Sex Shops And The Law:

Sex Shops and the Law Colin Manchester, 1986 Sex and Sexuality in China Elaine Jeffreys, 2007-01-24 Elaine Jeffreys explores the issues of sex and sexuality in a non Western context by examining debates surrounding the emergence of new sexual behaviours and the appropriate nature of their regulation in the People's Republic of China Commissioned from Western and mainland Chinese scholars of sex and sexuality in China the chapters in this volume are marked by a diversity of subject material and theoretical perspectives but turn on three related concerns First the book situates China's changing sexual culture and the nature of its governance in the socio political history of the PRC Second it shows how China's shift to a rule of law has generated conflicting conceptions of citizenship and the associated rights of individuals as sexual citizens Finally the book demonstrates that the Chinese state does not operate strictly to repress sex it also is implicated in the creation of new spaces for sexual entrepreneurship expertise and consumption This comprehensive study is a valuable resource for scholars in the fields of sexuality studies and post socialist societies and culture directly appealing to both East Asia and China specialists (Sub)Urban Sexscapes Paul J. Maginn, Christine Steinmetz, 2014-10-10 Sub Urban Sexscapes brings together a collection of theoretically informed and empirically rich case studies from internationally renowned and emerging scholars highlighting the contemporary and historical geographies and regulation of the commercial sex industry Contributions in this edited volume examine the spatial and regulatory contours of the sex industry from a range of disciplinary perspectives urban planning urban geography urban sociology and cultural and media studies and geographical contexts Australia the UK US and North Africa In overall terms Sub urban Sexscapes highlights the mainstreaming of commercial sex premises sex shops brothels strip clubs and queer spaces and products sex toys erotic literature and pornography now being commonplace in night time economy spaces the high street suburban shopping centres and the home In addition the aesthetics of commercial and alternative sexual practices BDSM and pornography permeate the sub urban landscape via billboards newspapers and magazines television music videos and the Internet The role of sex sexuality and commercialized sex in contributing to the general character of our cities cannot be ignored In short there is a need for policy makers to be realistic about the historical contemporary and future presence of the sex industry Ultimately the regulation of the sex industry should be informed by evidence as opposed to moral panics Winner of the Planning Institute of Australia WA 2015 Award for Excellence in Cutting Edge Research and Teaching Medium Law Daithí Mac Síthigh, 2017-09-13 Why should anyone care about the medium of communication today especially when talking about media law In today's digital society many emphasise convergence and seek new regulatory approaches In Medium Law however the medium theory insights of Harold Innis Marshall McLuhan and the Toronto School of Communication are drawn upon as part of an argument that differences between media and technological definitions continue to play a crucial role in the regulation of the media Indeed Mac Síthigh argues that the idea of converged cross platform medium neutral media regulation is unattainable in practice and potentially undesirable in substance This is demonstrated through the exploration of the regulation of a variety of platforms such as films games video on demand and premium rate telephone services Regulatory areas discussed include content regulation copyright tax relief for producers and developers new online services conflicts between regulatory systems and freedom of expression This timely and topical volume will appeal to postgraduate students and postdoctoral researchers interested in fields such as Law Policy Regulation Media Studies Communications History and Cultural Studies

authority S la enlen tackles this subject in Renaissance and contemporary English drama In Renaissance tragedies composed in blank verse such as Marlowe s Tamburlaine Part I and Shakespeare s Richard III political power is identified and matched with a powerful rhetorical style Almost all of the battles in such plays are fought verbally rather than physically on the stage In these verbal duels or battles competent speakers such as Tamburlaine and Richard III exploit the frontiers of deception manipulate abuse and destroy their opponents with low verbal competence through verbal violence Thus a parallel is drawn between rhetorical skills and military power and between word and sword In contemporary English plays the violence of daily language not only contributes to the creation of a realistic spectacle but also and more importantly to the process of replacing free critical thinking by automatically preconceived patterns of thought and speech Institutions and related discourses function to set up norms or standards against which people are defined categorized judged and punished In Bernard Shaw s Pygmalion Harold Pinter s The Birthday Party and Anthony Neilson s The Censor verbal violence in the form of daily language is not only deployed to construct authority dominate and standardize subjects but also to deconstruct and defy authority
