Starting a Nonprofit at Your Church Joy Skjægstad, 2002-06-01 A large and growing number of congregations are setting up church based nonprofit organizations in order to operate community development or educational programs Once formed the nonprofit structure allows for new opportunities for accessing additional funding and drawing new collaborative partners and volunteers into the ministry Joy Skjægstad outlines the step by step procedures for setting up a 501 c 3 nonprofit organization connected to a congregation using simple easy to understand terminology and plenty of examples from churches that have already taken on this task Whether a congregation is setting up new program or has an established nonprofit that needs to be restructured or redefined congregations will find helpful guidance in this practical experience based book

Not by Faith Alone Julie Adkins, Laurie A. Occhipinti, Tara Hefferan, 2010-07-02 This edited collection provides an in depth ethnographic study of faith based development organizations in the United States shining a much needed critical light onto these organizations and their role in the United States by exploring the varied ways that faith based organizations attempt to mend the fissures and mitigate the effects of neoliberal capitalism poverty and the social service sector on the poor and powerless In doing so Not by Faith Alone generates provocative and sophisticated analyses grounded in empirical case studies of such topics as the meaning of faith based development evaluations of faith based versus secular approaches the influence of faith orientation on program formulation and delivery and examinations of faith based organizations impacts on structural inequality and poverty alleviation Taken together the chapters in this volume demonstrate the vital importance of ethnography for understanding the particular role of faith based agencies in development The contributors argue for an understanding of faith based development that moves beyond either dismissing or uncritically supporting faith based initiatives Instead contributors demonstrate the importance of grounded analysis of the specific discourses practices and beliefs that imbue faith based development with such power and reveal both the promise and the limitations of this particular vehicle of service delivery

Financial Management for Nonprofit Organizations John Zietlow, Jo Ann Hankin, Alan Seidner, 2011-02-15 Indispensable for all types and sizes of nonprofit organizations this important book imparts a clear sense of the technical expertise and proficiency needed as a nonprofit financial officer and includes real world case studies checklists tables and sample policies to clarify and explain financial concepts

Winning Grants to Strengthen Your Ministry Joy Skjegstad, 2007-05-28 Ministry leaders possess the compassion creativity and knowledge about community needs that grant funders appreciate Yet ministry groups are often less experienced than other types of nonprofit organizations in discerning which funding to seek understanding how to build relationships with funders and putting together proposals This book offers a pathway to strengthening new and existing ministries Joy Skjegstad is an experienced grant proposal writer who has successfully raised money for a variety of nonprofits over the past 20 years including a number of ministry organizations She shows how fundraising can be an integral part of ministry forcing us into deeper conversation with God expanding our relationships with others and building both our faith and our discipline Providing detailed guidance on the practical aspects of seeking grants from foundation and corporate funders Skjegstad describes approaches for researching potential funders developing a case statement putting together an effective grant proposal and following up with grant makers She explains the types of grants available and how to determine which are a good fit with your ministry For faith based ministries faith is the groundwork for fundraising the most important thing to consider while developing fundraising values and strategies Skjegstad helps faith communities identify their own cultural beliefs follow spiritual disciplines and cultivate generous hearts as they work toward integrating their faith and their fundraising faith and community Creative Street Inc, 2003-05 This video explores four models of metropolitan ministry and how these alliances are formed and sustained

