Modern Architecture 1851 1919:

Modern architecture, 1851-1919 K. Frampton, 1983 Modern Architecture, 1851-1945: Modern architecture 1851-1919 Kenneth Frampton, 1983 Modern Architecture Kenneth Frampton, Yukio Futagawa, 1983 Global Architecture Document Kenneth Frampton, 1981 GA Document, Special Issue 2: Modern Architecture, 1851-1919 Kenneth Frampton, 198? GA document special issue, 2; modern architecture 1851-1919; Kenneth Frampton, 1981 Building Institution Kim Förster, 2024-02-21 Building Institution chronicles the expansion of architecture as a profession and discipline in the postmodern era Kim Förster traces the compelling history of the Institute for Architecture and Urban Studies which was active in New York from 1967 to 1985 Drawing on extensive archival research and oral histories he constructs a collective biography that details the Institute's diverse roles and the dynamic interplay between research and design education culture and publishing By exploring the transformation of cultural production into a practice as well as the culturalization and global postmodernization of architecture the volume contributes significantly to the institutional history of architecture Organic Design in Twentieth-Century Nordic Architecture Erik Champion, 2019-02-18 Organic Design in Twentieth Century Nordic Architecture presents a communicable and useful definition of organic architecture that reaches beyond constraints The book focuses on the works and writings of architects in Nordic countries such as Sigurd Lewerentz Jørn Utzon Sverre Fehn and the Aaltos Aino Elissa and Alvar among others It is structured around the ideas of organic design principles that influenced them and allowed their work to evolve from one building to another Erik Champion argues organic architecture can be viewed as a concerted attempt to thematically unify the built environment through the allegorical expression of ongoing interaction between designer architectural brief and building as process With over 140 black and white images this book is an intriguing read for architecture students and professionals alike Architecture and Identity Chris Abel, Norman Foster, 2012-10-02 Instead of tuning the consumer to the machine we can now tune the machine to the consumer This edited collection of essays now in its second edition brings together the author's key writings on the cultural technological and theoretical developments reshaping Modern architecture into a responsive and diverse movement for the twenty first century Chris Abel approaches his subject from a wide range of knowledge including cybernetics philosophy new human science and development planning as well as his experience as a teacher and critic on four continents The result is a unique global perspective on the changing nature of Modern architecture at the turn of the millennium Including two new chapters this revised and expanded second edition offers radical insights into such topics as the impact of information technology on customized architecture production the relations between tradition and innovation prospects for a global eco culture and the local and global forces shaping the architecture and cities of Asia Chris Abel is an architectural writer and educator based in Malta He has taught at major universities in the UK North and South America Southeast Asia and the Middle East and is a contributor to numerous international journals and other publications He currently holds visiting appointments at the University of Malta and the University of the Philippines American Colossus: The Grain Elevator, 1843 to 1943 William J. Brown, 2009 The first full length history of the American grain elevator from 1843 to 1943 Eight black and white illustrations appendix index bibliography The extended self Chris Abel, 2016-10-28 In this wide ranging study of architecture and cultural evolution the author argues that underlying the global environmental crisis is a general resistance to changing personal and social identities shaped by a technology based culture and its energy hungry products The book traces the roots of that culture to the coevolution of Homo sapiens and technology from the first use of tools as artificial extensions of the human body to the motorised cities spreading around the world whose uncontrolled effects are changing the planet itself Advancing a new concept of the meme called the technical meme as the primary agent of cognitive extension and technical embodiment the author proposes a theory of the extended self encompassing material and spatial as well as psychological and social elements Drawing upon research from philosophy psychology and the neurosciences the book presents a new approach to environmental and cultural studies that will appeal to a broad readership searching for insights into the crisis Land of Stone Roger Emmerson, 2022-12-06 Welcome to a journey of remarkable buildings and remarkable thoughts about these buildings shaped as they are by deep time modern ideas and Scottish culture Readers are sure to see new vistas in the land of stone open before them From the Foreword by PROFESSOR ANDREW PATRIZIO What makes Scottish architecture Scottish What ideas drive Scottish architecture What has modern architecture in Scotland meant to the Scots Ever since the granny tops rattling and clanking in the wind to draw smoke up the tenemental flues from open coal fires caught my attention as a three year old architecture and its many parts purposes processes and procedures has fascinated me For me architecture has always had profound significance Land of Stone seeks to disengage widely held conceptions of what a Scottish architecture superficially looks like and to focus on the ideas and events philosophical political practical and personal that inspired architects and their clients to create the cities towns villages and buildings we cherish today IAUS, the Institute for Architecture and Urban Studies Suzanne Frank, Suzanne Shulof Frank, 2010 The book is a combined memoir and impressionistic history of the Institute for Architecture and Urban Studies At first affiliated with New York's Museum of Modern Art and Cornell University the Institute housed architects artists and historians who worked on creative design and intellectual projects and would become world renown Its creation and direction was in the hands of its able leader Peter Eisenman Besides a documentary study of the work that went on there among an international clearing house the book is laced with impressions of the author's experience there It has been in the works for over 12 years and was originally financed by the Graham Foundation for the Study of the Fine Arts and has subsequently been aided by Dr Jenny Kaufmann The photographs of the Institute at the height of its activity are included and so does an original ground plan of its West 40th Street office done by Scott Brandi who also designed the book It ends with 27 interviews of prominent members of the Institute who comment on it and their experiences The book should appeal to architecture students and those interested in architecture and urbanism of the seventies when the government in the United States was more reasonable in economic and political equity

