Seven Chairs:

The Seven Chairs Helen Lanteigne, Maryann Kovalski, 1998 Recounts the fate of seven very different chairs made by one man over the course of his life      Oral Lessons in Number Emerson Elbridge White, 1884      The Seventh Chair Ann Keffer, 2007-08 Descending out of the blue of a bright afternoon in Washington D C appears what looks more clearly by the second like a chair a heavy ornate wooden chair with a high carved back and jutting armrests all polished to a high gloss and looking like booty from some medieval castle Seated in the chair and coming into clearer focus every second is a nun dressed in a habit complete with wimple and veil The chair lands on a school playground amid a circle of children and the nun slick as a whistle shimmies out of her habit to reveal underneath a silver robe with stars and crescent moons worked in gold all over it The most shocking change though is that she is no longer a she Without the habit it is obvious that this nun is really one of the littlest oldest most dried up men any of the children has ever seen Who is this person who arrives by means of a magic flying chair Join Davy MacDougal Wally Wilkins and this mysterious figure from the ancient past in an adventure the likes of which their school has never before experienced      Mouse on a Mission Ed Dunlop, 1999 Welcome to the world of Bible games In this latest resource for today's busy teachers veteran children's evangelist Ed Dunlop presents one of the most exciting teaching methods of all times Book jacket      The Place of a Skull Berne Kent, 2011-07-30      The Englishman's Chair John Gloag, 2022-10-24 Originally published in 1964 The Englishman's Chair is a history of English chairs written as a continuous story from the 15th to the 20th Century and because of the revealing powers inherent in chair making and design it is also an unconventional footnote to English social history The changes in taste and fashion the increase of skill the introduction of new materials and the long battle between dignity and comfort are discussed as is the impact that modern industrial designers have had on chair design      Rethinking Globalization Bill Bigelow, Bob Peterson, 2002 Rethinking Globalization offers an extensive collection of readings and source material on critical global issues      The Papers of Thomas A. Edison Thomas A. Edison, 1989 Seeking to replicate the success of his New York electric central station throughout the United States and in Europe and Latin America Thomas A Edison vowed to become a business man for a year This bold decision began a remarkable transition period for America's greatest inventive thinker The seventh volume of Edison's papers chronicles the profound changes in his professional and personal life including the unexpected death of his wife It concludes with Edison returning to the laboratory to develop new communications technology

Mysteries of Agatha Christie Bruce Pendergast, 2004 Everyman's Guide to the Mysteries of Agatha Christie is a reference book covering Christie's 238 stories. It provides data never before published about both important and trivial facts. Dedications, time periods, and locations have been laboriously researched and provided with time warp explanations. Even trivial data such as newspapers 100, in all pubs 95, and automobiles 136 are shown, as well as each story in which they are listed. English sayings totalling 259 are shown with the book's in which they appear, including a brief explanation of their meaning. Yet Guide is much more than a list of facts. It is an informative reference book about Christie's writings. As well, different perspectives on many of the perplexing mysteries within her mysteries are provided. Finally, Guide is not an alphabetical list of stories or characters. Instead, it lists many entrancing errors of sketches and text with comments explaining where possible the reasons for their existence. Most importantly, Guide does not betray any book's endings nor the identity of the villain, a rule that genuine Christie devotees always try to uphold.