Social Capital and Welfare Reform Jo Anne Schneider, 2006-02-01 In this groundbreaking study Jo Anne Schneider considers the reasons behind the limited success of most welfare reform initiatives and offers evidence based recommendations for enhancing the effectiveness of welfare policy Schneider draws on her rich and nuanced ethnographic studies of Philadelphia Milwaukee and Kenosha Wisconsin to clarify the role of social capital for both individuals and institutions She shows that the social relationships and patterns of trust that enable people to gain access to resources like government services organization funding and jobs are crucial in helping families achieve their goals Schneider examines the complex ways in which social capital functions in conjunction with economic human and cultural capital and explores social capital dynamics among government nonprofits and congregations that together provide the welfare support system Social Capital and Welfare Reform is compulsory reading for researchers and students in social work sociology anthropology public policy education community psychology social psychiatry and non profit and public administration as well as policy makers interested in welfare reform poverty and nonprofits Not by Faith Alone Roger J.R. Levesque,2002-12-11 This is the first attempt to integrate research on the place of religion in adolescent development today and to consider the impact of it on law and social policy making Community Ministry Carl S. Dudley,2002-12-31 In this era of faith based initiatives congregations increasingly find themselves in the business of establishing and supporting community ministries daycare for infants and toddlers respite care for elders and programs for housing rehab and home repair tutoring and social justice advocacy In this volume Carl S Dudley revises and updates his earlier book Basic Steps toward Community Ministry which Loren Mead called the most valuable book on parish ministry I ve seen in a decade A Dictionary of Nonprofit Terms and Concepts David Horton Smith,Robert A. Stebbins,Michael A. Dover,2006-11-08 This reference work defines more than 1 200 terms and concepts that have been found useful in past research and theory on the nonprofit sector The entries reflect the importance of associations citizen participation philanthropy voluntary action nonprofit management volunteer administration leisure and political activities of nonprofits They also reflect a concern for the wider range of useful general concepts in theory and research that bear on the nonprofit sector and its manifestations in the United States and elsewhere This dictionary supplies some of the necessary foundational work on the road toward a general theory of the nonprofit sector The Sociology of Community Connections John G. Bruhn,2011-07-18 Many of our current social problems have been attributed to the breakdown or loss of community as a place and to the fragmentation of connections due to an extreme value of individualism in the Western world particularly in the United States Not all scholars and researchers agree that individualism and technology are the primary culprits in the loss of community as it existed in the middle decade of the 20th century Nonetheless people exist in groups and connections are vital to their existence and in the daily performance of activities The second edition of the Sociology of Community Connections will identify and help students understand community connectedness in the present and future Charitable Choice at Work Sheila Suess Kennedy,2006-11-17 Too often say its critics U S domestic policy is founded on ideology rather than evidence Take Charitable Choice legislation enacted with the assumption that faith based organizations can offer the best assistance to the needy at the lowest cost The Charitable Choice provision of the 1996 Welfare Reform Act buttressed by President Bush s Faith Based Initiative of 2000 encouraged religious organizations including congregations to bid on government contracts to provide social services But in neither year was data available to prove or disprove the effectiveness of such an approach Charitable Choice at Work fills this gap with a comprehensive look at the evidence for and against faith based initiatives Sheila Suess Kennedy and Wolfgang Bielefeld review the movement s historical context along with legal analysis of constitutional concerns including privatization federalism and separation of church and state Using both qualitative and where possible statistical data the authors analyze the performance of job placement programs in three states with a representative range of religious political and demographic traits Massachusetts Indiana and North Carolina Throughout they focus on measurable outcomes as they compare non faith based with faith based organizations nonprofits with for profits and the logistics of contracting before and after Charitable Choice Among their findings in states where such information is available the composition of social service contractor pools has changed very little Reflecting their varied political cultures states have funded programs differently Faith based organizations have not been eager to seek government contracts perhaps wary of additional legal restraints and reporting burdens The authors conclude that faith based organizations appear no more effective than secular organizations at government funded social service provision that there has been no dramatic change in the social welfare landscape since Charitable Choice and that the constitutional concerns of its detractors may be valid This empirical study penetrates the fog of the culture wars moving past controversy over the role of religion in public life to offer pragmatic suggestions for policymakers and organizations who must decide how best to assist the needy

Faith Community Nursing Janet Susan Hickman, 2006 This unique text combines traditional parish nursing content with community health nursing methodology coverage of community and faith community assessment and health education and health promotion disease prevention programming

A Survey of Voluntaristics David Horton Smith, 2015-11-24 This article provides a survey of the growth of research on Nonprofit Sector and Voluntary Action Research now termed simply voluntaristics The author founded the organized global interdisciplinary socio behavioral science field of voluntaristics in 1971 with his formation and establishment of the Association for Research on Nonprofit Organizations and Voluntary Action ARNOVA www.arnova.org Both ARNOVA and its interdisciplinary academic journal Nonprofit and Voluntary Sector Quarterly NVSQ have served as initial models for the global diffusion of this interdisciplinary field now present in all inhabited continents and with upwards of 20 000 academic participants in at least 130 nations and territories and likely more Voluntaristics after more than 40 years of growth now qualifies as a new global integrative academic discipline in the socio behavioral sciences and related social professions not just as one of many interdisciplinary fields of research according to six defining criteria for a discipline However the author prefers to label voluntaristics as an inter discipline since its hallmark is the interdisciplinary study of all voluntary nonprofit sector VNPS phenomena

International Development and Public Religion Haemin Lee, 2016-02-23 Over the past few decades Christianity in the global South has grown exponentially in size and influence with many centers emerging around the globe such as Brazil South Korea and Nigeria One remarkable phenomenon in this process is the rise of faith based humanitarian international and nongovernmental organizations NGOs While traveling to about seventy different countries in Africa Asia and Latin America Haemin Lee has witnessed the surge of faith based NGOs all around the world This book explores the role that religion plays in encountering secular society from various angles by drawing upon discourses in mission studies sociology of religion and anthropology of development Specifically it probes the development practices of two major Korean organizations Korea Food for the Hungry International and Good Neighbors This book investigates the following hypothesis humanitarian care through international development NGOs appears to be the growing interest of Korean Christian mission and this shows a new direction of Korean Christianity as public religion However on closer examination a more complex reality emerges in which diverse theological and developmental ideals motivate the Korean NGOs humanitarian efforts      Faith-based Social Service Provision Under Charitable Choice ,2003
