Forthcoming Books Rose Army, 1992-10 Voice of the Oppressed in the Language of the Oppressor Patsy J. Daniels, 2013-05-13 This book examines works from twelve authors from colonized cultures who write in English William Butler Yeats James Joyce Joseph Conrad Chinua Achebe Maxine Hong Kingston Amy Tan Toni Morrison Alic Walker Sandra Cisneros Ana Castillo Louise Erdrich and Leslie Marmon Silko The book finds connection among these writers and their respective works Patsy Daniels argues that the thinkers and writers of colonized culture must learn the language of the colonizer and take it back to their own community thus making themselves translators who occupy a manufactured hybrid space between two cultures American Bookseller, 1988 Iskwewak Kah' Ki Yaw Ni Wahkomakanak Janice Acoose, 2016-02-05 Now in its second edition this groundbreaking work of literary and cultural criticism analyzes representations of Indigenous women in Canadian literature By deconstructing stereotypical images of the Indian princess and easy squaw Janice Acoose calls attention to the racist and sexist depictions of Indigenous women in popular literature Blending personal narrative and literary criticism this revised edition draws a strong connection between the persistent negative cultural attitudes fostered by those stereotypical representations and the missing and murdered Indigenous women in Canada Acoose decolonizes written English by interweaving her own story with reflections on the self determination of her female ancestors and by highlighting influential Indigenous female writers who have resisted cultural stereotypes and reclaimed the literary field as their own This important text urges both Indigenous and non Indigenous people to move beyond words to challenge the harmful attitudes that condone violence against Indigenous women Thoroughly updated and featuring new photographs questions for critical thought and a discussion of Indigenous women's literary voices that have emerged in the past twenty years the second edition of Iskwewak is an invaluable resource for students and teachers of Indigenous studies women's studies and literature Louise Erdrich's Love Medicine Hertha Dawn Wong, 2000 This is a casebook on Louise Erdrich's first novel Love Medicine which came out in 1984 to instant national acclaim winning a National Book Circle Critics Award and launching a tetralogy which it would take Erdrich ten years to complete The Voice of Breast Cancer in Medicine and Bioethics Mary C. Rawlinson, Shannon Lundeen, 2006-07-15 Few diseases have made more difference to our understanding of illness the relation of the patient to the physician and other health care professionals and the social context of disease than breast cancer Breast cancer activism has provided a model of public policy advocacy for women as well as for sufferers from other diseases and even in causes unrelated to health In many ways it has become emblematic of issues in women's health This volume offers a discursive analysis of breast cancer From multiple perspectives historical philosophical psychological socio political these essays explore the competing narratives that have made breast cancer a contested site It addresses debates about the autonomy of the patient in relation to the authority of the physician as well as the importance of patient narratives in understanding disease It analyzes the relation between the community and medical practice particularly with regard to the effect of breast cancer activists and feminists on the medical understanding and treatment of breast cancer And it questions the intersection of medical science with political institutions and agencies of public policy in determining priorities of research and strategies of treatment Writing Together, Writing Apart Linda K. Karell,2002-01-01 In this study of collaborative writing in western American literature Linda K Karell asks broad and fruitful questions about how writing in general is produced By examining collaboration both as a process and as a product she challenges the definition of an author as an individual genius who creates original works of art in isolation From a collaborative view what was a fairly direct cause and effect scenario individual author inspiration original literary masterpiece becomes something much less clear An individual is always located within a shifting context of texts from which he or she draws to produce often with substantial and varied support from other writers editors spouses or partners and institutions a work that will be termed original Collaboration insists on recognizing this oft hidden contribution of others as an important component of meaning something our traditional understanding of the author persists in ignoring or displacing Karell provides a close analysis of the various means by which writers work with others to produce their final literary products Methods include traditional joint writing practices such as ghostwriting or edited texts as in the case of Mourning Dove and ethnographer Lucullus McWhorter the incorporation of existing diaries or letters from other writers for example Wallace Stegner s Angle of Repose with Mary Hallock Foote and dual authored texts such as those produced by Louise Erdrich and Michael Dorris By challenging the seductive myth of the solitary writer within the context of the myth of the independent westerner Karell makes the compelling argument that collaboration is an inescapable part of writing Native American Literature Helen May Dennis,2006-11-22 Considering Native American literature within a modernist framework and comparing it with writers such as Woolf Stein T S Eliot and Proust results in a valuable and enriching context for the selected texts Medicine, Education, and the Arts in Contemporary Native America Amanda K. Wixon,Clifford E. Trafzer,Donna L. Akers,2022-02-25 This book offers twenty original scholarly chapters featuring historical and biographical analyses of Native American women The lives of women found her contributed significantly to their people and people everywhere The book presents Native women of action and accomplishments in many areas of life This work highlights women during the modern era of American history countering past stereotypes of Native women With the exceptions of Pocahontas and Sacajawea historians have had little to say about American Indian women who have played key roles in the history of their tribes their relationship with others and the history of the United States Indigenous women featured herein distinguished themselves as fiction and non fiction writers poets potters basket makers musicians and dancers Other women contributed as notable educators and women working in health and medicine They are representative of many women within the Native Universe who excelled in their lives to enrich the American experience Teaching Children and Adolescents with Special Needs Judy L.
