M. W. Tillyard, 1965 English Literature Collin Booker, 2019-04-19 Both the frame and substance of writing today owes much to the advancements that occurred in England between the Restoration and Romantic periods The development of the novel set off the formation of new sorts and went with an ascent in education all through the nation This volume looks at the English essayists who helped shape the social political and religious atmosphere of the age and drenches understudies in the historical backdrop of accounts that keep on enchanting groups of onlookers today This is a noteworthy and clear review of eighteenth century scholarly life giving a genuine feeling of the many sided quality of the age and of the social and scholarly atmosphere in which innovative writing thrived It thinks about a portion of the overwhelming topics of the period contending against such marks as Augustan Age Time of Enlightenment and Time of Reason which have been joined to the eighteenth century by commentators and students of history This book is a piece of the Tredition Classics arrangement Metaphysical Lyrics & Poems of the Seventeenth Century, Donne to Butler Sir Herbert John Clifford Grierson, 1925 Politics, Poetics, and Hermeneutics in Milton's Prose David Loewenstein, James Turner, 1990-04-26 This book explores the interconnections between Milton's politics, poetics and prose writings Romantic Generations Robert F. Gleckner, 2001 These essays express a common belief that the study of Romantic literature must be at once professionally serious and personally engaging Topics discussed range from Wordsworth to Lady Caroline Lamb and from Blake and Burke to the contemporary Irish poet Paul Muldoon Each essay also offers close readings of essential works on English and Irish Romanticism Introducing the collection is a tribute by the celebrated Romanticist Peter Manning Scripture, Metaphysics, and Poetry Robert MacSwain, 2016-04-01 This book offers a critical edition of arguably the greatest work of English theology in the 20th century Austin Farrer's Bampton Lectures published as The Glass of Vision in 1948 Farrer was an interdisciplinary genius who made original contributions to philosophy, theology and biblical studies as well as to our understanding of the role of imagination in human thought and Christian doctrine According to Farrer the three primary themes of these lectures are scripture, metaphysics and poetry individually and in relation to each other The lectures defend his famous theory of divine revelation through images rather than propositions or events a provocative account of the place of metaphysical reasoning in theology and a literary approach to the Biblical text that was decades ahead of its time and is still controversial The Glass of Vision has generated a rich and interesting interdisciplinary conversation that has lasted for decades starting with commentators such as Helen Gardner and Frank Kermode In addition to Farrer's full text this critical edition also contains an introduction to the significance and context of Farrer's thought and a selection of thirty years worth of commentary by leading British and European theologians and literary scholars David Brown, Ingolf Dalferth, Hans Haug, Douglas Hedley, David Jasper and Gerard Loughlin Of interest to literary and biblical scholars, theologians and philosophers this book holds particular value for those exploring the nature of imagination in contemporary thought and scholarship

The Metaphysics of Evolution Thomas Whittaker, 1928 Reading Samuel Johnson Phil Jones, 2023-11-15 This book examines how Samuel Johnson was assimilated by later writers ranging from James Boswell to Samuel Beckett It is as much about these writers as Johnson himself showing how they found their own space in part through their response to Johnson which helped shape their writing and view of contemporary literature Milton's Socratic Rationalism David Oliver Davies, 2017-08-17 The conversation of Adam and Eve in Paradise Lost that most obvious of Milton's additions to the Biblical narrative enacts the pair's inquiry into and discovery of the gift of their rational nature in a mode of discourse closely aligned to practices of Socrates in the dialogues of Plato and eponymous discourses of Xenophon Adam and Eve both begin their life much wondering where And what I was whence thither brought and how Their conjoint discoveries of each other's and their own nature in this talk Milton arranges for a dialectical counterpoise to his persona's expressed task to justify the ways of God to men Like Xenophon's Socrates in the Memorabilia Milton's persona indites those ways of God in terms most agreeable to his audience of men notions Aristotle calls generally accepted opinions Thus for Milton s fit audience Paradise Lost will present two ways that address congenial to men per se and a fit discourse attuned to their very own rational faculties to understand the ways of God to men The interrogation of each way by its counterpart among the distinct audiences is the great Argument of the poem From Sky and Earth to Metaphysics Anna-Teresa

Tymieniecka,2014-10-13 This is an exceptional volume which expands upon the World Phenomenology Institute s recent research the study of the beautiful intertwining of the skies and the cosmos with the human pursuits of philosophy literature and the arts The relationship of humans to the cosmos is examined through the exploration of phenomenology metaphysics and the arts The authors of this volume write on a variety of topics which all seek to open the reader s eyes to the relationship of humans and our perception of our place in the cosmos This volume offers a framework in which to present a rich panorama a variety of perspectives illustrating how the perception of the interplay between human beings and the celestial realm advances in common experience and worldviews This attempt to uncover our cosmic position is a great and worthwhile intellectual challenge Philosophy as well as literature and the arts are nourished by this human quest for knowledge and understanding Studying Poetry Barry Spurr,2006-08-25 This engaging introduction to poetry covers the entire tradition of poetry in English providing close readings of interesting and varied texts In this updated second edition coverage has been expanded to cover medieval poetry and to give more weight to literary theory and women poets while a new chapter focuses on key contemporary poets Kant, Shelley and the Visionary Critique of Metaphysics O. Bradley Bassler,2018-05-15 This book addresses the philosophy of Kant and the poetry of Shelley as historical starting points for a new way of thinking in the modern age Fusing together critical philosophy and visionary poetry Bassler develops the notion of visionary critique or parapsysics as a model for future philosophical endeavor This philosophical practice is rooted in the concept of the indefinite power associated with the sublime in both Kant and Shelley s work to which the notion of the parafinite or indefinitely large is extended in this book John Donne and Baroque Allegory Hugh Grady,2017-08-10 John Donne has been one of the most controversial poets in the history of English literature his complexity and intellectualism provoking both praise and censure In this major re assessment of Donne s poetry Hugh Grady argues that his work can be newly appreciated in our own era through Walter Benjamin s theory of baroque allegory Providing close readings of The Anniversaries The Songs and Sonnets and selected other lyrics this study reveals Donne as being immersed in the aesthetic of fragmentation that define both the baroque and the postmodernist aesthetics of today Synthesizing cultural criticism and formalist analysis Grady illuminates Donne afresh as a great poet for our own historical moment Mediaeval Philosophy. Or, A Treatise of Moral and Metaphysical Philosophy from the Fifth to the Fourteenth Century Frederick Denison Maurice,1870
