The Individual and the Nature of Mass Events Jane Roberts, 2011-07-08 From the Bestselling Author of Seth Speaks Speaking exclusively through Jane Roberts Seth has repeatedly stressed the concept that we create our own reality according to our individual beliefs But how do our realities merge and combine to form mass reactions such as the overthrow of governments the birth of a new religion wars epidemics earthquakes and new periods of art architecture and technology In this pioneering work Seth explores the connection between personal beliefs and world events He pinpoints the unconscious and often negative beliefs pervading science and religion medicine and mythology and offers thought provoking reflections on Darwinism Freudianism religions cults and medical beliefs With fascinating and inspiring implications Seth asserts that the personal impulses we are often taught to see as dangerous chaotic or contradictory are instead crucial to the best interests of the species and the natural world for they lead us to live not only as loving caretakers but as partners with other species Only people who trust their spontaneous impulses can be consciously wise enough to choose from a myriad of probable futures the most promising events Jane Roberts Speaking for Seth

The System of Antichrist Charles Upton, 2005 The System of Antichrist examines the present religious and cultural scene from the standpoint of traditional metaphysics and critiques the New Age spiritualities within their postmodern context Its many references to Rene Guenon and Frithjof Schuon also help introduce these important but little known traditionalist thinkers The book presents lore relating to the latter days of the present cycle from the vantage point of comparative religion drawing upon relevant doctrines from Buddhism Hinduism Judaism Christianity Islam Zoroastrianism and the Native American traditions It also speculates upon the social psychic and spiritual nature of that being known to Christianity Judaism and Islam as the Antichrist presenting him as both an individual and a system and warning those willing to be warned against the spiritual seduction and terror he represents and against the regime which will be and is the social expression of that seduction and that terror Finally in tracing the roots of Antichrist in the fallen nature of man the author sketches the particular quality of spirituality proper to apocalyptic times the dangers it faces the unique opportunities open to it And along the way he describes his own course from the spiritual revolution of the 1960s through the world of New Age spiritualities to the threshold of traditional esoterism and metaphysics As he says speaking of the angst that characterizes the modern world The specific medicine for the shock of despair is the deeper shock of meaning Nothing but the weight of eternity breaking through the thin brittle shell of the postmodern sky can set us on our feet
