Sex and Religion Dag Ølstein Endsjø, 2012-01-01 Sex and religion are inevitably and intricately linked There are few realms of human experience other than sex in which religion has greater reach and influence The role of religion of any faith to prohibit regulate condemn and reward is unavoidably prominent in questions of sex namely with whom when how and why In Sex and Religion Dag istein Endsj examines the myriad and complex religious attitudes towards sex in cultures throughout the world Endsj reflects on some of the most significantly problematic areas in the relationship between sex and religion from sex before or outside of marriage to homosexuality Through many examples from world religions he outlines what people mean by sex in a religious context with whom it s permissible to have sex how sex can be a directly religious experience and what consequences there are for deviance for both the individual and society As Endsj explains while Buddhist monks call attention to gay sex as a holy mystery the Christian church questions a homosexual s place in the church Some religions may believe that promiscuity leads to hurricanes and nuclear war and in others God condemns interracial marriage Sex and Religion reveals there is nothing natural or self evident about the ways in which various religions prescribe or proscribe and bless or condemn different types of sexuality Whether sex becomes sacred or abhorrent depends entirely on how a religion defines it Sex and Religion is a fascinating investigation of mores meanings rituals and rules in many faiths around the globe and will be of interest to anyone curious about the intersection of these fundamental aspects of human history and experience

Sex, Race, and Class—The Perspective of Winning Selma James, 2012-05-01 In 1972 Selma James set out a new political perspective Her starting point was the millions of unwaged women who working in the home and on the land were not seen as workers and their struggles viewed as outside of the class struggle Based on her political training in the Johnson Forest Tendency founded by her late husband C L R James on movement experience South and North and on a respectful study of Marx she redefined the working class to include sectors previously dismissed as marginal For James the class struggle presents itself as the conflict between the reproduction and survival of the human race and the domination of the market with its exploitation wars and ecological devastation She sums up her strategy for change as Invest in Caring not Killing This selection spanning six decades traces the development of this perspective in the course of building an international campaigning network It includes excerpts from the classic The Power of Women and the Subversion of the

The Psychic Life of Racism in Gay Men's Communities Damien W. Riggs, 2017-12-06 The Psychic Life of Racism in Gay Men's Communities engages in the necessarily complex task of mapping out the operations of racialized desire as it circulates among gay men In exploring such desire the contributors to this collection consider the intersections of privilege and marginalization in the context of gay men's lives and in so doing argue that as much as experiences of discrimination on the basis of sexuality are shared among many gay men experiences of discrimination within gay communities are equally as common Focusing specifically on racialization the contributors offer insight as to how hierarchies inequalities and practices of exclusion serve to bolster the central position accorded to certain groups of gay men at the expense of other groups Considering how racial desire operates within gay communities allows the contributors to connect contemporary struggles for inclusion and recognition with ongoing histories of marginalization and exclusion The Psychic Life of Racism in Gay Men's Communities is an important intervention that disputes the claim that gay communities are primarily organized around acceptance and homogeneity and instead demonstrates the considerable diversity and ongoing tensions that mark gay men's relationships with one another Fundamental Concepts and Critical Developments in Sex Education Reece M.
