Multiple Identities Of The Middle East:

The Multiple Identities of the Middle East Bernard Lewis, 1999 The Middle East is the birthplace of ancient civilizations but most of the modern states that occupy its territory today are of recent origin as are many key concepts of communal and individual identity and loyalty that the peoples of the region now confront In The Multiple Identities of the Middle East eminent Middle East historian Bernard Lewis elucidates the critical role of identity in the domestic regional and international tensions and conflicts of the Middle East today Examining religion race and language country nation and state Lewis traces the rapid evolution of the identities of the Middle Eastern peoples from the collapse of the centuries old Ottoman Empire in 1918 to today s clash of old and new allegiances He shows how during the twentieth century imported Western ideas such as liberalism fascism socialism patriotism and nationalism have transformed Middle Easterners ancient notions of community their self perceptions and their aspirations To this fascinating historical portrait Lewis brings an understanding of the region and its peoples as well as a profound sympathy for the plight that the modern world has imposed on them The result is an invaluable tool in our understanding of an area that is of increasing global importance and concern today

Non-Muslims in Muslim Majority Societies Kajsa Ahlstand, Goran Gunner, 2011-09-29 In a world where almost all societies are multi religious and multi ethnic we need to study how social cohesion can be achieved in different contexts In some geographical areas as in the Middle East and the Indian subcontinent people of different religious belonging have through the ages lived side by side sometimes in harmony and sometimes in dissonance In other geographical regions as in Scandinavia societies have been quite religiously homogeneous but only recently challenged by immigration In both locations the relations between religious minority and majority are very much on the agenda In order to discuss the situation for non Muslims in Muslim majority societies a consultation was convened with both Muslim and Christian participants from Pakistan Palestine Lebanon and Sweden Some of the participants work in academic settings others in faith based organisations some in jurisprudence and others with theological issues Non Muslims in Muslim Majority Societies is the result of that consultation The intention of the book is to trigger reflection and further thinking through papers that discuss issues such as freedom of religion minority rights secular and religious legislation and inter religious dialogue in Muslim majority societies Although the articles are presented as works in progress and remain tentative in many of their conclusions this book is an important contribution to the global debate over religious tolerance and religious pluralism

This 53rd edition of the annually updated volume of the World Today Series provides important insights that take the reader beyond the headlines. It offers detailed and up to date information about the politics, economies and societies of the twenty four states that make up the region. Contemporary events are placed in their historical context through an examination of major civilizations and key historical events. This volume introduces major themes that have shaped the region including the struggles of ordinary people to achieve democratic rights, the role of oil in shaping society, burgeoning environmental threats and the rise and fall of the Islamic State caliphate. While there is reason for optimism in regards to the Middle East and South Asia, this is tempered by the very real challenges that confront the region. The general reader will gain an understanding of these challenges and opportunities through an exploration of current and past developments.

The Dilemma of Popular Sovereignty in the Middle East: Power from or to the People? Mr. Kingshuk Chatterjee, Ms. Priya Singh, 2014-03-15. The ongoing political turmoil in the Middle East as a whole would seem to be essentially a contest between the minimalist and maximalist positions on popular sovereignty: should power merely come from and be exercised in the name of the people? Or should those in power be fully accountable to the people? The dilemma warrants a closer look. The present volume comes out of an international conference held in Calcutta, India, organised by the Institute of Foreign Policy Studies and the Centre for Pakistan and West Asian Studies, University of Calcutta, in March 2013. This volume aims not at a definitive analysis of why what happened did happen; it aims instead at getting a sense of what was actually happening and what is at issue.

The Middle East and South Asia 2018-2019 Seth Cantey, 2018-10-26. This annually updated volume of the World Today Series is designed to place in context the passionate controversies and emotional attachments of the two billion people who live study work and die in the Middle East and South Asia Despite room for optimism in some areas many parts of the Middle East and South Asia continue to face extraordinary challenges and difficult outlooks Much of this has to do with conflict across the region which extends well beyond atrocities perpetrated by the Islamic State and the Assad regime in Syria This volume depicts a region where hundreds of millions seek dignity as humans and respect from their governments This volume helps the general reader understand recent and past developments from these countries Educating
