Museum of Art,Ann H. Sievers,Linda D. Muehlig,Nancy Rich,2000 This newest volume in Hudson Hills Press s acclaimed series about leading collections of master drawings presents sixty eight great sheets all reproduced in full color including many versos from one of the finest college museums in America Master Drawings by Géricault Pierpont Morgan Library (New York, NY),1985 French Master Drawings from the Collection of Muriel Butkin Carter E. Foster,Sylvain Bellenger,Patrick Shaw Cable,Cleveland Museum of Art,2001 Accompanying an exhibition at the Cleveland Museum of Art last fall and now at the Dahesh Museum in New York this catalog focuses upon the French drawings in Muriel Butkin s highly specialized collection which she has promised to the Cleveland Museum To assemble her diverse yet nicely integrated set of drawings Butkin started buying 18th century French drawings when they were affordable In the mid 1970s with the guidance of art historian Gabriel Weisberg she expanded her collection to include 19th century French drawings These drawings were counter to the mainstream impressionist and postimpressionist taste of the time and focused more on academic French subject matter such as life drawings portraits or compositional studies In the preface Butkin herself reinforces her taste by saying that drawings are much more personal and spontaneous than paintings often demonstrating the artistic process Foster curator of drawings at the Cleveland Museum and other scholars present a well researched volume that contributes new information to a very specialized field of art history It is greatly disappointing however that the bulk of the reproductions are in black and white often missing the subtly colored tones in many of the drawings Nonetheless this is recommended for museum and academic libraries that support graduate programs in art history 183 b w illustrations Master Drawings from the Yale University Art Gallery Yale University (New Haven, Conn.). G ricault s images of black men women and children who suffered slavery s trans Atlantic passage in the late eighteenth and early nineteenth centuries including his 1819 painting The Raft of the Medusa The book focuses on G ricault s depiction of black people his approach towards slavery and the voices that advanced or denigrated them By turning to documents essays and critiques both before and after Waterloo 1815 and most importantly G ricault s own oeuvre this study explores the fetters of slavery that Gericault challenged alongside a growing number of abolitionists overtly or covertly This book will be of interest to scholars in art history race and ethnic studies and students of modernism Delacroix Drawings Ashley E.

Dunn, Colta Ives, Marjorie Shelley, 2018-07-02 Known as the master of French Romanticism for his energetic paintings Eug ne Delacroix 1798 1863 was also a consummate draftsman Yet his drawings remained largely unknown to the public during his lifetime Beginning with a posthumous studio sale in 1864 however these drawings have been sought after and widely appreciated for the incomparable insight they afford into the artist s process This handsome book one of the few to explore the topic in depth provides new insight into Delacroix s drawing practice paying particular attention to his methods and the ways in which he pushed the boundaries of the medium It showcases a selection of more than one hundred drawings many of which have been rarely seen from Karen B Cohen s world renowned collection The works highlighted here range from finished watercolors to sketches from copies after old masters and popular prints to drawings preparatory to many of Delacroix s most important painting and print projects Illustrated with a wealth of comparative images the book examines the essential role of drawing in the artist s formation and aesthetic practice while two shorter texts trace the history of the collecting of Delacroix's work at the Metropolitan Museum and present important new research on his materials and techniques
