a playwright s creative process We write plays I feel in order to populate the stage It gathers eclectic reflections on contemporary Irish theatre from both Irish theatre practitioners and international academics The eighteen contributions offer innovative perspectives on Irish theatre since the early 1990s up to the present testifying to the development of themes explored by emerging and established playwrights as well as to the revolutions in practices and approaches to the stage that have taken place in the last thirty years This cross disciplinary collection devotes as much attention to contextual questions and approaches to the stage in practice as it does to the play text in its traditional and revised forms The essays and interviews encourage dialectic exchange between analytical studies on contemporary Irish theatre and contributions by theatre practitioners

Women in Irish Drama M. Sihra, 2007-03-14 Featuring original essays by leading scholars in the field this book explores the immense legacy of women playwrights in Irish theatre since the beginning of the Twentieth century Chapters consider the intersecting contexts of gender sexuality and the body in order to investigate the broader cultural political and historical implications of representing woman on the stage In addition a number of essays engage with representations of women by a selection of male playwrights in order to re evaluate familiar contexts and traditions in Irish drama Features a Foreword by Marina Carr and a useful appendix of Irish women playwrights and their works

Women and Embodied Mythmaking in Irish Theatre Shonagh Hill, 2019-08-29 The rich legacy of women's contributions to Irish theatre is traditionally viewed through a male dominated literary canon and mythmaking thus arguably silencing their work In this timely book Shonagh Hill proposes a feminist genealogy which brings new perspectives to women's mythmaking across the twentieth and twenty first centuries The performances considered include the tableaux vivants performed by the Inghinidhe na h-ireann Daughters of Ireland plays written by Alice Milligan Maud Gonne Lady Augusta Gregory Eva Gore Booth Mary Devenport O'Neill Mary Elizabeth Burke Kennedy Paula Meehan Edna O'Brien and Marina Carr as well as plays translated adapted and performed by Olwen Fouere The theatrical work discussed resists the occlusion of women's cultural engagement that results from confinement to idealised myths of femininity This is realised through embodied mythmaking a process which exposes how bodies bear the consequences of these myths while refusing to accept the female body as passive bearer of inscription through the assertion of a creative female corporeality
