The Value of an Archaeological Open-air Museum is in Its Use Roeland Paardekooper, 2012 There are about 300 archaeological open air museums in Europe which do more than simply present re constructed outdoor sceneries based on archaeology They have an important role as education facilities and many showcase archaeology in a variety of ways This research assesses the value of archaeological open air museums their management and their visitors and is the first to do so in such breadth and detail After a literature study and general data collection among 199 of such museums in Europe eight archaeological open air museums from different countries were selected as case studies Management and visitors have different perspectives leading to different priorities and appreciation levels The studies conclude with recommendations ideas and strategies which are applicable not just to the eight archaeological open air museums under study but to any such museum in general The recommendations are divided into the six categories of management staff collections marketing interpretation and the visitors

The Service-Dominant Logic of Marketing Robert F. Lusch, Stephen L. Vargo, 2014-12-18 Expanding on the editors award winning article Evolving to a New Dominant Logic for Marketing this book presents a challenging new paradigm for the marketing discipline This new paradigm is service oriented customer oriented relationship focused and knowledge based and places marketing once viewed as a support function central to overall business strategy Service dominant logic defines service as the application of competencies for the benefit of another entity and sees mutual service provision rather than the exchange of goods as the proper subject of marketing It moves the orientation of marketing from a market to philosophy where customers are promoted to targeted and captured to a market with philosophy where the customer and supply chain partners are collaborators in the entire marketing process The editors elaborate on this model through an historical analysis clarification and extension of service dominant logic and distinguished marketing thinkers then provide further insight and commentary The result is a more comprehensive and inclusive marketing theory that will challenge both current thinking and marketing practice The Materials of Service Design Johan Blomkvist, Simon Clatworthy, Stefan Holmlid, 2023-12-11 If Design is about forming materials then what are the materials of Service Design In this ground breaking book Johan Blomkvist Simon Clatworthy and Stefan Holmlid explore this question by establishing a discourse around the materials of service design discussing materials as a means to explore what service design is and could be