Survival Boogie Woogie. Neo-Japonisme, Architectural Photography & Abstraction

Jean-Sébastien Cluzel, 2024-07-01 What links are there between Piet Mondrian's unfinished work Victory Boogie Woogie 1942-4 and post-war Japanese and Japanese style architectural photography As far back as the mid 1950s critics and photographers were inclined to link Mondrian's painting with modern Japanese architecture and some historians were to go so far as to assert that Mondrian himself had been influenced by traditional Japanese architecture Powerful associations such as these contributed to the coming together of Western and Japanese architectural modernity They also underpinned the survival of Japonisme in architecture or put another way of the neo Japonisme that emerged after the Second World War However while this kinship between Mondrian's abstraction and the aesthetic of Japanese architecture is little apparent in architecture it does show in architectural photography This book which takes a sidelong look at Mondrian examines the works of the foremost among Japanese and American architectural photographers in an effort to interpret the dynamics of how the world of architecture was Japanized between 1945 and 1985

Steel Construction Manual Helmut C. Schultiz, Werner Sobek, Karl J. Habermann, 2012-12-10 Steel Construction Manual

Helmut C Schultiz Werner Sobek Karl J Habermann GA Document, 1991 The Early Public Garages of San Francisco Mark D. Kessler, 2013-05-06 In the quarter century from San Francisco's devastating fire of 1906 to the beginning of the Great Depression as automobiles exploded in popularity new buildings had to be conceived and constructed to provide parking space and repair facilities This book studies a number of the resulting public garages that featured facade designs based on historical architectural styles Considering the garages function the facades exhibit a surprising grace and nobility Through an analysis complemented by photographs including sixty by noted architectural photographer Sharon Risedorph and drawings the author dissects the architectural and cultural factors that lie at the heart of this unexpected merit Addressing the discrepancy between the buildings beauty and the assumption that old garages are unsightly and disposable the book examines them as cultural artifacts of the dawn of the Motor Age The garage is presented as a new form of transportation depot employing architectural symbolism to celebrate the ascendancy of the automobile over the train Today the surviving buildings are vulnerable to real estate development in part because their quality is misunderstood The book a fresh perspective on the value of older utilitarian buildings concludes with a call to preserve these structures and adapt them to compatible new uses
