Marra,2024-04-26 A Way Out is her first book that attempts to shed light on the hidden world of abuse In this book she exposes a world that was kept hidden and silent for much of her life She writes with compassion and insight having lived much of her life in an environment where love was substituted with verbal and physical abuse first within her immediate family then by choosing a partner who reflected that world Her compassion for those who have suffered at the hands of loved ones and strangers resonates throughout this book Through her experiences she hopes that those who suffer from abuse will find their way out The author resides with her husband in a quaint New England town where she enjoys entertaining family and friends taking long walks immersing herself in prayer and praising God for the blessings and graces He has bestowed on her The Gifts of Grief Tappouni, Therese,2013-04-01 At some point in our lives we all experience grief The death of a loved one a financial catastrophe a debilitating illness or the ending of a marriage In the dark moments that follow these losses life can seem hopeless and unbearable Author Ther se Tappouni knows this journey all too well After suffering the devastating loss of her eleven year old son she ultimately came to the realization that it is possible to not only heal from grief but to find gifts from the deepest places of despair The Gifts of Grief Finding the Light in the Darkness of Loss explores the grieving process and examines new ways to heal from the inside out Couched in Tappouni s warm and comforting prose and steeped in examples from her own experiences with deep loss. She is able to walk the reader through the grieving process while keeping in mind that the journey will be different for every person. Complete with guided audio meditations and journaling exercises, The Gifts of Grief offers a compassionate path from loss and emptiness into wholeness, teaching not only how to survive grief but also adapt and evolve new blessings from it as well. Going the Distance Mary Jane

Miller, 2000-06-08 Loren has big plans for her life; it's too bad her parents are making them. Loren Monroe thinks of herself as strong, responsible, and independent. She has to be since her parents are interested only in painting, writing songs, and moving to a new city every few months. They forget things like registering Loren for school or attending her next swim meet. Loren has had enough. She knows Mom and Dad love her, but she's gone the distance for them, and it's time they came through for her. How can she convince them that she's growing up faster than they realize? The Publishers' Trade List Annual, 1990
